20 Homers Hit In Big League Circles In Day

By Orlo Robertson
 (Associated Press Sports Writer)
 Modern baseball, with its lively ball, home runs and two-figured scores, was exhibited to Mr. John Public in large quantities by major league ball teams yesterday. A total of 256 hits, in which were interspersed 20 home runs, rang off the bats of the players, scoring 159 runs to furnish an example of the great American sport as played in 1930.

The American leaguers outscored their National league rivals 81 to 78 and outhit them 137 to 119 but seven games were played in the junior circuit as compared to four in the Hoyleder circuit. The American league also led in home runs 11 to 9 as Babe Ruth connected with his twenty-fourth of the season.

Cubs Lead Parade
 The Chicago Cubs led the parade, defeating the Phillies 21 to 8 as they found Philadelphia pitchers for 24 hits including Hack Wilson's twenty second home run. Davis, Phillie catcher, drove the ball over the fence twice.

Not far behind the Cubs trailed the Brooklyn Robins as they downed the Pirates 19 to 6 in the greatest array of hitting in either circuit. The Robins hit safely 28 times and in doing so tied two league records.

Their ten consecutive hits in the sixth equalled the one-inning successive hit record held by the Cubs and Cardinals while the two added at the start of the seventh ran the consecutive string to 12 and tied the mark made by the Cardinals against the Phillies on Sept. 17, 1929.

Braves Cut Loose
 Even the Boston Braves cut loose, winning a slugger match from the St. Louis Cardinals, 12 to 9. Waly Berger hit his twenty first home run to retain runner-up honors in the circuit.

Hill Walker, and the Giants managed to put on an old-fashioned ball game, the former holding the Reds to six hits and the latter winning 3 to 0. Ray Koltj held New York to eight safeties.

As if to give Mr. Public a variety the Athletics and White Sox hooked up in a 2 to 1 game in the opener of a double header in the American league and then closed with a 17 to 9 affair. The world champions were on the long end of the score in both games.

The Yankees lost ground as they blanked the Browns in the first game of a double bill 15 to 0 and then dropped the second 10 to 6. Henry Johnson pitched four-hit ball in the first while Ruth got No. 24 in his home run campaign. The defeat dropped the Yanks to third place.

A double billing over the Indians by the Senators sent Washington into second place. The scores were 9 to 5 and 3 to 2.

Behind Danny MacFayden's three-hit pitching the Red Sox defeated the Tigers 2 to 0. Sullivan pitched almost as well, holding the Sox to four hits.

COAST LEAGUE TEAMS ENTER LAST STRETCH

By The Associated Press
 Pacific coast league fans looked forward to some hot campaigning today as four teams went into the final three weeks of the first half of the season closely bunched.

Events to date indicated little precedent for any decided shifting of the standings, but possibilities of last minute bursts of speed made Sacramento's two-game lead over its closest competitor, Los Angeles, look rather slim.

Games today: Oakland at Missions, San Francisco at Portland, Los Angeles at Seattle, Sacramento at Hollywood.

Baseball Czar Is Facing Rebellion

CHICAGO, June 24 (AP)—The first open rebellion against the arbitrary authority of Kenesaw Landis, baseball commissioner, broke out today when the Milwaukee club of the American association brought suit in the federal court to stop the transfer of one of its players to the St. Louis Browns of the American league.

GODFREY LOSES ON FOUL PUNCH

Giant Negro Belts Primo Carnera Around Ring Until the Fifth Round.

By Edward J. Neil
 (Associated Press Sports Writer)

PHILADELPHIA, June 24 (AP)—George Godfrey, the giant negro, who last night fouted Primo Carnera, the Italian colossus, and again the faithful come to see a fight, boxed and roared, and shouted "take" and went home talking to themselves.

The battle of the behemoths, the two largest men ever to face each other in a ring, missed duplicating the farcical ending of Jack Sharkey's duel with Max Baucus for the heavyweight crown by less than two minutes.

