UNION READY FOR ANNUAL STOCK SHOW

Michelbook and sons, of La Grande. The Michelbooks, who are newcomers to the Grande Ronde valley, also have a herd of Red Polled cattle on display. Lending interest to the cattle display will be the herd of 22 head of registered Shorthorns owned by W. E. and C. F. Green, of Union, a herd of Shorthorns shown by Frank Ricker, of Union, the Chandler herd of Baker, the "N. Ogilvie" Guernseys from Cove, Robert Duncan's Jerseys from Cove, the DeLong Holsteins from Haines, C. C. Coble's Brown Swiss, Ayresheres from the Standley farm of La Grande and the Kooch farm of Enterprise. E. K. Hunter's Jerseys from Wallowa and many others.

Clubs Well Represented—"Much of the real class of the stock show this year will be found as usual," says Tony D. Smith, the hard working secretary of the show. "In the junior exhibitors section where the youngsters of the 4-H clubs will show their pet calves, sheep, and pigs; while the F. F. A. projects shown by the high school youths from six Eastern Oregon high schools will draw considerable attention also. By all means see the 4-H and F. F. A. exhibits."

Some of the finest horses of the Northwest will be seen in the afternoon programs on the race track and in the arena. Prominent among the stables is that of Ivan Polard, Boise, whose three-year-old "Bessie Dawn" won the championship last year and also ran in the derby. "Judge Fryer" and "Kentucky Blue" are two other fast horses in this stable. H. C. Bradley, also of Boise, has "Belle Wells," a fast steeplechase three-year-old, besides a relay string and a team for the Roman race.

Johnny Christofal, of Boise, has two consistent winners in "My Chance" and "Short Choice," also a fast three-year-old called "Tin Man." Les Knifon, of Boise, is entering two good ones in "Buzzer" and "Prize Tack."

The John Day section is represented by Willa McPherson whose fast two-year-old "Goldie" has won all of her starts at Wallburg and Dayton. Bert Spalding, also of John Day, has "Calendar" and other horses of Trowbridge breeding. Frank Roach, of Pendleton, has a relay team, Roman team, a chariot team and other entries. Wayne Byers, of Union, his headquarters, will enter a Roman team, chariot team, will exhibit registered horses and will race in the saddle classes as well.

Horses from the Byers stable won two firsts and two seconds in four races at Wallburg. The Byers string includes "Rainbow," "Captain Myers" and "J. A. Myers." "Archie" Caldwell, of Riverview, was entering a fast horse in "Patrick Starfield" and another in "Reverence." Ray Simpkins, of Yakima, has "Lindy Lou," a consistent winner, and "Old Elgie," a horse that is well known all over the west.

The Ames stable from Southern Oregon has "Hosanna" and "Myrtle Snow," foaled and raised at North Powder by Homer Bidwell, sired by the Government horse, "The Duke of Lancaster," who has been the "daddy" of many good horses. Jimmie Dunivan, of Walla Walla, is staking his interest on "Fitz Card," his "Kings" and "Patsy Byers," his "classics" and others among those present. "Lennie" Copenhagen, of Heppner, has a derby candidate, in "King Bille," another good one in "Ollie D." with some good competition in "Missoula Boy," a horse that raced at Union last year. The veteran Johnny Garrison, a personal patron of the track, has a horse in training, while Ed "Swede" Crossland will have "Goldfield" entered, the horse that is said to have won five straight races last year at Reno-Nevada.

Freddy Hunt to Perform—Prominent on the amusement program will be the exhibitions of Freddy Hunt, the trick rider, who will thrill the crowd with his daring stunts on "Sunny Jim," his famous horse, Homer Holcomb, the cowboy clown, is expected to be on deck with his fun, as usual.

Judging of exhibits will begin tomorrow and will proceed rapidly so that show visitors can see the winners in the show ring and their stalls with ribbons placed as soon as possible. With B. W. Rodenwald and H. A. Lindgren, of Oregon State college, tying the ribbons on the horses and beef cattle and sheep and hogs, respectively, while Oliver K. Boaks, director of vocational agriculture at Corvallis, places the dairy cattle and P. F. A. exhibits, this part of the show is expected to be quickly and efficiently disposed of.

Late arrivals at the show grounds were 20 head of Jerseys shown by James Mills, of Cove, and a show herd of Hampshire sows shown by J. M. Fruits, of Cambridge, Idaho, whose hogs are known all over the Northwest.

In addition to complete arena and track program, amusement is offered at Union in the form of a street carnival and the colorful stock show dances on the huge floor of the Union auditorium each evening.

