Neighborhood Club Elects Officers For Coming Year

Election and installation of officers took place at the final regular session of the La Grande Neighborhood club this year held Tuesday afternoon at the La Grande hotel. The following report was given by Mrs. E. P. Mossman, representing the board of managers: Mrs. H. E. Westenhaver, president; Mrs. E. D. Towler, recording secretary; Mrs. Ed. Hackman, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Graham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ray Murphy, first vice president; and Miss Blanche Clark, second vice president.

A number of very important changes in the constitution of the organization were made. Among them were the provisions for reinstating old members by payment of one year's arrears and for granting a courtesy card of membership with small dues to those temporarily residing in the city (as fathers).

Changes in the by-laws omitted many phrases and brought them up to date. The most important change was an omission which took the privilege of inviting guests from the program chairman of the day and left it with the individual members. Mrs. Robert Eakin, representing the board of managers, presented recommendations for these changes.

Mrs. F. L. Meyers, also representing the board, presented the proposed budget for 1930-31. A distinct tendency toward economy was noted, though provisions for a number of expansions in club activities was provided. The two other members of the board of directors are Mrs. H. A. Zurbick and Mrs. F. L. Meyers.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman, chairman of art, gave a brief report promising the visit of a national worker on garden clubs soon. Mrs. Mossman is also state art chairman and her state work was much praised at the recent convention. Mrs. E. E. Hurley and Miss Mabel Doty, co-chairmen of literature, reported the splendid progress of the Neighborhood Literature club which is a department of the organization. Several interesting club day programs were contributed by this department.

Mrs. H. N. Ashby, music chairman, sent in a splendid written report on the programs given and other activities of this committee, chief among which were the plans for music week observance. Mrs.

R. S. Fleming, retiring president of the Neighborhood club art department, reported the completion of the study of sacred architecture and introduced the new president. Other committee chairmen who had reports were: Mrs. Joel Richardson, yearbook; Mrs. Towler, press and publicity; Mrs. Chas. Bohnenkamp, hospitality; Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, social; Mrs. Norman Pree, legislative; Mrs. H. J. Melancon, auditing; Mrs. Ray Murphy, Christmas seals; Mrs. F. Tyler, girls committee; Mrs. F. Ravenscroft, community service and public welfare; Mrs. H. G. Smith, Oregon Trail Beautiful campaign flower show; and Mrs. T. A. McKinstry, Camp Fire girls committee. Those elected to membership at this meeting were: Mrs. Robert Dixon, Mrs. Jack Ferris and Mrs. George Knapp.

Before the installation of officers, Dr. Margaret Ingie gave an inspiring talk in which she pleasantly thanked her committee chairmen and club members for their loyal support and activity, which made her year the success the members of the organization feel it to be.

Other retiring officers also expressed their pleasure in serving the club. They were: Mrs. S. B. Morgan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clyde Webb, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Phayle, first vice president; Mrs. W. E. Adler, second vice president.

Mrs. Westenhaver, after her installation, spoke very enthusiastically of the coming year, expressing her pleasure in certain changes in the constitution and by-laws; especially the one which allows members to invite their friends to meetings. She expressed her hope that next year there might be an active home department; a legislation department in which international and national women's movements might be studied; an enlarged program of activities for the community service department, looking toward city development; a club program that would apply for the valuable personal contacts and relationships among members; and a change in departments and committees to correspond with state and national. Mrs. Westenhaver hopes to have each club member working next year in the field of activity they prefer.

Other officers installed expressed their desire to help in making the coming year a banner one.

Graduates Guests At Jolly Affair

A jolly party was enjoyed by the eighth grade graduates of Central school last night when the mothers entertained for them, the school faculty and the school board. About 80 people, 45 of them graduates, were in attendance in the high school gymnasium, which was attractively decorated with spring flowers, both wild blooms and those from gardens.

Following an interesting program and evening of entertainment delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Carl Holm was general chair-

PARIS (AP)—Styles get dottier every day.

Unless you want to see spots morning, noon and night, you must avoid places where well dressed women go here.

