INDIANS CLIMB TO SECOND PLACE

Philadelphia, Cleveland and Washington Closely Grouped in American.

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer) While other clubs have been getting most of the publicity, Roger Peckinpaugh's Cleveland Indians have been attending strictly to business, taking all rivals as they come, until today they had pushed into second place in the American league standing, only a game behind the pre-empting Philadelphia Athletics.

Great pitching by Fereoli, Brown and Haddin has been the outstanding feature of the Indians' upward surge since May 24. In the intervening three weeks, Peckinpaugh's men have won 14 games and lost only four.

Philosophy The Indians' sixth consecutive victory yesterday and their second in a row from the Athletics enabled them to leap into second place while Washington was losing to Chicago. As the race stands now, all three leaders have lost 15 games with the A's winning 22, Cleveland 21 and Washington 20.

Clint Brown pitched great ball to give the Indians a shutout triumph over the A's, 4-0, granting only four hits. George Earnshaw pitched well but three of the eight hits he allowed were home runs, Morgan getting his 10th and 11th and Myatt another with one man on base.

The Senators bowed to Chicago's Whitesox, 10-6, in a tree-killing battle that saw Ted Lyons chalk up his ninth victory of the season after three previous failures to get past his eighth.

Ruth Homes The New York Yankees fell on White Hoyt and two successors for 22 hits, including Babe Ruth's 20th homer of the season, and trounced the Detroit Tigers 14-2.

Walter Stewart won his slight victory for the St. Louis Browns, beating Boston, 6-5, out just managed to halt a Reds' rally in the eighth inning that fell only one run short of a tie.

In the National league, Brooklyn stretched its lead to four and one-half games by beating Cincinnati, 5-2, while their leading rivals, the Chicago Cubs and New York Giants, were beaten.

Pirates Halt Giants Pittsburgh halted the New York Giants' nine-game winning streak, 10-7, nipping them in the seventh, ninth, Henry Kewer went the route for the Pirates allowing eight hits, three of which were home runs, two by Lindstrom and Mel Ott's 14th of the season. Harry Bell and Grantham hit for the circuit for the Pirates.

Clayton Willoughby scored his first victory of the season as the Phillies beat the Cubs 5-0, game halted by rain in the sixth. Chuck Klein got three singles for the Phils and ran his consecutive hitting streak to 23 games.

FIND SILVER TRACES NEAR THE DALLES

THE DALLES, Ore., June 12 (AP)—Possibilities of rich silver deposits near this city were seen here in the report of Lester S. Harrison, Kelloug, Idaho, mining man, that he had discovered rich samples of the ore on the property of The Dalles country club.

Harrison said he had reamed off one sample from the bottom of a well, sunk several years ago for the purpose of irrigating the golf links of the club. He said cuttings indicated a rich silver-bearing strata six feet thick.

Harrison has completed negotiations with the directors of the club and entered into a contract to develop the ore properties, giving the club a 25 per cent royalty.

A test hole was made recently near the well, and a four-foot seam was discovered at a depth of 234 feet. Harrison this week took advantage of the removal of the pump used in the irrigation system to run the well. He said steps will be taken to sink a shaft on the club property and thus ascertain definitely the extent of the ore.

Harrison left for Portland to have definite assays made of the cuttings he took from the well.

Rustic Hotels Ready For Visit Of Pres. Hoover

WASHINGTON (AP)—Comfort and luxury coupled with rugged scenic grandeur will be President Hoover's portion when he makes his trip through the national parks in August.

The parks he will visit are all equipped with hotels as fine in point of service as any in the country. While most of them are rustic style architecture, they have luxurious suites of rooms and excellent cuisine.

At nightfall, after motoring through miles of beautiful scenery the president probably will seek rest in such places as the Alwathine, new million dollar hotel in the Yosemite, and the famous Old Faithful Inn in Yellowstone park.

Alwathine, which is the old Indian name for Yosemite, means deep green valley. The builders of the hotel planned it as a distinctive expression of the Yosemite.

A fountain of Jasper rock from the Merced river canyon is a feature of the spacious lounge. In Glacier National park in Montana, the Many Glacier hotel counteracts the coolness of the atmosphere with steam heat, live places and all modern comforts.

A $200,000 addition was made recently to the famous Old Faithful Inn in the Yellowstone. Old Faithful geyser can be seen from many of the hotel rooms.

SCHMELING WINS BATTLE ON FOUL

Fistic World, Considering Outcome of Match, wakes up With Headache.

By Alan Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—The fistic world to celebrate the crowning of a new and undisputed "super" heavyweight champion discovered, instead, that it had just another headache, hunger and controversy.

Max Schmeling won on a foul from Jack Sharkey within the last six seconds of the fourth round of what was to have been the decisive battle for the heavy weight title last night at the Yankee Stadium, but they left the situation as chaotic as were the wild scenes accompanying the abrupt finish of the match.

Severely battered though he had been, the black-dusted 24-year-old German youth, who looks like a bear and weaves like the one and only Jack Dempsey, emerged with whatever honors and title claims go with the victory. He may, for the time being, be put at the top of the heavy weight class, at least by his own countrymen and by the New York state athletic commission, which proclaimed his right beforehand to crown the winner the new champion of the world and successor to Gene Tunney, who retired two years ago.

Disappointing Climax Schmeling's cause may be espoused further by the national boxing association and he is a candidate at least for the inscription of his name upon the Muldoon-Tunney trophy, emblematic of championship recognition so rare as its honors are concerned. But today, cold analysis of the unsatisfactory and disappointing climax to a two-year search for a fit monarch of heavy weight ranks appeared to offer no sound basis for proclaiming the young German possessor of honors universal in scope, where neither of the principals in the main fight, before-hand, held any clear or undisputed claim to championship position.

Dark-browed, likeable, courageous Max, experts may hold, should not be penalized and deprived of recognition for events beyond his control, but the fact remained that Schmeling was carried bodily and in apparently great pain from the ring last night, the winner, but a badly battered one.

Fuoch Unquestionably Low Schmeling was hurt by a punch that was unquestionably low after having been decisively outboxed and outpunched by Sharkey, who with one erratic blow of his fist swept away the high honors that seemed almost certain to be his. The German crumpled to the floor, to be carried to his corner and declared the victor only a few minutes after it seemed he was on the verge of being cleanly knocked out, in the third round, when the American battered his young rival all over the ring with a viciously smothered two-fisted onslaught.

In the third round, Sharkey had Schmeling groggy and a quick victory apparently in his grasp. A round later, the tables were reversed with such startling rapidity that scenes of the wild disorder and confusion developed.

Referee Missed Punch The final and final blow, intended as a left hook for the stomach but somehow unintentionally misdirected, was delivered as the fighters were close together along the ropes, with the top of the going ending the fourth round only a few seconds away. The referee, Jimmy Crowley, on the opposite side of the ring, with Sharkey's back between him and Schmeling, talked to see the punch. Withholding his decision, as the German sank writhing in agony to the floor, Crowley hesitated and was almost instantly surrounded and harassed by the managers, second and handlers of the two fighters as he sought advice from officials on either side of the ring. With the clamor still at its height and the crowd in complete uproar, Crowley finally accepted the unqualified judgment of one of the judges, Harold Barnes, and pronounced Schmeling the victor on a foul.