It is announced that Friday will be La Grande day. First Day Program (Children under 14 admitted free) Racing Card: Three-eighths mile dash. Three-eighths for 2-year-olds. One-half mile race. Roman race. Four and one-half furlongs. Gentlemen's relay race. Chariot race. Arena Sports: Barrel race. Potato race. Musical chairs. Musical mile race. Calf roping.

WHEAT IS HEADED OVER THE STATE

In Milder Sections, Grain is Filling, Crop Report Says.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11 (AP)—The United States department of agriculture, weather bureau, issued its weekly summary of weather and crop conditions today as follows:

Some rain fell in northwestern counties early in the week, and later there were a few widely scattered thunder showers, but there was little interference with farm work on account of rain, and in some central and southern counties the soil is quite dry. During most of the week there was abundant sunshine, and day temperatures of 80 degrees or higher were quite common.

Cereals: Winter wheat is mostly headed and in the milder sections is filling. Except in some central counties where moisture is scarce it is making good advance, though some fields are thin and others are weedy. Oats are beginning to head. The warmer weather has resulted in improvement of corn and some fields in the south are being cultivated.

Fruits: The crop of the strawberry season is past in northwestern counties. Cane fruits are doing well but show much winter injury. Thinning of apples and peaches is in progress. Cherries are ripening in small quantities. Meadows, Pastures and Pastures: Cutting of alfalfa and clover made better progress due to warmer weather. The second crop is making a good start in southern counties. There is abundant feed on the range and domestic pastures in the Willamette valley and coast counties are good.

Livestock: Warmer weather was favorable for sheep shearing, which is nearly or quite finished in many places. Stock is doing well in all sections. Conditions have been favorable for turkeys. Miscellaneous: Early potatoes are in bloom in the south. Planting for the main crop continues. The stand of melons has been reduced by cold weather, but conditions during the week were favorable for melons and gardens. Flax is making a rank growth. Hops are doing well. Celery is unusually well advanced.

Tony Caccinello, new third baseman for the Cincinnati Reds, played last year with Columbus, Ohio, in the American Association, where he batted .358 in 162 games.

Chicago Man Hunt Still Under Way

CHICAGO, June 11 (AP)—With rewards aggregating $55,000 offered for the arrest and conviction of the slayer of Alfred J. Lingle, newspaper reporters, city and county authorities continued their drive against the gangsters today. The Chicago Herald-Examiner duplicated the Tribune's $25,000 reward offer and the Chicago Evening Post posted an additional $5,000.

Authorities had information today to confirm their belief Lingle had been marked for death.

Several Issues Touch New Lows In Wall Street

NEW YORK, June 11 (AP)—Stock prices crashed before a near bear onslaught on the stock exchange today, recording the most severe declines since December, but bears were driven to cover in the final few minutes of trading, and sharp rallies substantially reduced the losses in the more active issues.

The ticker fell more than 15 minutes behind trading, which threw the bears into confused retreat. They fell over each other to cover their short commitments, and were forced to pay prices well above the levels shown by the late figures.

U. S. Steel common, after touching a new low for the year at $160.75, compared to November low of $159, rallied to close at $162.50, a net loss of $3.25. American Can, after dropping $9 to $130, rallied to $134.50. General Electric dropped to $7.25, and closed at $7.41, off $1.50. American Telephone closed at $217.50, off $4.52. Westinghouse Electric, after dropping more than $11, reduced its loss to $7.25. J. I. Case closed at $216.50, off $20.50.

Although trading was in reduced volume early it swelled rapidly in the last hour, and the day's total transactions exceeded 4,400,000 shares.

Education May Help to Enforce Law, Suggestion

BOSTON (AP)—Prohibition enforcement agencies could find "cogent suggestion" in the experience of England and Wales of better methods of attaining the object of the 18th amendment than those pursued during the past decade, in the opinion of George W. Wickersham, chairman of the national commission on law observance and enforcement.

A general process of education "into the evils of excessive drinking and the advantages of other forms of innocent amusement" have been credited in large part with marked decreases in drunkenness in those countries, he said here in addressing 5,000 social workers attending the 57th national conference of social work.

Quoting British authorities, he cited other factors, including improved housing conditions and cultural advantages of certain restrictions in hours of sale of liquors and higher liquor cost.

In an address devoted in large part to the problem of law enforcement, Mr. Wickersham spoke specifically of the national prohibition law.

He declared that no attempt at education as to its merits have been made since its enactment. Temperance work has been abandoned and dependence for enforcement has been placed upon the power of the government to impose fines and imprisonment.

Houses should be screened against flies and other insects. These that rain admission should be destroyed.
