Health Talks

FOUR LADS
In 1885, Louis Pasteur performed the miracle of miracles. He discovered a method for the prevention of the development of hydrophobia (rabies) in animals and persons bitten by rabid or mad animals. In the same year, four American lads, whose play was turned into a threatening disaster by the rush of a mad dog that bit and tore them, left our shores to travel the 3000 miles to Paris, to receive the Pasteur treatment.

Pasteur welcomed them, treated them and saved their lives. Rabies does not now constitute a serious public health problem. There are fewer than 100 annual deaths in the United States from this cause.

But insofar as practically all of these deaths are preventable, and further more because death from rabies is so very horrible, every effort ought to be made to save each and every endangered life.

Every bite by an animal should be suspected, especially if the animal is unknown and not under scrutiny. In the United States dogs are the chief sufferers from rabies, but other animals, like the cat, may also suffer and transmit the disease.

Rabies are thought to prevail only during the hot months but this is an erroneous impression. There are more dog bites suffered between April to September than from October to March but that is because dogs are about more freely.

When a dog has bitten one, every effort should be made to catch the animal alive. By watching the dog for approximately 10 days, we can determine whether it has rabies. If the dog, in this time, shows no evidences of disease, the anti-rabic treatment may not be necessary.

The danger of the bite increases with nearness to the head. A bite on the face is very dangerous. The chance of developing rabies in a person bitten by a rabid dog and not treated, is one in 10.

Family Reunion Event of Sunday

By Lois Witherspoon (Observer Correspondent)

CHICKET FLAT (Special)—The Durr family held a reunion at the home of Mrs. Luella Long's Sunday. There were 80 relatives present and they all enjoyed a very delicious dinner at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. V. Witty and son, Ralph Witty, went to Pendleton Saturday where they visited the aged and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Witty and children. They returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of La Grande, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Cooper's mother, Mrs. Susan Tucker, Sunday. Mrs. Tucker has been ill for the past two weeks but is somewhat improved now.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hallgarth were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hallgarth.

Miss Mabel Gibson, of Cove, came here Sunday to visit with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Richards. She will return to Cove Thursday.

Mrs. Stella Daron and Mrs. Jesse Breshers left Wednesday by auto for Medford, where they will visit for a week.

CHICAGO INVESTIGATES
OPERA THAT'S NOT COSTLY

CHICAGO (AP)—Cost of summer opera for Chicago citizens who like opera, according to an official estimate, presented to the city council by the director of parks and playgrounds.

The building, planned under the city estimate would accommodate 15,000 people. There would be 1,500 free seats, and 8,500 others costing from 50 cents to $2.

Chicago already has a summer opera at Ravinia, north of the city, but the council believes the distance is too far and the cost too high to serve the municipal need.

FAMILIES VIE FOR MARK
IN COLLEGE ATTENDANCE

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—A contest for the college attendance record in Oklahoma is a sort of family affair, with two families far in the lead.

A few years ago the J. P. Hoke family of Stillwater set a mark, when the eighth member was awarded a degree by the Oklahoma A. and M. college. This year Margaret Baldwin of Ardmore, Okla., was graduated from the same school after five of her brothers and sisters already had been given degrees.

With six of the Baldwins graduated, that family is in striking distance of the enrollment mark hung up by the eight Hokes.

HOD HAD HIS MOMENTS
The town hall was lit up Sunday evening for no apparent reason except that Hod Getty, the janitor, was too. (From a New Jersey weekly.)

Office boys aren't the only ones who whistle at their work. Steamboat captains, railroad engineers and traffic cops do the same.

Julius Seligson, captain of the Lehigh university tennis team, won 55 consecutive intercollegiate contests.

Chats With Parents

YOUR SUBSTITUTE
By Alice Judson Pease

Children are entirely at the mercy of the adults to whom they are entrusted. Yet often they are left for many hours daily with some person who has been hired without thought of anything save economy and her ability to perform certain household tasks.

In the home that has one servant the mother often leaves her children with her for hours together. In the home where there is no servant at all, the mother frequently hires an available person by the hour or calls upon some relative or neighbor.

