The school this year has been outstandingly successful from every point of view, and as the attendance has increased considerably with each day this week, it would be well for those contemplating attending tomorrow to go as early as possible.

This afternoon the high school auditorium is the scene of a very happy party and the several hundred women are intensely interested in the lovely bridal breakfast which is being prepared and served.

The color arrangement is pink, and the delicate color is suggested in the table service, the centerpiece of flowers, the menu, in place of the white linen tablecloth today, Mrs. McLean is using a beautiful lace cloth which adds tremendously to the entire effect.

CRITICS VIEW REHEARSAL OF COMEDY DRAMA

A dress rehearsal of the comedy drama "Aren't We All" which will be presented by Soek and Buskin Monday, June 9, was witnessed last evening by an audience of some 30 critics.

Final work on the acting is now being stressed in order to perfect as nearly as possible the character positions in which the play abounds. Excellent opportunities for real comedy are afforded in the many humorous lines and actions of the play.

Those present last evening expressed themselves as being convinced that "Aren't We All" will prove to be better received than any other of the plays which the Normal school has sponsored during the year.

Enforcement Of Parking Law Is Given Support

Police Chief to Take Matter up With Other Eastern Oregon Cities Before More Action.

The question of whether to enforce the 2 to 5 a. m. anti-parking law in La Grande was discussed at some length in the city commission meeting last night, with a delegation from automobile row and the chamber of commerce secretary speaking in favor of enforcement.

The commissioners also felt that it should be enforced, but concluded this statement with the assertion that there would be no need of not allowing all-night parking unless other Eastern Oregon cities—particularly Baker and Pendleton—do likewise.

The upshot of the discussion was that Police Chief Cliff Haynes was asked to write to all city commissioners, etc. in the eight counties belonging to the Eastern Oregon Police Officers Co-operative association, and ask them to take it up in their cities and be ready to report at the association meeting in Ontario on June 16.

If other cities are willing to enforce their anti-night parking law, La Grande will do likewise, the commissioners told the police.

Legion And Rotary Each Donate $200 Toward Band's July Trip

Two hundred dollars was donated to the La Grande municipal band by the American Legion post last night at its meeting in the Sackajawes Inn. Yesterday noon the Rotary club donated $200, bringing the fund—which is to pay the expenses of the band's trip to Portland in July to enter the northwest band contest—to a total of $400.

This act, among others, strengthens the local post's claim to the large cup given to the post in Oregon for doing the most outstanding community service work, and bases its claim on the following accomplishments: what they did to start the school athletic field, to enlarge it to standard size; sponsored junior baseball; established an E. O. N. student loan fund; donated $200 to the band; donated $50 to the boy scouts; drums corps trips; and presentation of flag etiquette charts to the schools.

The trips of the drum corps include attendance at the Pendleton Round-Up, at the Imbler Apple Jack gulch, at Walla Walla July 4, and a trip to Baker.

The Graf, after fighting unfavorable weather conditions off the European coast, arrived over Seville at 3:20 p. m. (10:20 a. m. E. S. T.) She had been expected here early today but heavy rains and winds had forced her to divert from a straight course from the Azores and to swing to the north so she made her landfall just south of Lisbon, Portugal.

The Graf flew over Seville to an accompaniment of cheers from the inhabitants who saw her last on May 20 when she left for Pernambuco, Brazil and the United States. The flight from Lakhurst to Seville took 59 hours and eight minutes.

After flying over Seville, the Graf continued on to the airport and circled the port with the intention of cruising around until later in the afternoon before making her landing, which was made at 5:04 p. m. (12:04 p. m. E.S.T.)

Student May Lose His Salem Diploma

SALEM, Ore., June 5 (AP)—Joe King, president of the student body at Salem High school, was today in danger of losing his graduation diploma because of a speech he made in assembly yesterday in favor of high school secret societies. Principal Fred Wolfe charged King with being a ring leader in secret societies which Wolfe has been fighting all year. The flare-up grew out of the award of athletic emblems. The student council withheld emblems from two students. Wolfe overruled the council. He told that student, coach, supported Wolfe and awarded the emblem. King assailed Huntington in a speech and the teacher declared King had insulted the coach, and threatened refusal of his credits.

Favors Morrow For Occupancy Of White House

Presidential Boom for New Jersey Republican Launched at Trenton Political Rally.

TRENTON, N. J., June 5 (AP)—A presidential boom for Dwight A. Morrow, ambassador to Mexico and candidate for the republican senatorial nomination in New Jersey, has been launched here.

