A REAL OPPORTUNITY

In closing out a stock completely as I am doing for the HILL DEPARTMENT STORE—we find many items that are unseasonable, but which must be disposed of and WE KNOW THAT ONLY PRICE WILL SELL THEM.

In this stock I found about 100 of the finer grades of Winter Coats in materials such as Needlepoint, Kittens Ear, Broadcloths and Wool Velours—most of them trimmed with real furs such as Fox, Wolf, Dog, Squirrel, Mole, Beaver, Lupin, etc. The models on most of them are good and many are of a weight that can be worn throughout the year.

In order to induce the public to buy now during this closeout I have in all cases ignored the stores investment and have marked them at but a fraction of their wholesale cost.

Sacs Win Series From Ducks And Remain at Top

By the Associated Press
Seven clubs of the Pacific Coast league still look with envy on the Sacramento Senators, who made their hold on first place more firm by taking the week's series from Portland, closing in a divided double-header yesterday. The Sacs won a tight pitcher's duel between Fay Thomas and Fred Orman in the first contest, 4 to 3, and lost the second affair to the Beavers, 19 to 4, as Vinel and Smith, Senator moundsmen, were hit freely and Walters held the leaders well in hand throughout.

Los Angeles finished the week in second place by a scant two points in the percentage column, ending the week with that advantage in its hit and tuck rivalry with San Francisco for runner-up honors. The Angels completed a series with Hollywood with a two-game advantage, winning both of yesterday's encounters, 7 to 1 and 8 to 7.

San Francisco took the odd game of its series with the Missions in the morning, 6 to 5, but were set down by Bert Cole in the afternoon contest to a 10 to 3 tune. The results gave the Seals a tie in games with the Angels, although they finished the week slightly behind in percentages.

The double bill at San Francisco was marked by nine homers, in the morning Shedy and Wingo connected for the Seals, Shedy getting two and Johnny Miljus had the Reds well controlled, although Fred Hoffman and Ike Boone also registered circuit clouts.

Oaks Toned Down
Oakland, a close follower of the Senators two weeks ago, was toned down somewhat by losing a series to Seattle, the closing games yesterday being split. Pete Daglia kept the Indians in hand in the first game to win 6 to 2, while Zahniser was put out in the fourth, Lamanski finishing for him. In the seven-inning closing encounter, Andy House let the Oaks have no more than one run each inning, and turned in a 3 to 2 victory.

No games today. Teams traveling. Series this week: Hollywood at Missions, San Francisco at Los Angeles, Oakland at Sacramento (night games), Portland at Seattle.

City Employees Win From Elgin Sunday 10 to 7

With Lynn McTully striking out 15 men, the City Employees baseball team of La Grande defeated the Elgin town team here yesterday afternoon, 10 to 7. In a previous game at Elgin, the local nine lost 12 to 10 so the victory yesterday was doubly welcome.

Holbrook, Marshall and Beard were the hitting stars for La Grande with Holbrook getting three hits out of five times up, and crossing home plate three times. Marshall clouted a three-bagger and Beard a two-bagger. Gallagher, working behind the bat, caught a good game with his battery mate puzzling the visitors with his shunts and speed.

The score:

Elgin	7 5 11

"HONORABLE" BELITTLES MUSSOLINI SAYS PAPER

ROME (AP)—A move to do away with the title "On," which is short for "Onorevole," the Italian word for "Honorable" which American congressmen use, has been started by Lavoro Fascista, but only for Mussolini.

"Mussolini is a deputy, we are agreed," says the newspaper, which is the organ of the Fascist labor organizations. "But there are nearly 400 other deputies in the Italian Chamber who, with all due respect, are as far from Mussolini's stature as the Testaccio hill is from Mount Everest."

The paper, the newspaper reasons, should not be addressed by a title freely bestowed on lesser lights.

Last week a bear was killed at the foot of Minam hill by one of the road gang. After it was skinned, they seemed to think there was something unusual with it and when they came near it, discovered it had a collar on which was gradually choking it to death. It is the opinion of the men that it was a pet bear that had gotten away from the Parson boys last summer.

Some fish story, nevertheless it is true! Sunday morning when
