MARANVILLE AIDS BOSTON BRAVES

Rabbit Stars in Victory Over Robins — League Leaders have a Bad Day

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

One reason why the Boston Braves are still in the thick of the National league battle is to be found in 180-odd pounds of unadulterated short-stop bearing the imposing name of Walter James Vincent Maranville, otherwise known as "Rabbit." This little baseball ancient, who has spent 18 of his 37 summers playing major league ball, is having one of the best seasons of his long career.

When he was one of the main cogs of Boston's amazing team of 1914 his batting average was only .246 and his mark for his 18 major league years is .262, but this season he is hitting above the .300 mark and is fielding right along with the league's best. When the Braves stepped out yesterday to trounce the league leading Brooklyn Robins, 4 to 1, Maranville merely made two of Boston's nine hits, scored once, handled eight fielding chances without an assist and started three of Boston's four double plays. Wally Berger came through with his 24th circuit blow of the year, gaining a tie with Hack Wilson and Chuck Klein for the National league lead.

Giants Humbled

Completing the National league's day, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia made it a bad day for the first division. The Phillies, with Phil Collins on the mound, humbled the New York Giants 8 to 1.

The Pirates kept the St. Louis Cardinals a game and one-half back of the third place Giants by slamming out a 10 to 3 victory.

Washington continued to lead the American league parade with its ninth straight victory. The Senators, already in first place by several percentage points, beat out the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 5, and finally gained a tie with the Athletics for the top when games are concerned. The world's champions lost a half game by dividing their double header with the New York Yankees. George Walberg proved his sore arm something of a myth against the Yankees in the first game, holding them to three hits for a 4 to 0 triumph. The second contest was something a slugging match with George Pipgras outlasting four Athletic hurlers for a 9 to 4 victory.

Chicago Gains

Chicago's White Sox rose a notch in the American league standings, going from seventh place to sixth as Ted Lyons gave them a 3 to 2 victory over Detroit while the St. Louis Browns were taking a 12 to 6 beating at the hands of the Cleveland Indians. Lyons not only pitched effectively against Detroit but drove in two of the runs with a triple in the second inning.

GOLF INDUCES PROFANITY?

JERSEY CITY, July 9 (AP) — Arch Deacon J. A. McCleary, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, thinks that golf, at least the variety of it played on miniature courses, induces profanity. He expressed his views so effectively that a permit for a miniature course near the church was refused.

SACS WIN FROM STARS AT LAST

First Victory of Season Over Hollywood—Portland Takes it on Chin.

By the Associated Press

The Coast league's first half season winner was still undetermined today as a result of Sacramento's first victory of the season over Hollywood, 5 to 1, last night, which cut the Los Angeles lead to three games.

Hollerson, Star hurler, was knocked out of the box in the seventh, while Vinci went the whole route for the Senators.

The Angels were blanked in the first of their series with Seattle, 6 to 0, as Hubbell held the league leaders to four hits while his team pounded Yerkes and Barfoot, and inserted a double steal as a feature.

Portland Beaten

Jimmy Zinn, San Francisco, leading pitcher in the league in games won, added his fourteenth to the list as the Seals downed Portland, 12 to 6. San Francisco's heavy hitting off Ortman and Chesterfield included homers by Sheely and Baker.

McQuaid, late of the Missions, scored a victory against the Reds for Oakland, 8 to 3, as Johnson, the Missions' new hurler from Santa Rosa, suffered another setback. Huffy's homer in the sixth was the first scoring the Reds could do.

Jury Foreman In Frisco Attacks Dry Law Methods

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9 (AP) — A statement by Dr. James Franklin Smith, foreman of the retiring federal grand jury, attacking dry law enforcement methods in San Francisco, was dismissed Tuesday by William Walker, federal prohibition administrator, as "Just one of those things."

Dr. Smith headed the grand jury which two months ago was taken to task by Federal Judge Kerrigan on complaint of United States Attorney Hatfield, who asserted the inquisitorial body was refusing to indict in certain liquor cases.

The statement said it seemed "impossible" for the prohibition authorities to carry out their program "without finding it necessary to invade the private rights of property holders by trespass."

Minor Cases

Dr. Smith said federal agents sometimes trespassed upon the property of "unwitting" owners to arrest minor offenders and repeatedly presented to the grand jury "a heap of minor cases, and the record of enforcement is thereby gloriously swelled."

