

ANGELS AND SACS IN TIE FOR FIRST

Sudden Slump Accounts for Slip — Angels Deal Blow to Dutch Reuther

By The Associated Press

After more than six weeks' solitary sojourn in first position in the Pacific coast league, Sacramento found its leadership today shared by Los Angeles, which downed Seattle yesterday, 5 to 2, to rise to a tie for first place with the Senators, who were beaten by Hollywood, 13 to 2.

A sudden slump brought the Sacs three straight losses to the Stars, a six-hit pitching job by Shellenback and three Hollywood homers, routing Bryan, Sacramento hurler, yesterday.

The Angels dealt a blow to veteran "Dutch" Reuther, as Boacht turned in another stellar hurling exhibition, shutting the Indians out in all except the eighth inning.

San Francisco and Oakland remained much in the running, both winning yesterday to be tied for second place two games behind the leaders, and it's anybody's race yet among the first four clubs.

The Seals pounded three Portland pitchers for an easy victory, 12 to 2, Miljus holding the Ducks to seven scattered hits, and Crosetti figuring in all of the three San Francisco double plays.

Seven errors committed by the Missions added to seven innings of shut-out ball pitched by McEvoy gave the Oaks an 8 to 5 victory. Rosenberg's homer in the sixth led a two-inning Red attack which failed to stem the Oakland lead.
