LEAGUE LEADERS ARE TROUNCED

Sacs and Oaks Defeated by Los Angeles and San Francisco Thursday

By the Associated Press. The league leaders, Sacs and Oaks, victors Wednesday, turned about yesterday and entered losses in their standings at the hands of Los Angeles and San Francisco, respectively.

The Sacs and Oaks got four hits each, but San Francisco made better use of its chances, and scored ten runs in Oakland's three innings. The Sacs' tally was made on home runs by Jerry Lawson and Fred Wingo. Elmer J. Baker was the winning pitcher, and Oakland was creditable.

The last Thursday game to be played by the Sacs at Stockton, due to the shift to night ball when the team is next at home, the league leaders were downed by the Angels 5 to 2.

Seattle had to keep plugging in to the tenth inning to squeeze out the first win in their series with the Missions, but finally succeeded, by an 8 to 6 score. The Boone Gaudinski Seattle's early lead by getting a homer with two on bases off Kunk in the third.

Three Ball, White game. Emil Yde, ex-big-timer, now with Hollywood, got credit for pitching a victory by throwing just one ball, as the Stars pushed Portland farther into the cellar with a double victory, 7 to 6, and 2 to 1. Yde relieved Johns in the last half of the ninth with two out already, and the first ball he pitched ended the first game. In the second contest Portland got seven hits and their pitcher, Orinman, held the Stars to three, but the visitors bunched theirs to make two runs on them, just enough to win.

The day's encounters closed the race in the first division, and left the Missions with only a slim hold on first place in the second division.

At Los Angeles, first game: Portland 6 11 0 Hollywood 7 10 2 May and Palfalussy, Johns and Beverly.

Second game: Portland 3 7 6 Hollywood 2 3 1 Orinman and Woodall; Wetzel and Hooser, (Seven Innings.)

At Stockton: Los Angeles 8 10 6 Sacramento 4 3 2 Wash, Peters and Harmah; Flynn, Vinc, Thomas and Koehbe.

At San Francisco: Seattle 8 15 1 Missions 6 16 0 Kunk and Cox; H. Pillette, Casler and Hoffman, (Ten Innings.)

At Oakland: San Francisco 5 4 4 Oakland 3 4 6 Jarabe and Gaston; Craighead, Edwards and Lombard.

Oregon State Crew To Row Huskies

SEATTLE, May 21 (AP)—Oregon State college will break into crew racing tomorrow afternoon when the Beaver eight meets the first and second freshmen boats of the University of Washington over a two mile course on Lake Washington here. The O. S. C. combination was expected to take two workouts today to get the "feel" of a Washington boat and race. The Beavers did not bring their shell with them.

The Washington first freshman eight will be the same boat that defeated the California Babes here April 11. The Husky freshmen will race against the Oregon State seniors.

Dual Track Meet Season To Close; Three Tomorrow

SEATTLE, Wash., May 23 (AP)—The Pacific Coast conference northern division dual track meet season will be brought to a close tomorrow afternoon with the Washington State college meeting Washington at Seattle. Oregon State is meeting with Oregon at Corvallis, and Idaho battling with Montana at Moscow.

The annual conference meet at Pullman, Wash., next weekend will wind up all track and field activities in the northwest. All the schools in the northern division will compete in the Pullman affair next Friday and Saturday.

Although losing to the Oregon Webfoots at Eugene last Saturday, the Washington Huskies were picked to win over the Cougars here tomorrow.

Oregon was a favorite to defeat Oregon State while Idaho and Montana were expected to put up a close battle.

HUSKIES LEAD IN NORTHERN CONFERENCE

SEATTLE, May 23 (AP)—University of Washington's baseball team went into the lead in the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference here yesterday when they defeated University of Oregon 2 to 1 in a ten inning clash. Oregon retains second place in the standings. The score: Oregon 1 6 1 Washington 2 11 1 McDonald and Hoag; Putnam, Nevins and Brennan.

PULLMAN, Wash., May 22 (AP)—Oregon State's baseball team came back yesterday to defeat Washington State 5 to 3. Ballard started the fireworks in the first inning by hitting a home run with

Double Wedding Event Of Cove On Wednesday

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Cove had a double wedding Wednesday afternoon when Miss Ada Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lloyd, was married to John Collins and Miss Doris Edell, daughter of E. Edell, was married to Ben Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Lloyd. The marriage ceremony was read by the Rev. N. E. Hershey, of the Methodist church here. Mr. Edell, father of one of the brides, and Mrs. W. J. Hallmark were the only guests. The brides were charming in orchid colored gowns, Miss Edell wearing a beautiful crepe dress of Kiote blue and Miss Lloyd being attired in a rose georgette. Mr. Lloyd is employed at the power plant of the E. D. L. & P. company where this couple will live and Mr. Collins has charge of the Forbay and this couple will live there. Mr. Collins is an Idaho man but has been employed for some months at the Forbay and the others of the marriage party are Cove young people. All have the best wishes of the entire community.

William Walter, the two months old infant son of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Platt, died at the family home Thursday morning, May 22. This baby was born March 11 and was 2 months and 11 days of age. He contracted whooping cough two or three weeks ago and had been very ill since. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Knodgrass and Zimmerman.
