WOULD THIS BE NEWS TO YOU?

"I never seem to be lucky in finding bargains."

I heard someone say that not long ago. What a pity, I thought to myself—when every day is bargain day at HILL'S. For instance, I bought this clever silk dress there for only $2.85—isn't that a bargain for you?

HILL'S

La Grande's Largest Home-Owned Store

MARKET NEWS OF THE DAY

CHICAGO WHEAT

	Open	High	Low	Close
May	1.05½	1.05¾	1.02¾ @ ⅞	1.03¾
July	1.01½ @ ⅝	1.01½	1.00½	1.01⅛ @ ¼
Sept.	1.02⅛	1.02⅛	1.00¾	1.00⅞ @ 1.01
Dec.	1.11½ @ ⅝	1.11⅝	1.10⅜	1.11⅛ @ ⅜

PORTLAND WHEAT

	Open	High	Low	Close
May	1.01	1.01	1.01	1.01
July	1.02½	1.02½	1.02½	1.02½
Sept.	1.03	1.03	1.02½	1.02½

Eggs Weak With Some Dealers Cutting Price

PORTLAND (Or.), May 21 (AP)—Several large independent dealers were reported to have reduced their buying and selling prices on eggs to correspond with those of other local markets. The Washington organization were said to have made a substantial cut. The effect of reductions of 2 cents yesterday and 4 cents today was to bring the wholesale price of extras to 45 cents. Firsts were quoted at 43 cents and seconds at 41 cents. The reductions were said to be due to the heavy receipts.

Butter prices were firmly steady following Tuesday's decline and trade was said to be showing some improvement.

Receipts the past week were reported as follows: Eggs, 1,000 cases; butter, 1,000 cases; cheese, 100 cases.

Country meats were steady and unchanged.

Poultry receipts were reported as light and unchanged.

Potatoes were steady, unchanged.

Onions were steady, unchanged.

Vegetables were steady, unchanged.

Fruits were steady, unchanged.

Hops were unchanged.

LIVERPOOL WHEAT

LIVERPOOL, May 21 (AP)—Wheat closed May 8 1-8d, July 7 3-8d, Sept. 7 1-8d, Dec. 7 1-8d.

BUTTERFAT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21 (AP)—U. S. No. 1 92 cents.

MOSE LYNN POSTPONED

SALEM, Or., May 21 (AP)—James W. Mott, one of the men who will represent Marion county in the legislature, in announcing the opening speech to will become a candidate for governor. He has the speechmaking bug, it is understood, as Portland and Spokane dispatch of Wednesday will report Mott's speech, although Mott himself will be in Salem. Mott's speech, incidentally, will appear in these columns on Thursday.

KANSAS FARMERS MEASURES

SALEM, Or., May 21 (AP)—Congressman W. C. Hawley has written the Salem chamber of commerce that he will support a measure providing for a ship canal connecting the Willamette river with Portland. He has introduced the bill at other sessions.

TIMES EXPERIMENT

Whereupon, the opinion of the Observer which is that is unnecessary in a town where there is nothing doing, time unless Grandma Smith's cow gets into Mrs. Jones' garden, when the two ladies will have a battle royal, and the whole town will be interested.

Clark Wood Says

Impudence is induced by the perusal of exciting stories just before bedtime, according to Chicago scientists. Chicagoans must enjoy sound slumber after reading their local sheets.

"India Will Send In Revolting Group." Which is the kind of a group it would be.

In the scenario issues we offer when consultation may be omitted from the pictures. The part is the check to the cash, see the bank in the stories.

A West Point man, who marries most easily, and when he is used to use of uniform training.

Chicagoan never feel "That Sale" something to an article in The Observer. Anyhow, the Portland News-Journal doesn't know what it means.

Things have grown so unbearable down there that we are wondering if the Ku Klux Klan could get in with a picnic in the south somewhere.

We admire to see this week's remark in the Baker Democrat-Herald: "Old Man Cupid must have some assistance and he doesn't have to use gas & carbon oil."

Judge Alden on the Key are the accused but he appears from the tone on the sidelines.

Chats With Parents

BY ANNE Burgess Peale

A child's acceptance of routine should, of course, have been established during infancy, but if it has not been, it will do no good for his mother suddenly to make a large and drastic revolve and to insist all at once upon putting over a proper routine.

It would be wise instead to concentrate on essentials and to try to put these over firmly but tactfully.

In the instance of a five year old who has been permitted to go to bed at irregular hours it would probably be unwise suddenly to command him to go to bed at the stroke of seven.

That's a thing which all at once he would be sure to put over a parental row that would ever her regularity in getting him to bed as possible.

One would find that since hour and hour the personality linked together in the child's mind. She would be able to see that there was a connection between the two.

The mother of a negative child would be careful sometimes to avoid the necessity of refusal to do as he is told. If he asks can I do so and so (building blocks as an example) she would say, "Why, yes, I'd like to have you do that."

Then there is a positive child who has a great deal to be said for his independence of character. Such a child would be careful to see that his mother's commands were reasonable and that she was willing to stand back of them.

Children are not to be treated as grown-ups. They are not to be expected to have the reasoning powers of adults. They are not to be expected to have the self-control of adults. They are not to be expected to have the judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the experience of adults. They are not to be expected to have the knowledge of adults. They are not to be expected to have the wisdom of adults. They are not to be expected to have the maturity of adults. They are not to be expected to have the sophistication of adults. They are not to be expected to have the worldliness of adults. They are not to be expected to have the cynicism of adults. They are not to be expected to have the skepticism of adults. They are not to be expected to have the pessimism of adults. They are not to be expected to have the optimism of adults. They are not to be expected to have the idealism of adults. They are not to be expected to have the realism of adults. They are not to be expected to have the practicality of adults. They are not to be expected to have the impracticality of adults. They are not to be expected to have the common sense of adults. They are not to be expected to have the good judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the bad judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the mixed judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the indifferent judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the neutral judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the positive judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the negative judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the judgment of adults. They are not to be expected to have the