Whereas Sharkey fouted his man in the last few seconds of the fourth round Godfrey struggled past the first minute of the fifth before he drove an apparently incapacitating left hook into Carnera's groin.

Rubber-Stamp Ending
 From that second on however, the situation looked exactly like the rubber-stamp ending that has been plastered on three out of four of the last important heavyweight struggles. Carnera withered and meaned in the manner of all fouted fighters, finally was eased from his agony by merciful unconsciousness, and was dragged out, winner on a foul.

Last night almost 40,000 customers paid close to $200,000 for the hour that was billed as the real test of Carnera as a fighting man. His fange hitting against ninth and tenth rates in a four throughout the country was ended.

Charges of "take" in his fight with the negro Leon Chevalier in Oakland, Cal., were to be forgotten in the glory of a huge but genuine fighting man overcoming his first real opposition.

Godfrey Belts Primo
 But unfortunately for boxing it failed to turn out that way. Godfrey, contributing an even 350 pounds to the quarter of a ton of straggling humanity in the park at the vast Venetian daisy in the first round, socked his solitary long left hook that looked foul from the start all the way to the point of contact.

that bounced freely off his chin and buried deep in his body. He was fast on his feet for such a tremendous fellow. He was cool, but he damaged the negro giant but little.

Godfrey was obviously tiring badly when he let loose the low left hook after one minute, 13 seconds of the fifth.

While the crowd boomed and cried of "take" rolled down the ringside, critics up close were mixed in their opinions. Several believed the match had been talked over before it was put on. Others could see nothing wrong.

Plans Investigation
 Frank Weiner, chairman of the athletic commission, said there would be an investigation before the fighters were paid.

It was reported Carnera was to receive 60 per cent of the gate receipts, and Godfrey $10,000 that, although there seemed to be some doubt as to who would pay the negro.

There was no question as to the low blow. Early in the fifth round Godfrey, who had been punching short but with increasing lack of power to the body as the fight wore on, suddenly loosened a long left hook that looked foul from the start all the way to the point of contact.

"Ingagi" Exposure Results In Suit

LOS ANGELES, June 24 (AP)—Suit for $2,365,000 damages was filed in the United States District Court here Monday by Congo Pictures against Will H. Hays and Carl E. Milliken, president and secretary of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, and others. The National Better Business Bureau also was named defendant.

The plaintiff seeks $262,000 actual damages, and asks $3,000,000 exemplary damages, for published statements attributed to the defendants concerning the film "Ingagi." The complaint charges that "Willful, malicious, unwarranted and pernicious condemnation" of the film "Ingagi" by the defendants destroyed assured earnings and profits.

Mill Creek Road Being Improved To The Reserve

By Mrs. J. R. Price
 (Observer Correspondent)

LOWER COVE, Ore. (Special)—The Mill Creek Canyon road is being improved under the direction of Roadmaster John Richards. Rocks and ruts are being blasted out and the road widened to allow cars to pass. This road is a favorite of picnic parties during the summer and also leads to the forest reserve and to the Little Minam river. The road is being improved from the W. A. McNeil place to where it enters the forest reserve.

while on their way to Wallowa on business. Between Imbler and the Wallowa canyon, the car upset, bruising Mrs. Fisher quite badly. The top of the car was entirely ruined and other parts had to be repaired. Mrs. Fisher is a sister of Mrs. Armita Sills, of Cove. After the accident, Mrs. Fisher returned to the home of Mrs. Sills, until the car could be repaired, when she left the left again for Wallowa and Paradise valley, as it was imperative that she be there.

Mrs. P. F. Sturges and small son, Philemon Fowler III, who have been visiting friends in Cove since the closure of the summer school, left for La Grande Monday, where they will meet the Rev. Mr. Sturges and take the train for the east. Mr. and Mrs. Sturges are spending their two months vacation in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, among relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Sturges were both on the summer school faculty and Mr. Sturges left for Bend Friday, with a party of young people, who attended school. Mr. Sturges was rector of the Ascension church of Cove in 1928 to 1929.