A day care center, where the children have need of houses and governesses who were paid large salaries because of their training and experience in their work, who nevertheless exercised upon the children under their care only the most unhappy influence.

It is not advisable to leave your children with anyone who is not, first of all, a well-poised and reasonably happy individual. It is not so vital to know the training and experience as to know the general outlines of her life story for from it you should be able to gather some impression of her actual personality.

A girl, a young high school girl possessed of a proper sense of responsibility may be a much better person with whom to leave your children than a woman with references galore and a starred and bitter life behind her.

TILDEN, COCHET, BOROTRA, PLAY IN A GIDDY CIRCLE

PARIS (AP)—The defeat of Henri Cochet by Jean Borotra in the finals of the Belgian Championships recently emphasized a strange anomaly of tennis form in recent years.

Tilden always beats Borotra on hardcourts and grass; Cochet has defeated Tilden since 1927 on three successive occasions and yet Borotra has downed Cochet, ranked by all as the premier player in the world, in the last two matches they have met.

Cochet has a partial explanation. "With Tilden one knows where the ball is going," he said. "With Jean Borotra—one never knows. He is liable to shoot it anywhere."

NATIONAL PRESIDENTS FIND DEMANDS HEAVY

WASHINGTON (AP)—So heavy are the duties of a president of one of the big national women's organizations which have headquarters in Washington that it has become almost necessary for a woman president to reside here.

Miss Belle Sherwin, president of the League of Women Voters, moved here from Cleveland after her election. Mrs. Alfred Broesevan, who was president general of the D. A. B. found it necessary to spend all of her time in Washington, though she still maintained her residence in Greenwich, Conn.

Mr. L. F. Hobart, now president general, seldom has a chance to visit his home in Cincinnati. Some organizations require Washington residence.

COMMUTE FOR OPERA

CHICAGO (AP)—For the last eight years, Otto Kahn, New York banker, has made special trips to Chicago to attend the opening of the summer opera season.

Approximately 4,000 more acres of lettuce will be harvested in July and August than last year in California. The total acreage is 13,000.

Business Women to Sail for Geneva on "Special"

WASHINGTON (AP)—Miss Charl O. Williams, education chairman of the National Federation of business and professional women's clubs, will lead the "Geneva special" to Switzerland August 24, 25 and 26 for the international conference of business and professional women.

The women will sail August 1 on the Olympic. Prior to their departure the "Geneva special" to Switzerland August 24, 25 and 26 for the international conference of business and professional women.

Eighty-eight women are enrolled for these trips.

Dr. R. P. Richardson of Union City, Okla., also is a banker, farmer, druggist, postmaster and cotton gin operator.

Bouquets to Match Gowns are Favored

WASHINGTON (AP)—Small round bouquets of flowers to match their professional women's gowns are favored by Miss Lillian Whitfield at a recent ball carried such a bouquet matching her taffeta dress of yellow and orchid.

The dress was made perfectly plain in front, but in the center of the back was a huge bow of yellow and orchid. She wore large round earrings of gold filigree.

SPIRAL CHOKERS STRUNG ON SPRINGS

PARIS (AP)—The latest version of the slaye collar looks like an unbound watch spring—only it is gold or silver instead of steel.

INDIANS TAKE UP HUNT FOR CACTUS BUSH FRUIT

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Several hundred families of Papago Indians have migrated into the giant cacti "forests" this summer to harvest the fruit of the cactus bush.

Most families will make three to ten gallons of syrup and smaller quantities of preserves from these fruits, using no sugar in the process.

Trampling Art for Profits

FOR all its virtues, modern industry is entitled to real music—in addition to talking and sound motion pictures, for the price they pay.

HELP SAVE THE ART FROM RUIN. Enroll with millions of others in the Music Defense League. When the public's voice is raised its will must be heard!

The true function of the machine is to increase the value of the product fed into it—not to debase it. Therefore mechanical music is a substitute for Living Music, in a spurious form of progress—like a loom converting good wool into shoddy.

The grind organ, however operated, is a grind organ still. For music is an emotional art, a form of social intercourse, and hence dependent upon human contact.

Who profits by the elimination of genuine music from the theatre? Not the music-loving public!
