Wallowa Women Entertain At Bridge Yesterday

At a charming afternoon of bridge, Mrs. C. A. Hunter, Mrs. George Dale, Mrs. A. Searle and Mrs. Oren Campbell were hostesses Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Hunter's home in Wallowa to guests from Enterprise, Joseph, La Grande and Wallowa. Twelve tables were at play and the rooms were attractively decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. Following cards a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Honors at bridge were won by Mrs. W. H. Bohlenkamp Sr. first, and Mrs. Gilbert Hunter, second, both of La Grande. Consolation award was presented to Mrs. J. H. Maxwell, of Wallowa.

Mankind's Advances

As outlined by Dr. Will Durant, the progress of mankind is indicated in the following stages: Speech, fire and light, the conquest of the animals, the passage of man from hunting to agriculture, social organization, the moral sense of beauty, science, writing and print, and education.

China and Porcelain

Not much china was imported into England until about 1650, when it began to be brought in by the East Indian Trading company. Porcelain was not made in England until almost the middle of the Eighteenth century. Earthenware was manufactured earlier than the Eighteenth century. Potters were at work at Staffordshire in the Seventeenth century.

Cleaning Leather

Never use gasoline or any "dry-lyng" liquid to clean or preserve leather upholstery. The dirt can be removed by applying a sponge wet in soap and water. A leather or harness dressing of approved reputation or neatfoot oil with a little of the required color in it can be used as a preserving and softening agent.

Scorching Heat In Poughkeepsie For Intercollegiate Crew Race

Editor's Note—The Observer, although it is not expected that the report will arrive here in time for the regular addition, will receive returns from Poughkeepsie on the first finishers in the varsity crew race. Those returns may be had by calling Main 600 late this afternoon.

By Ted Vastburgh (Associated Press Sports Writer)

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—Brilliant sunshine and scorching heat today greeted the thousands who assembled here from all parts of the country for the thirty-third annual intercollegiate rowing regatta over the historic Hudson river.

The broad expanse of water on which 23 crews were to row it out in varsity, junior varsity and freshman events were smooth as a millpond. There was practically no breeze to stir its surface or to provide relief from the oppressive heat. A light haze hung over the river, reducing the visibility somewhat, but otherwise conditions were ideal and indications pointed to the largest crowd in regatta history.

"Rock" Picks Huskies

Legge Reassures The Grain Trade

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—Chairman Legge of the farm board said today that the grain trade need have no apprehension of competition from the wheat held by the grain stabilization corporation during the coming months when farmers will be moving the 1930 crop to market, unless in the meantime prices rise to the level at which purchases were made.

But there were plenty, including assorted experts, who were willing to string along with the sage and philosopher of Notre Dame and pick the towering crew from the far northwest to crash through for the first time since 1926.

The position of second favorite was held by the Navy while Columbia and California also were regarded highly.

Neither of the Pacific coast crews were rated quite up to the Navy and Columbia eight, coached by the Glendons, father and son, when it comes to smoothness of rowing form, but many felt that Washington's greater power would be enough to win.

Callow's Opinion

Such a well qualified observer as Rusty Callow, present Pennsylvania mentor and coach of the last Washington varsity to win here, said the Seattle institution probably had turned out a good many crews prettier to watch but none with the marvellous physical equipment of the present varsity array.

In the Washington boat were six of the eight men who rowed in the varsity crew of last year when the Huskies finished second to Columbia and the newcomers are sophomores of gargantuan proportions.

A victory for any crew other than the "big four" who has monopolized the varsity championships here ever since the war figured to rank as a sensational upset, but all five of the other contenders — Cornell, Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts Tech and Wisconsin—were determined to win if possible and not to finish last at any rate.

EIGHT REMAIN IN GOLF PLAY IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., June 26—(AP)—Seven Portland golfers and one visiting player, Bargo Pease, Tacoma, today are battling over a 36-hole route for places in the semi-final round of the first annual Pacific Northwest public links championship tournament.

With the exception of Pease, all visiting players who qualified were eliminated in the first or second round of the championship flight yesterday.

LA GRANDE FORMS BASEBALL TEAM

Six-Game Series Will be Played With Baker—Hawkes to Pitch.

LA GRANDE—Sports

La Grande will have baseball, after all, although it will be only about a six-week season.

When Ontario dropped out of the six-team Oregon-Idaho league, the league also was forced to drop Baker in order to balance the league for the last half of the season. As a result, Baker and La Grande have arranged to play a six-game series, three here and three there.

The first game will begin at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the high school athletic field in La Grande.

Among the local players will be Hawkes, regular Baker pitcher during the first half of the season, but a resident of Perry; Spud Helm, third sacker of La Grande; Frank Devaney, shortstop; Taylor, formerly with Ontario, who will play second base; Murchison, or Cove, who is expected to catch, and others.

The team is being organized this week and it is also expected that in addition to the games with Baker, two or three games with traveling teams, including one negro outfit, may be arranged during July and August.

Inglis, Portland, 5 and 4, in the first round yesterday but was eliminated on the 19th in the second round by George Parker, Portland.

Pease, the Tacoma, had an easy time yesterday, eliminating Dr. R. J. Fashberg, Portland, medalist, 5 and 4 in the morning round, and Bill Prantle, Portland, 4 and 3 in the afternoon.

Pease today is playing W. A. Norby Portland, who eliminated Leo Vonper, Portland, 4 and 3, in the first round yesterday and Russ Burdett, one up in the second round.
