Pondosa School Closed Friday For the Summer

By Mrs. M. F. Raymond (Observer Correspondent)

PONDOSA, Ore., (Special)—School closed Friday for the summer vacation. The pupils of the two upper grades went for picnics. Mr. Van Fleet took his pupils to the Twin Lake mine and Miss McQueen took her pupils on Big Creek, back of the Wanker ranch. Both groups enjoyed wienie roasts and a picnic dinner.

Three pupils of Miss Conlogue's room received attendance certificates for never having been tardy or absent during the term. They were Duvaline and Ashby Nelson and Glendale Metcalf.

Thursday evening the teachers were given a farewell party sponsored by the Medical Springs Women's club. The teachers were each given a farewell gift by their pupils. Miss Marie Conlogue left for her home in Eugene Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Van Fleet and Miss Amanda McQueen, also left Monday for their home at Albany. Mr. Van Fleet and Miss Conlogue will return next fall. The school board is still in doubt as to whether or not there will be three teachers next term.

Mrs. Chester Lawler and son, Dan, are spending the week in La Grande visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. C. Turner and daughter, Hope, went to Nyberg Monday to visit relatives for a week.

Miss Maxine Lawrence is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. M. Judy at their home at the ranger station. Miss Lawrence is a student at Union High school; she was a sophomore last term.

Mrs. T. E. Hansen returned from La Grande Thursday morning where she had visited her sister, Mrs. Archie Miller and family, for a couple of days.

Mrs. V. B. McKinley entertained a number of small girls and boys at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of the fifth birthday of her daughter, Lois. The kiddies played games for a while, then were served refreshments of birthday cake and fruit jelly. Several of Lois' relatives came from Baker for the occasion. They were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McKinley, her grandmother, Mrs. Amos Carson, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Erickson.

L. M. Judy, forest ranger for Medical Springs district, has been back in the mountains for several days with a crew of men getting the telephone line in shape for the summer.

A birthday party is always fun, but when it happens to be the very first party, it is real joy and that is what happened to Little Ellen Sullivan, age three, Tuesday afternoon, when her grandmother, Mrs. L. M. Leckhart, entertained in her honor. A large pink birthday cake was served with other refreshments in the same color scheme. Many gifts were received by the little girl.

The members of the Medical Springs Women's club surprised Mrs. M. F. Raymond with a farewell party at her home Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in visiting and singing. A beautiful framed picture was given her by the club as a farewell gift.

Mr. Raymond has been employed by the Stoddard Lumber company for the past six years, but is now employed by Bowman-Hicks at Maxville, where the family is moving soon.

Mrs. D. E. Nelson has been ill and under the care of a physician for several days but is improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster arrived from Talent Friday for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Johansen. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Johansen are sisters.

Each time that there are five Thursdays in a month the members of the Medical Springs Women's club entertain their husbands. Plans for this entertainment were made at the meeting of the club held at the school house Thursday afternoon. Plans were also made for the study course for the coming month and the members decided to study the lives of famous men and women.

BLACK AND SILVER GOOD WITH GREY HAIR
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Black and silver make a fine combination for evening wear for the woman with grey hair.

Mrs. Minnequade Andrews, Washington novelist, is wearing a black taffeta dress elaborately trimmed in silver. The extremely full skirt sways gracefully around her ankles.

She wears a black velvet band ornamented with silver around her throat and carries a cane of ebony chased with silver.

TRAMPLING ART FOR PROFITS
 FOR all its virtues, modern industrialism can run amuck under the spur of greed for profits. Witness, the man trampling the Art of Music.

200 musicians in Hollywood supply all the "music" offered in thousands of theatres. Can such a tiny reservoir of talent nurture artistic progress?

The true function of the machine is to increase the value of the product fed into it—not to debase it. Therefore mechanical music, as a substitute for Living Music, is a spurious form of progress—like a loom converting good wool into shoddy.

The grind organ, however operated, is a grind organ still. For music is an emotional art, a form of social intercourse, and hence dependent upon human contact.

Who profits by the domination of genuine music from the theatre? Not the musician!

If you agree that theatre patrons are entitled to real music—addition to talking and sound motion pictures, for the price they pay—HELP SAVE THE ART FROM RUIN. Campaign with millions of others in the Music Defense League. When the public's voice is raised its will must be served.

"A house is built of brick and stone of tiles and posts and piers. But a home is built of loving deeds That stand a thousand years."

OF COURSE, A MAN LIKES TO SEE HIS WIFE LOOKING HER BEST. BUT HE SOMETIMES WONDERS WHETHER SHE'S TRYING TO INTEREST HIM OR SOME OTHER FELLOW.

A young man doesn't meet more girls nowadays than a young man met 30 years ago, but he sees more girls.

Dad—Tom, go fetch the old horse.
 Son—Why the old one, father?
 Dad—Wear out the old ones first, is my motto.
 Son—Well, then, you fetch the horse.

A school teacher wrote on the boy's report: "Good worker, but talks too much." When the report was returned by the lad's father, in addition to his signature were these words, "You should hear his mother."

Pick—So your mother tried to get a government job. What is he doing now?
 Nick—Nothing. He got the job.

Stern Father (to son departing for summer school)—Now, don't let me hear any bad reports about you.
 Son—I'll try hard, Dad. But you know how those things leak out.

Mother (after relating a pathetic story)—Now, Tommy, wouldn't you like to give your bunny to that poor little boy you saw today who has no other father?
 Tommy (clutching rabbit)—Couldn't we give him father instead?

One Legged Man—I can't klick.
 Blind Man—And I can't see anything to complain about.

SCORCHY SMITH

CHIEF THUNDER CLOUD HAD SPOKEN THE TRUTH A GOLD MINE DID EXIST ON THE SUMMIT OF THE MOUNTAIN! A QUARTZ VEIN, POLISHED CLEAN BY STORMS, SHONE LIKE A WHITE RIBBON ACROSS THE FACE OF THE ROCK—IT WAS ONLY A "STRINGER" BUT UNDER THE MAGNIFYING GLASS FREE GOLD WAS PLAINLY VISIBLE. I REALIZED THAT SHOULD THIS VEIN RUN INTO A LARGER ONE, AND DIDN'T "PINCH OUT," THIS MINE WAS A BONANZA!
