

Union Creamery Site Selected By Directors

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall (Observer Correspondent) UNION (Special)—A delegation of cooperative creamery men consisting of General Manager W. B. Wagner and Directors James Scamard, D. Coates, P. B. Splee, R. T. Davis, F. S. Johnson, R. S. Comstock and Charles Bolton, were in Union recently to choose a site for the new creamery. Out of the three available sites the vote was unanimous in the selection of the plot lying to the east of the Wright Drug store. The property was owned by Joe Wright, Mrs. Mary Hutchinson and Kiddle brothers. The building committee is here and operations will be under way at an early date. The building will be parallel to the railroad on the property which has a 350-foot frontage. Numerous petty thefts and robberies in Union recently have emphasized the necessity for more effective police protection and it is hoped that resolutions passed by the commercial club will become operative at an early date. Sometime during the night Friday, someone entered the Roy Gipson home while the family slept, taking Mr. Gipson's watch which was lying on the dresser and about $20 in currency from a purse belonging to Mrs. Gipson. Merton Davis' crew began the work of wrecking the Presbyterian church building on Monday of this week. Theodore Miller has purchased 20 acres of the Taylor Green land lying west of Union from G. F. Hall. "The Wedding of Tom Thumb," using about 50 local children under the direction of Mrs. Burnworth, of Yakima, on Friday evening was staged so successfully that it may be repeated sometime in the fall. The children did their parts remarkably well considering the few practices. The wedding was supposed to be quite formal with all the necessary attendants, flower girls and ushers and the guests in formal evening clothes. The impersonation of local citizens afforded much amusement. The bride and groom, Betty Ackley and Norman Gipson, were quite adorable in their costumes. So many deserved special mention that it would be quite impossible to give all the details. Mrs. Ida Couper and daughter Jean, of Weiser, made a short visit in Union last week, just remaining over night. They were driving to California to be gone for about two months. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hess are enjoying a visit with their son Leland who has returned from Cambridge, Mass., last week and who plans to go on to Portland next week to take up his practice of law in that city. Mr. Hess who had taken a year's work in the Harvard law school, wrote to George to spend last summer. On his return he wrote numerous articles dealing with his travels and these articles have been put into book form. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Biddle, Louis Conley and Schuyler Blacker made a trip to the Willamette valley last week. Mrs. Biddle visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis while the others drove to Astoria to attend to business there. They returned on Wednesday. Miss Lura Biddle came up from Portland to spend the remainder of her two weeks vacation at home and returned on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woods and three children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Benson from Saturday until Sunday afternoon. They were former residents of Union but are now living on a ranch on Powder river. Mrs. J. Jones and children Jimmie and Florence of Ryder, Wash., and Mrs. M. H. H. Jones of Astoria, besides Gatchell, of Homestead, Ore., were weekend visitors at the homes of Mr. Louisa Burwell and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Goodbrod. Mrs. Estelene Paddock and Harry L. West came up from Portland last week on business. Mrs. Paddock returned home Friday and Mr. West went out to his mine in the East Eagle country to do assessment work. Dorothy Ann Paddock, who has been visiting for sometime with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Allen, at Lostine, will spend the month of July visiting with her father, Dr. Albert Paddock. Rubby Klein, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Klein, was taken to Hot Lake last Thursday where she underwent an appendix operation. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams and Hazel left the first of last week for Olympia and will visit for sometime in the Puget Sound country. Miss Alice Cadwell came in from Stanwood, Wash., where she teaches in the high school, last Friday morning. She will spend her summer vacation with her brother, C. L. Cadwell. Mrs. Pearl Shrover and sister, Mrs. Maude Johnson and family returned Thursday evening from their trip to Nevada. They visited at Elko, Nev., Twin Falls and Burli, Ida., besides several intermediate points. They report finding excellent roads and no car difficulties during their eleven day outing. Mrs. Marshall Huffman, who was taken to Hot Lake recently, is critically ill. Mrs. Alex Slater was bitten by a dog Saturday evening and has been under the doctor's care since. Mrs. Ellis Hess gave a swimming party at Cove Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Elaine's birthday. The guests were Betty Vogel, Jack, Gene and Kathleen Conklin, Harold Hess, Sylvan Tibball and Elma Halsey.

The covered dish luncheon served at one o'clock revealed many delectable surprises and as usual no one came home hungry. The afternoon program conducted by Mrs. Viola Parker was well prepared and interesting. Just the usual monthly business session preceded the program. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Coburn moved last week to the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Baird, and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy moved back into her home. Mrs. Elise Ireton, of Payette, was a visitor at the home of her old friend and neighbor, Mrs. Cyrus Williams, recently. She was returning from a visit to the Puget Sound country and Portland. Youth and Age

Youth is credulous in many matters, but upon one single issue youth stays as iron and granite; youth does not ever believe that life serves well enough just as it stands. To believe that such is just possibly the case remains the attested hall-mark of middle life. . . . Thereafter, optimism develops insidiously and the most of us sink, ceasing to think, into an amiable senescence. From "The Way of Ebben," by James Branch Cabell.
