BOXING THRONE IS STILL VACANT

Max Schmeling not Recognized as Heavyweight Champion.

CINCINNATI, June 14 (AP) Max Schmeling, winner over Jack Sharkey on a foul, was recognized today by the national boxing association as the heavyweight boxing champion of the world.

By Herbert W. Barker
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—Officially and unofficially, it would appear, the heavyweight throne, vacant for nearly two years, will have to await another twelve months for a lawful occupant.

There no longer is any doubt that Max Schmeling was seriously hurt by a low left hook Jack Sharkey landed in the fourth round of their 15-round title bout on Thursday but public opinion seems almost as unanimous in its view that the Teuton youngster cannot, by any stretch of the imagination, be entitled to the championship. Sharkey was leading by such a wide margin when the low blow was struck that most experts contended it would be absurd to vote "Der Max" into the title.

Situation Unchanged

In short, the heavyweight situation remains exactly as it was before the disputed battle was fought. If anything, the contendership claims of Young Stribling and Phil Scott both have been strengthened by the result of Thursday's fiasco. Both, in the opinion of most experts, gave Sharkey a better run for his money than did Schmeling in the four rounds the battle lasted.

Initial attempts to bring about a return match between Sharkey and Schmeling met with an abrupt check from Schmeling who announced he would sail for home in August. Max plans to tour this country, make a movie and then return to Germany. His plans for the winter include one bout, probably against a second-rater, in Berlin. He expects to return to this country late in the spring of 1931 and indicated his willingness to fight Sharkey again in June, next year.

Plan Return Bout

Despite the general opinion that Sharkey, because of his own lack of control in several of his major fights, had discredited himself as an outstanding contender, Madison Square Garden went ahead with its plans for a return bout and when that failed indicated that it might seek to match Sharkey against Victorio Campolo, giant Argentine, for its scheduled outdoor show in September.

The Tunney-Muldoon trophy committee has not ruled officially on the question as to whether Schmeling's name will be inscribed below Gene Tunney's on the trophy but there were strong indications that it would not. William Muldoon, venerable boxing commissioner, and joint donor with Tunney of the trophy, announced his personal opposition to recognizing Schmeling and Herbert Bayard Swope, another member of the committee, expressed the opinion that the title should not pass on a foul especially when the title is not actually held by one of the contestants. Swope said he would advocate at the committee's forthcoming meeting that the title be declared open.

CLEVELAND OUT IN FRONT TODAY

Indians Replace Philadelphia at Top of American League Ladder.

By Orlo Robertson

The Cleveland Indians, picked to finish no higher than fourth place in the American league pennant race, today are out in front after a whirlwind dash to the top that has left the remainder of the clubs and the Athletics in particular groggy.

With a championship brand of pitching and a murderous attack, the Indians yesterday rolled up their seventh straight victory and their third over the world champions to go into the lead by four points.

As if to make their advance into the leadership even more impressive, the Indians downed the champions 15 to 2 as Wesley Ferrell turned in his tenth victory of the season. George Walberg, usually the nemesis of the Cleveland batters, was no puzzle and before the game was over he had been driven to the showers and Eddie Rommel hurried to his rescue.

The Senators took the White Sox into camp 4 to 2 when Ad Liska held Chicago to four hits. The victory left the Senators only a half-game out of second place.

At St. Louis Rip Collins and Milton Gaston staged an old fashioned hurling duel as the Browns defeated the Red Sox, 1 to 0, in eleven innings. A single by Ralph Kress broke up the contest.

In contrast Detroit and the New York Yankees put on a modern game of baseball—slamming the ball to every corner of the field as the Yankees won 10 to 5. A total of 27 hits were collected by both teams. In the sixth inning, Sammy Byrd hit the ball out of the park with two on base to give the Yanks a safe lead.

In the National league, Adolfo Luque, a veteran of many a major league game, lost his first contest of the 1930 season when the Cincinnati Reds pounded out an 8 to 3 triumph over the Brooklyn Robins. Although hit hard Luque stuck by his guns for the entire nine innings in an effort to stop his former teammates.

The Chicago Cubs managed to nose out the Phillies 7 to 5 in a see-saw contest. Gabby Hartnett, Cub's catcher, pounded out two home runs to lead the attack while Chuck Klein, the leading National league hitter, hit safely in his twenty-second consecutive game.

Halted out for two days, the Cardinals and Braves finally came together with the latter winning 5 to 3 in ten innings. Singles by Welsh and Maranville and a fielder's choice gave the Braves the winning run.

Southpaw Bill Walker turned in his eighth victory of the season when the Giants trounced the Pirates 7 to 2 in the last game of the series. Walker held the Pirates to six scattered hits and drove in two with a timely single.
