I HAD NOT THOUGHT OF THAT, SCORCHY—FOR AFTER ALL, THE MINE IS HIS, AND IF HE IS AFRAID FOR MY SAKE AS WELL AS HIS OWN, WE SHOULD RESPECT HIS KINDLY WISHES.

I AM ANXIOUS TO MEET THE FAMOUS CHIEF, MR. BROWN—HE MUST BE AN INTERESTING CHARACTER.

WHEN IS HE DUE TO ARRIVE?

THE CHIEF SHOULD BE HERE TODAY JR. TOMORROW.—HE WONT TRAVEL BY TRAIN, SCORCHY, BUT STILL STICKS TO HIS HORSES.

Decoration Day Program Is Held At Enterprise

By Brook Tucker (Observer Correspondent) ENTERPRISE, Ore., (Special)

In spite of the steady downpour of rain, a fairly large crowd clustered about the streets of Enterprise on Memorial day.

The program was scheduled to take place on the court house lawn, but due to the bad weather was held in the O. K. theater. The exercises opened with a selection by the Enterprise municipal band, led by Prof. L. N. James. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. Hall K. Wallis. This was followed by another selection by the band. The introductory talk was given by Geo. Richards. Mr. Richards then introduced the Rev. S. E. Smutz, of Joseph, the speaker of the day. As a closing number, the band played "Star Spangled Banner" on the court house lawn, the bugles of the drum corps played as the flag was slowly raised into the misty sky. The march to the cemetery followed and the firing squad fired a salute to pay last honors to the dead.

Joe Lloyd and family moved from their Enterprise home to Imbler this week. Mr. Lloyd was formerly employed by the local telephone company and expects to take up farming near Imbler.

S. C. Weaver, of Enterprise, left Wednesday for Montana, where he will work during the sheep shearing season. Mr. Weaver is an experienced shearer.

Mrs. Clayton Burnside left Enterprise Thursday, for Washington, on account of her father's illness. Chautauqua will be in Enterprise July 5, 6, 7 and 8 this year. Advance representatives say that it will present better programs this year.

Herb Browning and family, of La Grande, are visiting relatives in Enterprise this weekend.

Everett Richmond, from the Grouse country, was an Enterprise visitor on Memorial day.

Frank Shepherd, of Wallowa lake, has for several years operated a small dairy and vegetable farm at the head of Wallowa lake. Mr. Shepherd sells vegetables, milk, cream and other farm produce to tourists. He recently surrounded his garden with a fence about 12 feet high to keep out the Wallowa lake herd of elk. They can do much damage to a garden or crop, he says.
