

LOCAL BRIEFS

From California—Mr. and Mrs. Albert K. Tanner, of Oceanside, Cal., who have been travelling through Texas, New Mexico, stopped in La Grande to see the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mackey. Mrs. Tanner is a niece of Mr. Mackey's and was formerly Miss Etha Mackey. They left this morning on their way to Pendleton, and Walla Walla and Oakeside, Wash., where they will visit another uncle of Mrs. Tanner's. The couple expect to locate in this section and are well pleased with La Grande.

Leave Tomorrow—Miss Mabel Doty and her mother, Mrs. Ella Doty, are leaving tomorrow on an interesting summer trip. They will go as far as Salt Lake City together, then Mrs. Doty will go on to Michigan, where she will spend the summer visiting relatives and friends and Miss Doty will go to Los Angeles, Cal., to attend the American Library association meeting, which is to be held June 23 to 28.

Madison Day—Judge J. W. Knowles is holding Madison day today. Two damage actions against the city of La Grande will come up for consideration on preliminary matters. Several other cases will be considered at the same time.

At the Hotels—J. P. Smith and wife, of Rock Springs, Wyo., who are touring to the east, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woodard, of Cottage Grove, who are also tourists, registered at a local hotel yesterday.

Vacation Here—Miss Katharine Peetz, who has been in La Grande for two weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Peetz, during her vacation, secured another week's absence which she will spend in this city. Miss Peetz is an employee of the First National bank of Pendleton.

On Business—W. Wagoner, of Summerville, was a business visitor in La Grande yesterday.

From Elgin—L. Sewell, of Elgin, was in La Grande yesterday transacting business.

From Caldwell—Miss Betty Meyers, of Caldwell, stopped in La Grande recently on her way to Seattle. Miss Meyers is a former resident of this city and has numerous friends here.

From Enterprise—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roundy and family, of Enterprise, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hunt the first of the week, and also attended the L. D. S. conference.

Returned Yesterday—Fred Duth, who formerly owned a bakery in this city and who now of the same occupation at Enterprise, was in La Grande yesterday.

Returned Home—Miss Edith Moser, who has been in Seattle for the past three months visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Baker, has returned home. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Moser, and her sister, Mrs. Berneva Hunt met her in Portland and they made the trip here.

TO ENTERTAIN EDITORS
CAMP CLATSOP, Ore., June 20 (AP)—Newspaper men from all over Oregon tonight will learn about both social and bellicose phases of the military at Camp Clatsop. The state editorial association will be entertained by Major General George A. White and his staff here at a dinner and dance.

During the evening the guests will be escorted to places of vantage where they may watch a night machine gun demonstration staged under direction of Major Frederick H. Wetland, 162d Infantry.

The big chiefs were in camp today. Major John L. Hines, commander, ninth corps area; Major General W. G. Emerson, chief of the militia bureau, and Brigadier General Windsor, 41st division field artillery brigade, made their round of the camp.

General White announced today that the big Saturday review would start at 2 p. m. sharp and if anybody was late the staff would not be responsible for any part of the show missed.

G. N. AND W. P. RAILROADS TO ENTER FRISCO

These losses may be overcome in a few years by the rapid growth of the country and will not be sufficient to impair the ability of the protestants (the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific) to perform their duty to the public.

Though the law allows the commission under certain conditions to let railroads retain excess earnings from new construction for a period of ten years, in this building program that privilege was denied. If any of some considerations affecting the exact locations of the line southward from Klamath Falls, the opinion suggested the Great Northern might obtain joint use of 24 miles of the Southern Pacific line out of that city, and save about $300,000 in construction costs. The decision suggested that a supplemental application might be presented on that point if the railroads can to an agreement.

The purchase of a short line of logging road in northern California incidental to the main construction by the Great Northern also was approved. Describing the condition imposed, the commission said the certificate issued would require that "the Great Northern shall grant the Western Pacific on just and reasonable terms the right to operate over its proposed line between the terminal at Bieber and turn out switch of the proposed joint line at or near Lookout."

POSTPONED "DEADLINE"
WASHINGTON, June 20 (AP)—The interstate commerce commission today postponed from July to January 10 the date on which a Union Pacific subsidiary would be required to begin 185 miles of new railroad in Oregon, in view of the appeal against the order taken to the Oregon district court.

The litigation involves a test of a novel use of interstate commerce commission power and is being watched with more than ordinary concern by all railroad interests.