A regrettable necessity on the part of the government," said the statement, "seems to be that of forcing its under cover agents to become chronic alcoholics. For these men to consume from 12 to 20 drinks is a daily necessity to hold their jobs. Add to this the fact that some of them are little more than high class morons and it is easy to understand why indictments were not always forthcoming in spite of the insistent demand of the United States attorney."

Dr. Smith stated the jury "endeavored to temper justice with mercy, and maintained their right to judge the credibility of witnesses for the government."

Makes Suggestion

"It might not be malapropos," continued the statement, "to remark that enforcement officers might look into the personnel of their subordinates, at least to the degree of not employing agents whose oath to any secret organization may bias them against any race or creed.

"The Peurile attempt to enforce an unwelcome law on a community seven to one moist is laughable when one thinks of the 'set-up' subject.

"Some time back the coast patrol and the coast guard were removed as unnecessary, and yet the city is flooded with smuggled liquors, XXX liquor and wines of bona fide imported brands were never so cheap here nor of such good quality."

REPRIEVE WILL ALLOW SANITY TEST FOR MAN

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 9 (AP)—Preston Rae Clark, who was to hang here Friday for murder has been granted a week's reprieve by Governer Roland H. Hartley in a telephone conversation with Judge John L. Sharpstein. The reprieve was granted to allow a commission of six doctors to more thoroughly investigate Clark's sanity.

Judge Sharpstein immediately wrote to the governor for official confirmation.

Clark was convicted of poisoning Alpheus Bidwell, attorney here, with the aid of the latter's wife, Bessie Bidwell, in December, 1927. She was convicted of second degree murder and after serving 18 months of a 10 year term, was pronounced insane and sent to Medical Lake.

HE ALWAYS GETS HIS MAN!

PORTLAND, July 9 (AP) — For two years detective Shaylor carried a picture in his pocket.

He looked at a man on a downtown corner. Then he looked at the picture. Then he arrested the man.

Frank J. Audley, who has 23 aliases and whose picture Shaylor carried, now is held in the city jail without bail, charged with two federal indictments involving the theft of autos.

LENHART GIVES NOD

SPOKANE, July 9 (AP)—Fred Lenhart, Spokane, took a close six-round decision over Nate Brown, Philadelphia, here last night. They are light heavyweights. Brown used a stinging left hook to the jaw with good effect, while Lenhart employed a two-fisted offense to both head and body that gave him the edge.

Sailor Denny Lenhart, Portland, knocked out Hal Mullins, Detroit, in the second round of the semi-final.

MEDIL I. WINS DECISION

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 9 (AP)—Joey Medill, Chicago, won a ten-round decision from hard hitting Billy Townsend, Vancouver, B. C., here last night. The fight was fast. Medill kept himself out of the way of Townsend's hefty rights and had an edge in six rounds.

Teacher Recalls Judge's Lesson

EVANSTON, Ill., July 9 (AP)—Police Magistrate Harry H. Porter's latin has become a bit rusty with the passing years. Still, the lessons he learned from Mrs. Ada Townsend in the old Evanston Academy have helped a lot in his career full of habeas corpus and coram nobis and nolla contendere.

The latin teacher came to court to give her former pupil a review. She had parked her automobile without a light.

"Hello, Mrs. Townsend," smiled the justice.

"Why, hello, Harry," said Mrs. Townsend.

The magistrate was perturbed at having to fine "one of the finest teachers I ever had," but his teacher reminded him:

"One of the earliest phrases I ever taught you was 'omnibus justitia.'"

And equal justice to all meant $1 and costs.

Former Catcher On 89th Birthday Recalls Game of Civil War Decade

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—Baseball, says Maj. A. M. Wheeler, who was famous as a catcher nearly 75 years ago, always will remain the American national game.

Major Wheeler, after celebrating his 89th birthday recently, scorned the idea that the game has been weakened by home run orgies, the lively ball, big-score games, and the competition of golf.

He won fame as captain and catcher of the Niagaras in Buffalo just before and after the Civil war. Modern slugfests paled into insignificance when he recalled the time the Niagaras defeated one of the early professional teams, 209 to 10.

Looking back over 72 years of baseball, Major Wheeler said among the first professional outfits were the Brooklyn Atlantic and old Philadelphia Athletic clubs.

These were organized about 1864 and Wheeler's Niagaras downed the Atlantics 17 to 13, the major recalled, in a big game at Buffalo in 1865 or 1866.

