FLIERS ARE ENTERTAINED IN NEW YORK

as much as I do and she's been up with me lots of times.

"My mother? She never worries about me. In fact, she seems to have a sublime faith in me. My father, who is 78 years old, never worries about me either.

"Did I carry a picture of Nellie Stewart? You bet I did. I'm superstitious about that, and I always take it on dangerous flights."

Nellie Stewart, now 78 years old, was Kingsford-Smith's boyhood idol, the great actress of Australia, when he was a lad. He wrote to her for an autographed photograph...

One Married Man

Everet Van Dyk, big slow spoken co-pilot on the Atlantic flight, was the only married man among the four. He has a wife and family in Holland.

Captain J. Patrick Saul, Irish widower whose little eight-year-old daughter waits for him back on the Ould Sod, also has a fiancée, Miss Lena Merchant, of Dublin. Only John W. Stannage, small but mighty radio operator whose efficient service was praised by Kingsford-Smith as being the controlling factor in the latter stages of their flight, could offer no romantic attachments.

At least ten thousand persons waited through the hot afternoon at Roosevelt field for the arrival of the Southern Cross and when it appeared at sunset, threw restraint aside and risked limbs and clothes in a mad dash for the plane and the fliers.

Sir Ronald Lindsay, British ambassador who had flown from Washington to greet his co-patriots; Grover Whaley, high hat and all; Herbert Brookes, commissioner general for Australia in the United States, and the other dignitaries in the welcoming party, were swept aside in the human sea.

Police Escort Fliers

Finally the three hundred Nassau county police won their way through to the plane and escorted the fliers to field headquarters office where they were photographed by still, motion and sound news men, and interviewed, between bursts of cheering, by the press.

An hour after they had landed the party was in open automobiles bound for New York city, a bath, a meal and sleep.

Crowds, attracted by the screaming sirens of the motorcycle escort, lined the streets of the many Long Island towns and cheered as the motor cavalcade swept past at 60 miles an hour.

Another enthusiastic crowd waited in the lobby and on the steps of the Hotel Roosevelt, driven inside by a light drizzle which turned into a downpour five minutes after the fliers had arrived.

Kingsford-Smith put through a long distance call for his fiancée in Australia and all four men talked over the radio.

Broadest Relayed

The broadest was relayed to Australia and Europe by short wave stations and rebroadcast there.

A parade up the harbor to pier A and then up Broadway to the city hall had been planned for the fliers today but Kingsford-Smith asked that a less ambitious program be adopted.

The plans then were changed to a police escorted ride to City Hall from their hotel, a welcome from Mayor Walker and a luncheon at the Advertising club. The program at City Hall is to be broadcast.

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP)—Charles Kingsford-Smith and the crew of the ocean spanning Southern Cross are to be received by President Hoover at the White House Monday at 1:30 o'clock.

Kellogg Honored

Frank B. Kellogg, former secretary of state, was made a doctor of laws by Brown university at its 152nd commencement.

Witnesses said they saw a flash of lightning dart down to the boat, followed immediately by a terrific explosion. The air was filled with debris and the drill boat had disappeared.

Some reports were that there had been a large quantity of dynamite aboard the craft which had been exploded by the flash. Luther Kuckenberg, superintendent in charge of the work, who was ashore at the time said there was no dynamite aboard the boat.

He said the explosion was caused by lightning following the steel drills which were working in the rock or wires leading to charges which had been placed.

Leo Marlin, inspector of the public works department at Ottawa, who was one of those rescued, estimated there were three tons of dynamite in the drill holes and expressed the opinion that there also was a considerable quantity in the boat. He charged that an unidentified boat passed at the time of the explosion, but did nothing to aid in the rescue.

The explosion was witnessed by the crew of U. S. coastguard cutter 311, which was passing in charge of Captain G. B. Lok, with M. R. Rasmussen, chief inspector of the Buffalo district aboard.
