Lions Auxiliary Elects Officers Monday Evening

Wives of members of the La Grande Lions club met at the Saca-jawa Inn last night and organized a Lions auxiliary and elected officers. A constitution and by-laws was adopted by the members.

The report of the nominating committee, headed by Mrs. H. L. Hull, was followed by the election of the following officers: Mrs. E. D. Towler, president; Mrs. Frank L. Halston, first vice president; Mrs. Dale Cox, second vice president; Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman, secretary; Mrs. Max Stryer, treasurer; and Mrs. Carl Helm, historian.

The auxiliary will be disbanded during June, July and August, but the officers will go ahead with preparations for the next year. Sometime in August an installation meeting will be held, and the meetings will be resumed in September, meeting the second Monday of each month.

HOT WEATHER COATS COVER NINE-TENTHS

PARIS (AP)—The nine-tenths length coat takes its place in hot-weather apparel.

The missing one-tenth permits a dress skirt of contrasting color to show below a coat of georgette crepe or wool voile.

Coat sleeves are correspondingly short, allowing the dress sleeves to provide a bright band of color.

The nine-tenths coats and dresses are frequently developed in black and white, plain and print combinations or shades of pale green and dark green or navy blue and powder blue.

SUGAR-LOAF MOTIF NEW JEWELRY NOTE

PARIS (AP)—Sugar-loaf earrings are a costume jewelry novelty taken up by one of the well-known dressmakers here.

The usual forms are single crystal cubes hung by slender silver chains or squares of four smaller cubes strung together, with beads.

The triangle form is also seen. The same pendant cubes appear on bracelets. Sportswomen frequently wear leather wristlets with pendant cubes of bright enamel or ivory.

One hundred and seventy-six students at Texas Christian university earned all or part of their expenses this year, a survey made by the college paper shows.

Mr. Walz Sends Assembly Report From Cincinnati

The Rev. J. George Walz, bishop (commissioner) of the Presbytery of the Grande Ronde, who has been in attendance at the Presbytery General Assembly in Cincinnati, Ohio, reports that some of its important business was as follows:

The more than 200 commissioners to the Assembly voted for definite steps for speedy organic union with the United Presbyterian and the Dutch Reformed denominations, and approved progress already made in negotiations with the Methodist and Protestant Episcopal communions.

It sustained President Hoover in his campaign for law observance and in his efforts for reduction of armament, and the extension of world peace. It reasserted the ancient stand of the Presbyterian church for suppression of the liquor traffic.

It took steps to strengthen the Presbyterian ministry educationally, to educate the ruling elderhood of the church in its duties and to place the denominational college on a more secure footing for the promotion of Christian education. It gave women members equal rights with men for ordination as ruling elders.

The Assembly's special commission on marriage, divorce and remarriage was continued for another year, to promote higher ideals in marriage relationships and to bring back to the next Assembly in 1931 a more complete report based on further study and research.

The Assembly was devoid of controversy and maintained a high level of Christian fellowship and spirituality. The defeated candidate for moderator, or presiding officer, Dr. Henry Back Master, of Philadelphia, was appointed by the new moderator, Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr, of Pittsburgh, to the chairmanship of the important standing committee on Christian education, which demonstrates how cordial a feeling of unity prevailed. The Assembly, while it did not elect Dr. Master as moderator, did unanimously adopt a glowing set of special resolutions lauding him for his ten years' work as general secretary of the Board of Pensions.

The men of the Assembly rededicated themselves to Christian service, and the Assembly called upon all of the 16,000 churches in the denomination throughout the United States to study anew the teaching of the New Testament for a renewed Pentecostal over-

LACE RUFFLES WIDER

PARIS (AP)—Lace epaulettes are a summer fancy with debutantes.

Double ruffles of lace, extending from two to six inches over the shoulder tip, are attached to the shoulder strap of lace evening frocks.

Usually the lace frocks have long skirts on which the shoulder ruffles are repeated in many tiers.

Evening Wraps Stop at Hips; Jacket Chic

By Diana Merwin (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS (AP)—Short evening wraps are the only ones Paris considers chic for summer.

Hi-length is the only restriction. For the rest there is a wide range in style, material and coloring. The romantic little peplum skirted jacket with cape-sleeves or puff sleeves is probably the newest and smartest thing the style-wise French woman puts on in the evening.

These jackets, made in velvet, faille or taffeta lend themselves to bright colors, black or black and white.

A cherry red velvet wrap with black or white costume, and shoes and gloves in the shade of the wrap is a favorite with many well-dressed women.

Pale blue and turquoise blue are used in the same manner with white costumes. The short ermine wrap is a great favorite, particularly with debutantes who prefer the jaunty waist-length straight jackets with seven-eighths length sleeves.

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

When tempted to over-indulge "Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*There is only one remedy for fat, and that is eat the right food... There are at least one hundred so-called obesity cures. None of these is permanent. All of these are injurious," says Vance Thompson in his famous little book, "Eat and Grow Thin," published by E. P. Dutton & Company. We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
