Huckleberries Not Plentiful, Kennison Says

By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg
(Observer Correspondent)

KAMELA, Ore. (Special)—Some rain fell at Kamela last weekend but sunshine is again being enjoyed. The nights are still cold with occasional frosts. According to A. Kennison, government trapper for Kamela and surrounding districts, huckleberries will not be very plentiful this year as the blooms were frozen in many places.

Gravelling is being done on the highway. A few miles before Kamela, some grading work is still being done on the highway near Meacham.

Mrs. T. Burton and Mrs. H. Horstman spent a few days in Baker visiting friends last week.

Mrs. R. Barnes and daughters, Betty and Melody, were in La Grande visitors last Sunday.

After a short visit in Portland with her father, G. T. Shaw, and other relatives, Mrs. P. P. Brooks returned home to Kamela Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Biever were in La Grande Tuesday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hawes and family and their house guest, John Larson Jr., of La Grande, drove to Meacham, Sunday to visit relatives.

John Hawes who was quite sick last week has now recovered.

Engineer C. O. Schubert, who was ill several days last week due to a severe attack of flu, has now returned to work.

J. K. Charlton has returned to work at Kamela after a trip to Corvallis accompanied by Mrs. Charlton.

Henry Carlson, of Portland, was a Kamela visitor last weekend. Miss Nancy Casteel returned with him Sunday as far as The Dalles, spending a short time there before coming home to Kamela.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lane are spending a few days in La Grande at present. B. Davis, of La Grande, is working here during Mr. Lane's absence. Mr. and Mrs. Lane were initiated into the Eastern Star order Wednesday evening.

Guests during the weekend at the M. Broms home here were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Myhrwell and family, of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Myhrwell is a sister of Mr. Broms.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Horstman and son, Jack, drove to Halfway last Sunday. They spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. E. Pierson and family, who are stationed there at present. Mrs. Kelley is Mrs. Horstman's sister and Mr. Pierson their brother. They were greatly impressed by the Pine Valley scenery.

Reports from Pilot Rock are that Miss Alta Smith is recovering rapidly from a recent serious operation performed in La Grande and in a few weeks will be able to return to her duties at the Kamela grocery store. She is visiting relatives at Pilot Rock.
