

Eggs Continue Weak But With No Cut In Price

PORTLAND, Ore., May 22 (AP)—Egg values continue weak, although no price change was announced by the co-operatives. Butter quotations were fairly steady following the recent decline. Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the U. S. department of agriculture says:

Trading on the wholesale fruit and vegetable market continues dull, probably due to increased supplies of early-summer fruits, movement of which is delayed by cool rainy weather. Cantaloupes from the Imperial valley are of excellent quality. But they are meeting with little interest by the retail trade, and prices were lowered 25-50c per crate today.

A few cherries are arriving from California, but prices are still high, and demand is limited. Eastern Washington is expressing a few crates of early cherries daily also.

"Oregon asparagus and strawberries are in light supply, and prices continue steady. Weather continues to do damage to quality of strawberries.

"First large white potatoes from the Shafter California district appeared at Portland today. This is fine-appearing stock, selling at about 5c per lb.

"Tomatoes from Mexico, Southern California, and Texas are competing for preference. A general lowering of prices is the result."

SUGAR AND FLOUR

PORTLAND, Ore., May 22 (AP)—Sugar: (sacked ton) steady; cane, fruit or berry $14.50 per cwt. Beet sugar $4.75 cwt.

Flour: (city delivery price) steady; family patents, 42c $17.00; whole wheat, 42c $16.10; graham, 42c $15.90; bakers' hard wheat, 25c $6.20; bakers' bluestem patents, 42c $6.50; pastry flour, 42c $6.50.

Neighborhood Club Presents Choir

with her silvery blue costume in the "Bliss Danube Waltz" and delighted her audience with an encore.

Soloists for the evening were Mrs. S. E. Morgan, Mrs. Ray Fuller, Olive M. Currey and Mr. Towler.

well known here, sang "Arabisches Liebeslied" by Coombs in German and "Le Cor" by Fleiter in French. He sang "Asleep in the Deep" by Petric as an encore.

Mrs. Morgan gave two numbers by Huntington-Woodman: "Floodgates" and "All the World's in Love." In these an opportunity was given for bringing out the quality and sweetness of her soprano tones.

Mrs. Currey sang Breit's "Song of the Soul" and D. Hardlet's "Mignon." Her contralto voice revealed a power, fullness and flexibility in these difficult numbers which brought a quick response from her audience.

Mrs. Fuller's number were "As the Dawn" by Otto Cantor and "My Lover He Comes On A Steep" by Clough-Leighter. She has a well-cultured voice which is always especially attractive to her hearers. She was accompanied by Mrs. Wright. The difficulties of execution of the last number made it not only a splendid solo for the singer but also for the accompanist.

Mrs. Harley Richardson accompanied the choir and other assisting artists, presenting a very definite contribution to the success of last night's concert.

21c Light! especially pleased

Mr. Towler, whose bass voice