With Mr. Morrow occupying a seat on the platform at a political rally last night, Edward C. Stokes, former governor of New Jersey, and the John Carter Hays, president of Princeton university, advanced his name as a White House possibility.

"Mr. Morrow," said Stokes, "is not only worthy to have a seat in the United States senate; Ambassador Morrow is presidential timber."

Not Up to Morrow "I know that I am treading on delicate ground. At Atlantic City the other day he disavowed being a candidate. I don't think he has anything to do with the question. No man in this country is big enough or great enough to decline a call to the presidency."

He cited Mr. Morrow's part in the history of the state and recalled that New Jersey had sent Woodrow Wilson to the White House.

"We had a democratic president from New Jersey," he said, "and now we are going to have a republican president from New Jersey."

Morrow "Speechless"

Dr. Hibben, in opening his address, said:

"I wish to add that if the ambassador should become the president of our country—which is not a wild flight of the imagination—we are going to claim part of him for Princeton for while he is not a graduate of Princeton, we have done the next best thing by adopting him, for we made him a doctor of laws a few years ago."

Mr. Morrow thanked Mr. Stokes and Dr. Hibben for their complimentary statements which, he said, left him "almost speechless."

James W. Mott Campaigning For House Leadership

SALEM, Ore., June 5 (AP)—James W. Mott, who will be one of the Marion county delegation in the next legislature, and who three times represented Clatsop county in the lower house, said today that he is writing letters to all the candidates who are sure of seats at the next session definitely informing them that he is a candidate for speaker of the house. Mott said that he had not yet directly asked for the support of any of the members, but that shortly he would begin an active campaign for pledges.

Mott concedes that Frank J. Loneragan had something like 30 votes pledged to him at the end of the 1929 session for the 1931 speakership, but declares this strength of the Portland candidate has been broken up by results of the May primary election.

"Only about half of Loneragan's pledges will return to the legislature," Mott said. "Some failed to be nominated and some were not candidates for nomination. Among the large group of certain members who are at liberty to support whom they please the knowledge that Loneragan doubtless would organize or attempt to organize the house against George Joseph isn't doing Loneragan any good, so it seems to me that his chance for election to the speakership has crumbled. These members are assuming, of course, that Joseph will be governor."

FOREIGNERS AT TSINAN ARE WORRIED

Some Preparing for Expected Siege of City — Others Flee to Coast.

NATIONALISTS IN SECOND SETBACK

Foreigners in Changsha Concentrated on an Island Under Protection of Naval Guns.

Word was received in La Grande that eight American missionaries at Chengchow, including Miss Geneva Sayre, of La Grande, are remaining in Chengchow, almost daily watching the Nanking army's American bombing planes' activities. This is the first word received from Miss Sayre since hostilities in that district began.

HANKOW, June 5 (AP)—Foreign consular officials of this city, says the Chinese press decided today to urge foreigners to evacuate the provinces of Hupeh, Hunan and Kiangsi because of civil war and banditry conditions.

SHANGHAI, June 5 (AP)—Foreign naval dispatches tonight from Tsingtau and Chefoo, Shantung province, said the northern allied forces had crossed the Yellow river about 60 miles east of Tsinan, provincial capital, broken the nationalist troops' lines, and reached the Tsinan-Tsingtau railway line in the neighborhood of Chowtsun.

The naval dispatches said the nationalist defenses had reorganized near the strategic railway line, and that a sharp engagement was still going on at the time they were filed, late in the day. It was stated, however, that service on the railroad had not been interrupted.

Foreigners Worried The development was said to have aroused apprehension among foreigners in Tsinan. Some prepared for an expected siege of the city, while numbers of others left for Tsingtau, on the coast 250 miles to the east.

This was the second setback of the day for the Nanking nationalists. The first was the loss of the important city of Changsha, capital of Hunan province, to a motley horde of Kwangsi province rebels and bandits, known colloquially as the "red" army.

Dispatches tonight from foreign gunboats standing off Changsha said Kwangsi forces totaling 30,000 men had occupied the city, and that more were coming in. The 10,000 nationalist troops deflected from the Central China front north of Chengchow, Hunan province, retreated northward after making a feeble show of resistance, it was added.

Foreigners Protest All foreigners in Changsha had been concentrated on an island in the Siang river off the city, the dispatches explained, where they were under the protection of the guns of the foreign gunboats. Japanese residents were said to be evacuating the city, moving to Hankow, Hupeh, on the Yangtze river.
