Sunday Marks End Of Winter Social Season In City

Yesterday, the first sunny Sunday in June, was so lovely a day that many people took advantage of the holiday and spent it in the outdoors in diverse ways. Perhaps the most of them motored to one of the neighboring towns, to Walla Walla, or any place on the highway or mountain roads. Quite a few drove to Walla Walla for the golf tournament there.

As the motorists sped by, they saw fishermen wading in the streams, spending the sunny hours angling, while others camped or hiked. Tennis players and golfers were out to improve their skill and enjoy the sunshine; swimmers splashed and raced, and maybe today have red-tinted skins because they basked too much in the sun-bonnet.

So the party season is over, and summer has had its first big day. From now on for the next few months, people will shut the indoors where they have spent the winter at cards and social evenings and go to the parks and forests to enjoy picnics, and outdoor sports.

Couple Married In Walla Walla

Following the wedding of Margaret E. Smith and William K. Palate, both of La Grande, in Walla Walla last Friday in the office of the justice of the peace, the wedding party including Mrs. Maude Dawson and Gus Pastson, witnesses, returned to this city where they enjoyed a wedding supper at Mrs. Dawson's home on W avenue which had been prepared by her daughter, Miss Bernice Woodbin. The bride and bridegroom will make their home in this city.

Give Farewell For Miss Hendricks

In honor of Miss Grace Hendricks who left Saturday on her way to Spokane to attend the Northwestern Business college, the officers and teachers of the Second Ward L. D. S. Sunday school gave a delightful farewell party Friday evening in the church. Miss Hendricks has been the school organist for the past four years.

A pleasant evening was enjoyed and at the close of it, delicious refreshments were served. Miss Hendricks was presented with a pretty gift in appreciation of her services.

Coterie Bridge Club Ends Season

At a no-host dinner bridge the Coterie club held its last meeting of the party season Saturday night at the Sacajawea Inn. Floral arrangements were in a pretty color scheme of pink and white.

Following dinner three tables were at play with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Diehl winning the award for high tally. The club plans to resume its meetings sometime in September.

Mrs. Ferguson Is Hostess to Club

Mrs. Alex Ferguson entertained the Me-Way-A-Turn club last Thursday at her home where three tables of bridge were enjoyed. Decorations were in an effective color scheme of blue and yellow.

Honors at cards were won by Mrs. Sherrell Erwin, first and Mrs. Lawrence Drumsmith, second. Guest honors were received by Mrs. George Clark. Mrs. Drumsmith will be the next hostess, June 19. Following bridge a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Members of L. P. Club Entertained

Sixteen girl members of the L. P. club of the Lutheran church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pierce, when Mrs. Pierce interestingly discussed the lesson topic, a study of the problems of Christian youth, illustrating her talk with books.

The Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Aweas, Mrs. J. G. Stitzinger and Frank Hansen were also in attendance.

Fitzgeralds Spend Few Days In Frisco

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald, the former Miss Lucille Black, of La Grande, Oregon, are at present spending a few days in San Francisco, where they are guests at the Hotel St. Francis.

The young couple have had a very pleasant honeymoon, having visited many of the resorts and points of interest in Southern and Northern California. Mr. Fitzgerald is employed at the Carr Furniture store.

Announcements

Wives of La Grande Lions are to meet at the Sacajawea Inn at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Officers will be elected and constitution and by-laws for the Lions auxiliary, will be adopted.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet in regular session Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the K. P. hall. Initiation will be held and all members are requested to be present.
