St. Date for Reunion—
Members of the House connection have selected Saturday, Sunday and Monday, July 19, 20 and 21 as the dates for their annual family reunion.

Home From Portland—
Everett Wallinger, of the Valeria district, returned last week from Portland where he had gone on a short business trip.

Return From Valley—
The Misses Eva and Edna Ledbetter returned Tuesday from their ten day trip to the Willamette valley, going especially to attend the commencement festivities at Willamette university.

Sunday Guests—
Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Long and their five children drove across the valley from their home on Clark's creek, Sunday, and spent the day at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher and family near Cove.

In Union—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hulse of Iowa district, and their daughter, Mrs. A. H. McLean and children, of La Grande, drove to Union Sunday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stitt.

Aid Meets—
There was a large attendance at the regular meeting of the Cove Ladies Aid society held Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Driving New Car—
"Uncle Ed" Murphy of Allee has recently purchased a new Ford sedan for the use of himself and his two nieces the Misses Mary and Margaret Taylor.

A Beautiful Field—
Julius Fisher on the lower Cove road has a small field of alfalfa which certainly presents a beautiful sight. It is a comparatively small tract on which Mr. Fisher had his potatoes last year.

Teacher's Write Exam—
According to county superintendent of schools, E. A. Sayre, seven applicants for teacher certificates wrote on one or more subjects in the state teacher's examinations held at the court house June 11 to 14.

Day in Valley—
Melvin Carper drove out from Promise and spent the weekend at the Harry Fisher home near Cove. Other visitors there during the day were Ed Murphy and the Misses Mary and Margaret Taylor of Allee.

F. V. A. Boys Meet—
Last Friday evening the Future Farmers of America representing the chapters of Eastern Oregon held an important meeting at the hotel at Union.

Better—
Friends of Mrs. Herbert Speckhart, of the Iowa district, who has been in the Grande Ronde hospital for the past two weeks will be glad to know that she has been up in a wheel chair for a few days and looks forward to getting home soon.

To Spokane—
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Speckhart and two sons of Bellingham, Wash., Mrs. Truesdel and Miss Evelyn Eberhardt of Portland left Tuesday for Spokane where they will visit with relatives for a time. They had been guests at the home of their brother and uncle, Paul Knautz in the Iowa district.

Has Birthday—
And Della Jean Dahlstrom is three years old! Saturday was her birthday and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dahlstrom of Moss Chapel, gave a birthday dinner that evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Zurbick and son, Harold and daughter, Margaret, as the guests.

A Painful Ending—
An accident befel "Mike" Union's well-known "dog about town" the other day. Mike who has waxed tyrannical over his large and growing family was indiscreet enough to attempt a chastisement of one of his own sons—a sturdy pup—which at the very outset of Mike's hostilities deftly bit off, sick and clean, about three inches of his father's tail.

Sunday Guests—
Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox and their three children, and Mr. Cox's mother, Mrs. Cox of Kennewick, Wash., were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knautz as were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith and Miss Helen Hertzog.

Elect Officials—
At the school election held Monday Frank Elmer was elected director of the Harborside school, and Mrs. Charles Gray was elected clerk of the district.

Visits in La Grande—
Miss Lorraine Hugg returned to her home in Dry Creek after visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mason in La Grande.

Concludes Visit—
Mrs. Pauline Howard and her two children left Wednesday for her home at Marshfield. They had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Woodell in the Lone Star district.

Has Successful Operation—
Mel Koen of Cove underwent an emergency operation Wednesday night in La Grande for perforation of the intestines. The operation is reported as having been successful and the patient was resting well yesterday.

Visit in Flora—
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barnburgh and the Misses Bernice and Vada Slack drove to Flora last week where they visited with relatives.

Have Guest—
Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Avery and daughter had for their guests over the weekend, Mrs. A. A. Antort and two children of Seattle and Mrs. John Patterson of Heppner. Mrs. Patterson was also a guest of Mrs. E. C. Harding in La Grande. She was a former resident of La Grande when Mr. Patterson was in business. It has been 40 years since she left this locality and she has never been back on a visit until at this time.

Visits—
Al Abel of Tacoma is in the valley visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Fisher on lower Cove. Mr. Abel is having his vacation, which he spends each year at the Fisher home.

Short on Berries—
One of the valley's heavy strawberry producers stated yesterday that the frost which visited his locality about four weeks ago cut his crop of strawberries from a former years production of 1000 to 1100 crates down to a possible 75 crates.

To Picnic Sunday—
The Union County District association of the L. O. O. P. and the Rebekahs will have their big picnic Sunday in the grove near the Dry Creek school house.

In La Grande—
Vernon Neiderer, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Neiderer of the Dry Creek neighborhood has been taken to La Grande that he may be nearer medical attention and help. Vernon has been sick for a long time, and has been obliged to keep in his bed, his trouble being some heart disorder.

Bud Shafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Shafer of Moss Chapel mourns the loss of his dog. Bud was cutting hay at John Dahlstrom's Monday and the dog was with him. He had been very good about keeping out of the way of the blades until a squirrel jumped out and the dog was after it in an instant. One foot was cut off and it was necessary to kill the animal. Reports of the injury or killing of other animals especially chickens during hay mowing season come from different sections.

Returns Home—
Miss Ruby Kimberling who accompanied her school friend, Miss Frances McKennon, home from Corvallis has returned to her home at Prairie City.

JUST A HORSE
The game spirit exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. Byers, owner of the string of horses that figured in the frightful accident the first day of the Eastern Oregon Livestock show has called for the following tribute from Union:

Just a horse called "Rainbow" who died in the service and field he loved. One of the saddest incidents occurred at the Union stock show in the afternoon of the first day when it became necessary to free him from his misery and pain this gallant race horse "Rainbow."
Born at Higgins, Oregon 15 years ago with Estella J the famous 25,000 California as his mother he started the season facing the barrier with undimmed spirit and courage. Like the promise that horse

STEPS OF PROGRESS
How times have changed! How food distribution has progressed! Only thirty years ago notes were not allowed on main streets and the food store was the "haven of Jim-cracks of a thousand varieties." But today—we have modern, conveniently located stores with ample parking space and, best of all, thoroughly up-to-the-minute food stores with the freshest of fresh foods, the most courteous and expert food merchants and economical prices that plainly spell Steps of Progress.