Railroad Protests
The precedent-creating decision of the commission resulted from a complaint instituted by Oregon which asked that the Union Pacific, through the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company, which it owns, be required to build an east and west line directly across Oregon from Crane to Crescent Lake.

The cost of the construction was placed at about $15,000,000 and the railroad protested sharply, challenging the authority of the government to force it to make any such involuntary investments of new capital. After a protracted contest, the commission, notwithstanding, ruled the line was needed and that the railroad was able to meet the cost. Thereafter the railroad entered the federal courts to continue its resistance, and the commission's order today granted the delay to allow the appeal to proceed.

HUGE LIGHTHOUSE DESIGNED FOR RED SEA BY WOMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Fausta V. Mengarini, famous Italian woman sculptor who is exhibiting her work in the Corcoran art gallery, is at work on a design for a gigantic lighthouse which will be located in the port of Massaua on the Red sea.

Madame Mengarini is the only sculptor ever commissioned by Premier Mussolini to do his likeness in marble. She has designed a number of monuments in Rome and other Italian cities.

One of her best known works is the monument to heroes of the world war in Rome.

TELLS HOW WIVES WERE MANAGED 400 YEARS AGO
LONDON (AP)—Some 400-year-old rules for handling wives will soon be published in connection with a new book on Rabalais.

The rules were drawn up by Tiraqueau friend of Rabalais who had considerable experience with wives.

First of all he sets forth the dicta that "woman is man's inferior." Having established his premise Tiraqueau goes on to say, "she is not to be struck or mistreated in any way."

"The wife is to be educated by example and by caresses mingled with severity. She may be threatened when necessary."

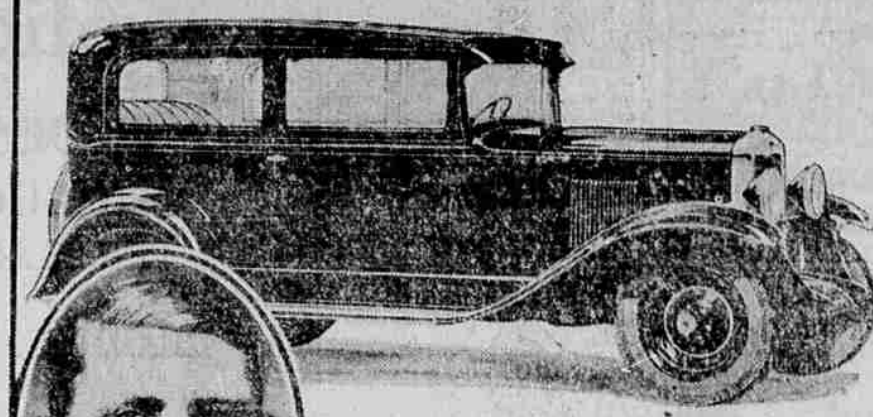

Virginia's "Fairy Stones"
The staurolites, better known as fairy stones, are found in a field of about fifty acres on top of Bull mountain, Patrick county, Virginia. They are twisted staurolite crystals simulating the Roman Maltese and St. Andrew's crosses. The original staurolite mineral has changed to a compact, softer material so that the stones can readily be prepared for the jewelry trade.

Effect of Ivy on Stucco
The bureau of standards says that ivy will not cause a stucco house to crack. It will, however, tend to prevent evaporation of the moisture from the walls after rainfall, with consequent possible dampness in the house. The tendrils of the ivy may bore into the stucco and may cause disintegration at these points, provided the stucco is not of good quality.

Chevrolet Builds 7,000,000th Car

On Wednesday morning, May 28, the seven millionth automobile produced by the Chevrolet Motor Company rolled off the assembly lines in the company's Flint, Mich., plant. The epochal car, which happens to be a coach, was driven into the plant yard by W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager of the company, who acted as driver in honor of the occasion. The car was produced 10 months and 25 days after the six millionth Chevrolet left the lines June 25, 1929, a record for million 6-cylinder car output for the entire automobile industry exceeded only by that in which Chevrolet turned the preceding million in 9 months 17 days.

Unfair Action
The term "incompetence" is variously defined. A thoughtful definition given by A. J. Montmarquet of the A. A. A. is that "is now generally applied, the word 'incompetence' implies an attempt to use the press in order to create public sentiment in favor of a cause, while at the same time seeking to conceal some relevant facts that would be necessary to form a sound and fair judgment."