Polka dots are on the increase at half a dozen of the most authoritative style establishments where midsummer models are shown.

The classic version of spots for street wear of a summer afternoon is a pin-point dot on black or navy ground. Materials are alpaca, mull, crepe de chine, wool voile and georgette, silk or wool.

For dinner and dance wear Parisians may wear polka dotted, spotted or disc print dresses if they want to. There are plenty of other prints to choose from, however.

Beach pajamas are also in the spotlight. One of the newest Lida costumes is a white Mexican trouser suit with tucked-in tunic of white shantung printed with red spots the size of an American dollar.

With it goes a printed turban with the beduin back which protects neck and shoulders from the sun. Atop the turban sits a wide sun hat, also red spotted like the tunic.

Party Compliments L. H. S. Instructors

Honoring Miss Anne Arnoldus and Miss Iona Harriman, Mrs. Oma Lapham was no less at dinner last night at her home. Three delightful courses were served. The honor guests are instructors in the department of home economics at the La Grande High school.

After dinner a pretty surprise shower was given Miss Harriman, whose marriage will take place this summer, by a number of girl students in her domestic science classes, who called during the evening and left many lovely gifts.

Swimming Party At Cove Monday

A swimming party and wicker roast were enjoyed at Cove Monday evening by members of the L. P. club, a recently organized group of girls, who plan to hold their meetings the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Other outings and parties were discussed for the future.

Those present were: Miss Helen Schilling, president; Miss Helen Jensen, secretary; Misses Nora and Pauline Clausen; Miss Genevieve Nelson; Miss Helen Hughes; Miss Katie Ketter; Miss Reba Bradshaw and Miss Edna Jensen and Miss Lenore Hendley was a guest.

Delightful Party At Hildebrand Home

A delightful surprise party was given Monday evening honoring Miss Beatrice Boies and Burton Barnett, whose marriage will be an event of the first of June. Following a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hildebrand, on Cherry street, at which the honored couple were the only guests, about 40 friends and relatives called later in the evening and the affair was a real surprise.

Camp Fire Group Planning Meeting

The Tatapophon Camp Fire group met Monday in the Camp Fire room of the Lutheran church when plans were made for the next meeting to be at the country home of Martha McKennon, June 2.

Miss McKennon, Patricia Clark and Margaret Zurbick were appointed as a games committee. The group decided to take prepared lunches and not to destroy the farmer's land and property.

Announcements

Members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet tomorrow for an all-day session at the home of Mrs. Lily Alstott at 2015 Oak street. A shower will be given for one of the members who lost her home by fire. All members are urged to come and bring a gift.

Tickets for the Methodist benefit minstrel, June 15th, have been placed at the City library and Clark's florists.

Sacred College Is Reduced By Death

VATICAN CITY, May 28 (AP)—Death today at Rheims of Cardinal Luceo reduced the sacred college to 55 members, twelve under its full complement of 70, bringing the Italian members nearer equality with non-Italians members. There are now 39 non-Italians in the college and 28 Italians.

It was expected here today that Pope Pius would announce a constitutional for the creation of new cardinals within a few months.

Iowa Primary Finds Farm Aid Still Big Issue

DES MOINES, Ia. (AP)—Agricultural relief has bobbed up as the principal issue among the four candidates for the republican nomination for United States senator at the Iowa primary election June 2.

The republican campaign has developed largely into debate over the pending Hawley-Smoot tariff bill, with Rep. L. J. Dickinson attacking the measure.

Frank J. Lund and W. O. Payne, the other aspirants, have revived demands for incorporating the equalization fee in the bill.

Dickinson, once dubbed "a hell raiser for agriculture" has insisted that an attack on the Hawley-Smoot bill is a repudiation of the president. Gov. Hammill, seeking promotion to the senate after six years as Iowa's chief executive, contends that opposition is not an issue of party loyalty.

Both Dickinson and Hammill have pledged support to the federal farm board.

Payne, an old time republican editor, has brought the world court issue to the fore.

Dickinson is the only one of Iowa's 11 republican representatives not seeking re-nomination. Three of the group have opposition
