BASEBALL TRADES ARE ENGINEERED

Art Shires Goes to Washington for Braxton, Hurler, Tate, Catcher.

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Two big baseball trades have been swung as frantic club owners and managers seek to strengthen their lineups for the crucial engagements of the National League.

The National League, Burlington Grimes, veteran spitball ace, has been traded by the Boston Braves to the St. Louis Cardinals for "Wee Willie" Sherdel and Fred Frankhouse in a deal involving nothing but pitchers.

In the American league, the Chicago White Sox have exchanged Art Shires, once pug-nacious first baseman, for Garland Houston, pitcher, and Henry Tate, catcher, of the Washington Senators.

Compston Leads Hoylake Field; Favorites O. K.

HOYLAKE, Eng., June 17 (AP)—With Archie Compston, British pro, leading the field and Leo Diegel heading the American invasion, the second and last qualifying round of British open golf championship seemed to present no great menace to the players from the United States.

Diegel, with 75 to-day, had a 6-hole total of 145, four strokes behind Compston's 141.

MacDonald Smith, with a brilliant 71 today, was well to the front with 148 for the two days' play. Bobby Jones slipped back to 77 in the second and stood at 150 with Horton Smith just behind at 151.

P. C. Stevens Jr., Los Angeles amateur, with a 35-hole count of 157 was along the border line but with an excellent chance to qualify.

Cyril Tolley, former British amateur champion, had a total of 147, giving him a temporary lead over the amateurs with George Von Elm still out.

Robins Out In Front; Athletics Remain In Lead

By Orlo Robertson (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Brooklyn Robins are out in front of the National League pack by only three and one-half games but the cut-throat actions of the Giants and Cubs makes that advantage look mountainous at this stage of the pennant race.

By a margin of three points the Athletics cling to their American League leadership, as they lost to the Tigers, 5 to 3. The A's got away to an early lead but Elton Huggest pitched fine relief ball while Dale Alexander and Roy Johnson drove in seven runs.

Johnson hit two home runs while Alexander got one with two men on base in the fifth.

Ted Lyons again failed to win his tenth game of the season when the Boston Red Sox made it two straight over the White Sox, winning 6 to 2.

The Senators unloosed a heavy offensive in the last three innings to take the measure of the St. Louis Browns 3 to 7. The deficit stopped a four-game winning streak for the Browns.

The Indians and New York Yankees were rained out at Cleveland.

slug feat 13 to 14. At one time the game resembled a track meet. Chuck Klein hit in his twenty-fifth consecutive game and took the National League home run leadership with his nineteenth circuit drive.

The Cincinnati Reds had little mercy on Burleigh Grimes and Bruce Cunningham, pounding out an 11 to 1 decision over the Braves.

Ray Phelps turned in a neat pitching assignment to enable the Robins to defeat the Cardinals 4 to 2.