ATHLETICS KEEP LEAD IN LEAGUE

Were in Bad Spot For Awhile but Championship Form is Displayed

It is a matter of indisputable record that the Philadelphia Athletics are current champions of the baseball world, and their games of the past few days go a long way toward explaining why they hold that position.

The Athletics were in a bad spot for a while. Crippled by a series of injuries, they saw the Cleveland Indians take first place away from them and lose it again before the onslaught of the New York Yankees.

They came home from a disastrous tour of the west faced by the double threat from these teams, with Washington not far in the background and with a five-game series with Cleveland to start their home stay.

The champions began to display their championship Wednesday and repeated the dose yesterday by a 4 to 2 count, sending Cleveland down into fourth place by the two defeats.

The Yankees threat would not be shaken off although the New Yorkers had to bring in Babe Ruth's famous home run act to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4.

After fanning in three attempts, the Babe clouted his 22nd homer of the year in the seventh inning and provided the margin of victory.

Washington, holding its tie in games with the Yankees for second place, found its newly acquired players a great help in scoring a 3 to 1 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Al Crowder, formerly of St. Louis, held the Sox to four hits. The Great Shires gave his old mates a taste of his hitting greatness by hitting three times in four trips to the plate.

Danny MacFayden was the one star in the fourth American league game. He held the Browns to three hits while Boston won its fourth straight game, 4 to 1.

Only two national league contests escaped the weather in the west and the result of that pair was to bring the Chicago Cubs a game closer to the Brooklyn Robins, the league's floundering leaders.

The Cubs opened a home run assault on Socks Seibold in the first three innings and scored all their runs for a 10 to 4 triumph. Hack Wilson hit his 19th four bagger, tying Chuck Klein for league leadership, while Woody English and Kiki Cuyler also hit homers in those three big frames.

The Robins failed to offer much support to Adolfo Luque and the Cuban veteran was ousted from his post as pitching leader of the league with a 5-0 defeat at the hands of the cellar occupying Cincinnati Reds. The defeat left Brooklyn 2½ games ahead of Chicago.

FRANK DOLP IS IN SEMI-FINALS

Portland Golfer Has Excellent Chance to Win Northwest Title.

By Frank G. Garris (Associated Press Sports Writer)

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 20 (AP)—Frank Dolp, of Portland, appeared today in the semi-finals of the Pacific Northwest amateur golf tournament to have an excellent chance of winning the championship twice in a row to be the sixth competitor to capture at least two northwest titles.

Having eliminated Ken Storey, of Spokane, Al Harrington, of Yakima, and Ed Greenway, of Seattle, in the first three rounds of match play, Dolp, 1929 champion, was out today to reach the finals. The only other men to ever win more than one northwest title were R. L. MacIntosh, who capped it four times, H. Chandler Egan, who garnered it three times, and George Von Elm, Rudie Wilhelm and Dr. O. E. Willing, who each gained it twice. All were Oregon men, except Von Elm, who was from Salt Lake at the time.

Dolp was matched with his townsman, Eddie Hogan, today, while Alex Duncan, of Seattle, and Johnny Robbins, of Portland, were pitted against each other in the other bracket of the semi-finals.

The champion had little trouble winning his match yesterday when he played twenty seven holes, seven under par. He eliminated Ed Greenway, 10 and 9. Hogan won from Monty Hill, Vancouver, 5 and 4; Robbins defeated Freddie Wood, Vancouver, and British champion, four and three, and Duncan snared a surprise to down Forrest Watson, former title holder, 5 and 3.

In the women's division, Mrs.

Vera Hutchings, of Vancouver, was also considered to have an excellent chance of retaining her title. Mrs. Hutchings was matched with Mrs. Brent Potter, of San Francisco, and Mrs. S. C. Sweeney was paired with Mrs. Fred Jackson, of Seattle, in the semi-finals. The champion ran into a lot of trouble yesterday in Miss Florence Sellers, of Portland, but she managed to win at the 13th hole.

FORMAL OPENING OF NEW SERVICE STATION JUNE 21

vided with one lift and a power car washer driven by electricity, daylight illumination is provided for night work by powerful lights. Two store rooms are included and in a small basement room, an oil burner using waste oil for fuel, has been installed. It is said that this station is one of very few in the Northwest using a hot water heating system. The room also houses a hot water tank.

Two rest rooms are included in the L-shaped building, both kept absolutely clean at all times.

W. Vedder was the general contractor and it required approximately two months to complete the building. Charles H. Miller was the architect.
