"Rogue Song" At the State Tomorrow

Lawrence Tibbett, known as the greatest living baritone, and the first American to reach the top-most position in operatic circles, is now blazing a new trail, for he is the first major opera star to be featured in a talking picture. "The Rogue Song," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's all-talking drama of the Caucasus, filmed entirely in Technicolor, with Tibbett as the star, will open tomorrow at the State theater. Tibbett sings songs ranging from those of operatic caliber, with a symphony orchestra accompaniment, to simple love ballads. He rides at breakneck pace through varied adventures, while brilliant ballets, magnificent mountain scenery and other interesting details are reputed to make this picture one of the most elaborate productions of the year.

Cole Bros. Circus Now On 40th Annual Tour—Here On June 9

With only a few more days remaining before the appearance of the Cole Bros. Circus here considerable interest is being manifested, not only by the younger generation, but also by many of the older "boys." The big Cole Bros. Circus is now on its 40th tour of the United States.

The Cole Bros. Circus, which comes to La Grande on Monday, June 9 affords a complete program of the newest and most novel circus features available today. Down through the long years of its history the cream of the show world has been picked to select the numbers for its program and each year the good is weeded from the bad and kept for a new season. In this manner the best circus entertainment to be found are with the circus.

Among the features this season are flying acrobats, a sextette of dancers who cavort gracefully on a lofty wire, Australian whippersnappers and bushmen, two herds of educated elephants, three troupes of Chinese acrobats and acrobats, and forty clowns whose laugh-provoking antics have been unparalleled in American circus history.

Foremost among the equestrians to be seen with the big show this season is the Cottrell-Powell Family, with their tangalo horses from the London Hippodrome; Miss Bessie Holik, a new comer in circus ranks who looks more the part of a debutante than a somersault rider, and who is the product of one of the most fashionable girls' finishing schools; Capt. Raymond DeVry, who comes from the Crystal Palace Theater, Budapest, with a novel tandem act; Mlle. Dorée, with her stable of high school horses, recently a feature of the Folies Bergere, Paris, France, and scores of others equally as gifted and well known but whose names cannot be mentioned here for lack of space.

Cole Bros. circus will not parade. Doors to the big show open at 1 and 7 p. m. and the performances start promptly at 2 and 8 p. m.