Major Wheeler observes that several changes from the old time rules have given the game wider appeal.

Among them he noted are that the pitcher now gets speed through the overhand delivery where formerly he had to toss the ball to the plate, and that the pitcher is now up close to the batter instead of yards back.

The revision which now makes it necessary to throw out a batter at base instead of hitting him with the ball also is beneficial, the major believes.

Lord Burghley To Run In America

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—England's nobleman hurdler, Lord David Burghley, who won the 400 meter hurdles in the 1928 Olympic games, will represent his country in the international meet on Soldier field the night of August 27.

Lord Burghley withheld his entry until after the British championships at London last week. He won the 440-yard low hurdles and the 120 yard high hurdles and decided he still was good enough to make the trip to Canada and the United States.

Yacht Eliminations Continuing Today

NEW PORT, R. I., July 9 (AP) — Charles P. Adams, Secretary of the navy, and George Nichols, son-in-law of J. P. Morgan, the financier, meet today as skippers of the Yankee and the Weetamoe, respectively, in the third day of the official racing for the selection of the defender of the American cup.

Ten years ago in a similar contest Adams sailed the Resolute and Nichols the Vanitie. Resolute won and Adams went out and turned back Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV.

Yesterday's Whirlwind, sailed by Paul Hammond, defeated Yankee, and Harold S. Vanderbilt sailed Enterprise to within 23 seconds of Weetamoe at the finish. Mrs. Hammond was aboard Whirlwind. Today Whirlwind meets Enterprise.

Gus Sonnenberg Defeats Devido

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9 (AP)—Gus Sonnenberg, generally recognized as world's heavyweight wrestling champion, successfully defended his title here last night by making short work of Joe Devido, 250 pound Italian.

Outweighed by fifty pounds, the titleholder pinned his opponent with a flying tackle after 33 minutes of rough and tumble milling, and won the bout by using a body slam successfully ten minutes later.

Two nights ago Sonnenberg wrestled a draw with Ed "Strangler" Lewis in Seattle.

CHEER LIPTON'S YACHT

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., July 9 (AP)—Cheering crowds greeted Sir Thomas Lipton's America cup challenger, the Shamrock V, when she returned to Gosport today flying a string of winning flags extending from top to bottom of her 156 foot mast.

These flags will be hoisted when she sails into New York harbor. The Shamrock V docks tomorrow to be prepared for her voyage to America.

CROSETTI TO BE PURCHASED BY BIG LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9 (AP)—Owners of the San Francisco Seals expect to sell Frank Crosetti, 19-year-old shortstop star, to the big leagues for a fancy figure but they will not let him go during the season, thereby taking chances of weakening the team.

George A. Putnam, secretary, disclosed today he had received a telegram, June 26, from Billy Evans, president of the Cleveland Americans, asking: "What is your proposition on Crosetti for immediate delivery. Could probably give you choice of two shortstops, a second baseman and four pitchers in deal."

Putnam said he had advised Evans that the Seals would not alter their policy of not delivering a player during the season. Eight major league clubs have had scouts trail the young infielder who is hitting at a .332 clip.

YOUNG FIRPO BEATS JACKS IN 4TH ROUND

PORTLAND, Ore., July 9 (AP) — Guido Bardelli, "Young Firpo," Burke, Idaho, added another victim to his string of knockouts when he disposed of Roy Jacks, Omaha, in the fourth round here last night. Jacks, with his long legs and arms and ambidextrous style of fighting puzzled the former miner in the first three rounds, but when he did solve it, he made short work of Mr. Jacks. A knockout punch to the "wind" or solar plexus ended the battle. Firpo weighed 174, Jacks 176.

In the semi-final Millio Milleti, Omaha, and Swede Nelson, Vernonia, middleweights, went six furious rounds to a draw.

Fred Barchus won a four round decision over John Mack after a hard fight. They were welterweights. Roy Morgan knocked out Freddy Welsh in the fourth, and Jimmy Anderson, Astoria, was disqualified in the third round of his bout with Johnny Gray, Los Angeles. Anderson was plainly not in condition.

Don Moe To Defend Title At Chicago

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP)—Don Moe of Portland, Ore., who played sensational golf as a member of the 1930 Walker cup team in England, today decided to defend his title as western amateur champion in the Western Golf Association tournament at Beverly Country club, Chicago, July 21 to 26. Moe also will compete in the national open championships starting at Minneapolis tomorrow.
