SEEKS $12,500 DAMAGES FROM PROH AGENTS
ST. LOUIS, May 24—(AP)—Mrs. Lillie B. Peters of Portland, Ore., formerly of St. Louis, seeks $12,500 damages from six prohibition agents for alleged malicious destruction of property during a raid, in a case on trial in Federal court here.

Mrs. Peters asks damages against James Dillon, deputy prohibition administrator, and five of his agents for what she claims was willful destruction of a building owned by her on Olive street here February 11. The officers found a still in the building. She alleges they smashed windows and doors and cut a hole in the third floor permitting 4,500 gallons of mash to trickle to the basement so that the building was ruined.

It is the first trial of its kind here.

Wife No. 2 Helps Pay the Alimony
SALEM, Ore., May 24—(AP)—Borrowing $100 from his present wife to pay back alimony to his divorced wife kept Lucas G. Vogt out of jail here yesterday.

The divorced wife accused Vogt of failure to pay $25 a month for the support of their child. He was agreed in justice court that he pay $100 to clear up back accounts and then pay $20 a month.

"Can you pay the $100?" the court wanted to know.

"Not this minute," Vogt answered, "but my present wife has it in Portland and I'll send it just as soon as I get back there."

"Can you make a $20-a-month payment out of your wages of $16 a week?" Judge Bruner Small asked. "You have another wife now, you know."

"Well, I don't have to support my second wife. She has a job," Vogt answered cheerfully, as he went to join the present Mrs. Vogt who was awaiting in an adjoining room.

GRANTS PASS, Ore., May 24—(AP)—Sheriff E. H. Lister has returned here from the Siskiyou mountains where he identified a skeleton, found by an Indian, as that of Fred Eberhardt, who was lost in the wilderness during a hunting trip in November, 1913.

The skeleton was found on the head waters of Lost creek. Identification, the sheriff said, was made by a watch found near the bones. Eberhardt was 30 years old at the time of his disappearance and was engaged in the mining business here. He was reported to have had brothers in Seattle.

Meanwhile the chamber of commerce and war veteran organizations awaited word from Washington on their resolutions asking that the radio station over which Duncan operated be silenced.

Judge—Your wife says you have her terrorized.
