At a delightful evening of bridge

Fresh

Schilling tea

Tea in vacuum! Just like your coffee!

It is just as vital for one as it is for the other, to prevent the evaporation of the fragrant oils that give them both their flavor. Science has been longer discovering how to do it for tea. So far it's a Schilling secret. Try it, and find what you have been missing all these years.

Iced

Schilling Iced Tea is far more refreshing than any other because it is fresh to begin with. Black tea (orange pekoe) is best. So are TEA BAGS instead of loose tea. Schilling packs both in vacuum.

Lorraine Holmes was hostess at her home recently honoring Miss Betty Brown and Gordon Stanley, of Los Angeles, and Gilbert Conrad, of Hollywood. First award at cards was won by Mrs. A. T. Meranda. The rest of the evening was spent in the serving of a supper and dancing.

OLD TACTICS ARE FAVORED BY COPS

Alcock and Norton Ready to Use Iron Fist in Chicago, 1910 in Fight of 1900

CHICAGO (AP)—Two policemen of the old school who favor hard-handed tactics in law enforcement have tackled the task of policing Chicago. John H. Alcock, a grizzled veteran of the nineties, is the city's new commissioner of police, and John W. Norton is his chief of detectives.

Alcock has declared that the fist with which he will strike at gangsters and hoodlums will be the fist of 1900 and 1910. He believes in old-time methods. Police, he says, "will walk their beats again. Detectives will get off the rubber tires and wear out shoe leather."

"My idea of how police business should be conducted," said the new chief, who joined the Chicago police in 1898, "has been sidetracked for seven years. New methods, to my mind, have failed utterly to accomplish their purpose."

Alcock, who came from Ireland as a boy, was first deputy commissioner under Commissioner William Russell when the latter resigned following the murder of Alfred Jingle, police reporter.

For years he has been known as the "iron man" of the force. Detectives, he says, cannot function in automobiles. An intelligent policeman, Alcock contends, must use his brains as well as his feet.

"It was never intended," says Alcock, "that detectives should run down in cars with guns, notifying criminals of their coming." Lieut. John W. Norton, Alcock's new chief of detectives, also belongs to the old school. For nearly 40 years this 60-year-old veteran has served on the Chicago force.

He bears scars of five wounds received in "shooting it out" with criminals. It was Norton who was chiefly credited for the arrest of Earl Wanger and Harry Church, notorious murderers who were sentenced to death several years ago.

MARTHA WASHINGTON USED 40 EGGS FOR "GREAT CAKE"

MT. VERNON, Va. (AP)—Here is Martha Washington's recipe for "great cake," the manuscript for which has been presented to the George Washington museum at Mt. Vernon. "Take 40 eggs and divide the whites from the yolks. Beat them to a froth, then work four pounds of butter to a cream and put the whites of eggs to it a spoonful at a time till it is well worked, then put four pounds of sugar finely powdered to it in the same manner, then put in the yolks of eggs and five pounds of flour and five pounds of fruit. Two hours will bake it, add to it half an ounce of mace and nutmeg, half a pint of wine and some French brandy."

The recipe is in the original manuscript written by Martha Parke Custis for her grandmother, Martha Washington.

Chats With Parents

BUYING GOOD TEMPER

By Alice Judson Peate It seemed to his mother that Bert was growing every day more ill-tempered and surly. Nothing pleased him. Each day he would come whining to her with a sad chant that always began with:

"I wish I had," or "Why don't you buy me?" To suggestions that he run out and play he would respond with a scowl and sink into the depths of the nearest chair.

Finally one day his mother decided that she would take him to the toy store and let him buy all the things he wanted. They made a day of it and Bert came home with a radiant face and his arms full of packages.

The next day and the next he was blissfully happy, playing with his new airplanes, marching his soldiers and running his auto truck. The other children looked at him enviously. They vied with each other for his good graces in order that they might be permitted to share in the play with all the fine new toys.

Toys and possessions contribute their share to the happiness of children, but they are no cure-all for an unhappy state of mind. A child who is chronically bored and out of sorts needs something more than toys to make him happy.

The pleasant disposition, the interested outlook which are the proper characteristics of wholesome childhood depend less upon these than upon any other one thing. A child is happy, not because he has everything he wants, but because he lives in a sensible and cheerful home, because he feels secure in his parents' love, because he has playmates and freedom to play.

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the large, dry, evacuation bowl called the colon. IT'S A PITY TO BE FAT!

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

When tempted to over-indulge "Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"It's toasted" Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*In his famous book entitled "Foods For the Fat," Dr. Yorke-Davies gives this advice: "Any system for reducing fat will be of no avail if the patient persists in eating between meals." We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
