CARDINALS AND SENATORS FIRST

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Two major-league baseball teams, the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Senators, are doing their best to break away from the pack of contenders in the close major league races, but so far their efforts have resulted only in a pair of fine winning streaks and rather precarious holds on first place.

Washington is quite safe for the present, holding a margin of four games over the Philadelphia Athletics. However, the Senators cannot take many chances and still remain ahead. To get to its present position, Washington has had to win seven games in a row and continue an almost unbroken streak through 26 contests. The Senators have won eleven out of their last 12 games and 16 out of 29.

Senators Stay on Top
The Senators held their place yesterday by beating the New York Yankees 7 to 2. Sid Sam Jones was the whole show. He held the Yanks to four hits, three of them going to Babe Ruth, pitched his fifth complete game of the year and won his sixth consecutive victory. His teammates backed him to the extent of 14 hits.

The Cardinal string of victories was broken for the second time in 15 games yesterday and St. Louis lost a fine chance to get a safer lead over the Brooklyn Robins. But the St. Louis hitters were not much more effective against Larry French, former Brooklyn coast leaguer, than the Robins were against Bill Walker and the two leaders of the National league went down in defeat, remaining only a half game apart. St. Louis lost to Pittsburgh, 5 to 3, and Brooklyn to the New York Giants, 3 to 1. French started Pittsburgh off to a good lead by hitting a triple with the bases full in the second inning, then scoring the fourth run.

Brooklyn did not get started against Walker's pitching until the eighth inning and by that time the Giants had gained a three-run lead, which was just enough. The Robins put the tying runs on base in the ninth inning by striking out the great Babe Herman.

The two other National league games scheduled for yesterday were halted by rain.

The Philadelphia Athletics won their third game in a row and gave the Boston Red Sox its tenth successive defeat by a 7 to 5 score.

The third place Cleveland Indians did even better against Chicago, sending the White Sox down to sixth place by sweeping their second double header in two days, 3 to 2 and 5 to 3. Ted Lyons, the fourth Chicago pitcher, was the real second game loser. He went in for the ninth inning and was charged with the defeat after having won six games in succession.

Detroit, supplanting Chicago in fifth place, went to even greater limits of slugging for a 16 to 11 victory over the St. Louis Browns. As nine pitchers worked for the two teams, Detroit made 21 hits, three of them homers, and the Browns 15.

Shade Is Chief Contender For Walker's Title

LOS ANGELES, May 28 (AP)—Dave Shade, elusive as a shadow, has lobbed his way with no uncertainty into the position as chief contender for Mickey Walker's middleweight crown.

The veteran Concord, Cal. gentleman of the lantern jaw, last night thrust the rough and tough Nebraska without Ace Hudkins, still further down the pathway to title oblivion by gaining a rousing decision, 10 to 1, over the St. Louis fighter.

From beginning to end it was Shade's fight. The Nebraska foundered in floating target for his terrific wallop, and paid dearly in return for his offer as his opponent, stabbed him with left jabs and clipped with stinging uppercuts.

Hudkins in his usual flailing fashion kept leading to the final gong, although he was battered and bleeding from ears, nose and eyes. Shade appeared scarcely to have been touched.

Jack Doyle, promoter, said today that efforts would be made to match Walker for the middleweight crown here this summer. He lost to the Rumsen, N. J., rocker several years ago when Mickey was welterweight king.

NOW THAT I LOOK BACK ON THE TRIP BACK TO THE RANCH, THE INDIAN HAD ME ALL BUT CONVINCED THAT THERE WAS AN ACTUAL JINX. I HAVE NEVER SEEN SUCH A BLIZZARD—A SNOW STORM WITH LIGHTNING SCORCHY!

I CAN HARDLY CONCEIVE OF SUCH A THING, MR. BROWN—HOW DID YOU MAKE OUT?

WELL, WE MANAGED TO MAKE THE CIRCLE-BAR JUST AS OUR HORSES GAVE OUT—HOWEVER, SCORCHY MY ADMIRATION FOR THE INDIAN HAD BEEN RE-ESTABLISHED—THEY ARE STRANGE, HONEST NATIVES OF THE EARTH LIVING IN A WORLD OF TRADITIONS, HOBOOGYNS AND FAIRY TALES.

SCORCHY SMITH

WHEN WE HAD FINALLY COME DOWN FROM THE GOLD MINE TO OUR CAMP IN THE MOUNTAIN MEADOWS, WE FOUND THE STORM HAD DRIVEN OUR HORSES TO SEEK SHELTER ELSEWHERE. THE SEVERITY OF THE STORM TOLD ME THAT REAL WINTER WAS UPON US AND TO BE SNOWED IN IN THE BIG HOLE BASIN OF MONTANA IS A SERIOUS MATTER.

LOUDER THUNDER CLOUD ATTRIBUTED THE STRAYING OF OUR MUSTANGS TO EVIL SPIRITS AND AN ADDED PROOF THAT THE GOLD MINE WAS CURSED. IT WAS A DESPERATE SEARCH BEFORE WE HEARD THE TINKLE OF THE BELL ON MY HORSE IN THE HEAVY TIMBER A MILE BELOW. ONCE WE HAD THEM OUT ON THE TRAIL WE HASTILY TRANSFERRED THE BAGS FROM OUR BACKS TO THE CAYUSES AND LOST NO TIME IN THE RACE WITH THE STORM.
