Ratzlaff Wins From McQuillan In Portland Go

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25 (AP)—Herman Ratzlaff, Minot, N. D., middleweight, took a close decision from Ray McQuillan, Denver negro, here last night at the end of their ten round main event. No serious damage was done and Ratzlaff's aggressiveness earned him the nod. Last week McQuillan knocked Ratzlaff out in the sixth round.

Lou Sauer, Portland and Al Trulman, Los Angeles, featured the card with a fine exhibition of boxing and hard hitting. The crowd was on edge throughout the match. They are welterweights.

Mickey Dolan, Portland lightweight, knocked out Art McMillan, Chicago, in the second round of their ten-round bout.

Dutch Easter, Los Angeles, knocked out Johnny Hall, Vancouver in the first round of their four-round preliminary and Jackie Webster, Portland and Johnny Garvey, Los Angeles, drew in the curtain raise.

Some men are such deadbeats they won't even pay a compliment.

The three words most conducive to peace in this world are "Yes, my dear."

And while we're on the subject of money: the bigger the summer vacation the harder the fall!

Most of the boys have nicknames. Some of the girls have neck names.

At the summer resort Harry—Don't go over to your cabin yet, Jordan. The mosquitoes will be singing around your ear and you won't be able to sleep. Let's go down and sit around the campfire with the gang.

Jordan—I'll take the mosquitoes.

When he is quarrelsome, ignore him. If he is jealous, cure him. If he cares naught for pleasure, coax him. If he favors society, accompany him. When he deserves it, kiss him.

Let him think how well you understand him. But never let him know that you manage him.

One half of a companionate couple doesn't know how the other half lives.

Here's one way you can lose control of your car and not have a smashup: Just get far enough behind on your payments.

Small children should be seen and not heard—and that applies to a lot of movie stars, too.

When you marry him, love him. After you marry him, study him. If he is secretive, trust him. If he is sad, cheer him. When he is talkative, listen to him. When he is quarrelsome, ignore him. If he is jealous, cure him. If he cares naught for pleasure, coax him. If he favors society, accompany him. When he deserves it, kiss him.

Let him think how well you understand him. But never let him know that you manage him.
