

Ruth M'Cormick Defends Expense In Primary Race

CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—Ruth Hanna M'Cormick, epitomized her defense of the expenditure of more than $250,000 to win a senatorial nomination Monday with the statement:

"It may be possible to buy certain elections in this country but you cannot buy Illinois landslides." In the 7000 word statement with which she opened the hearing before the senate campaign funds committee, the republican senatorial nominee added $65,214.10 to the $252,572.30 she had previously admitted was spent in her behalf. But the first quarter million was her own money, she asserted, and the additional sum was expended for her cause by three friendly organizations.

Mrs. M'Cormick's statement criticized Senator Gerald P. Nye, chairman of the special campaign funds committee, for asserting his investigation had found she had spent approximately $325,000 instead of $252,572.30 she had reported.

The republican senatorial nominee said Senator Nye's statement was inaccurate and misleading, based on the fact that she voluntarily had submitted a supplemental report setting forth the spending of the $67,214 before his investigators had inquired into those expenditures.

The $67,214 was used by three organizations and was obtained by contributions from friends and relatives, Mrs. M'Cormick said. The Voters' Progress League used $44,000; the Illinois young people's republican club $15,000, and the Ruth Hanna M'Cormick volunteers $8,214.

Mrs. M'Cormick said the report of expenses was "a document which should be scrutinized by all citizens interested in the problems of campaign expenditures." The report for the first time tells the whole story without any confusing complications either as to source of money, the nature of the disbursements, the exact total expended or as to who spent it. "I hope my report thus will be a contribution to the public effort to understand our primary election system and offer a basis for remedial legislation."

HORNSBY WILL TAKE OLD JOB ABOUT AUG. 1

CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—President William Veeck has taken a final verbal smack at the prophets who have been saying Rogers Hornsby had played his last baseball for the Cubs. "It is improbable Hornsby will be available for regular service when he reports to manager McCarthy a week from Thursday," Veeck said last night. "But we expect him to take over his old job at second base by August 1."

"This ought to end rumors his days with the Cubs are over." Hornsby returned to Chicago yesterday and planned a workout at Wrigley field today. He will rejoin his mates when they return from Philadelphia, July 14.

Fresh Tea

Tea in vacuum!
Just like your coffee!
What a rare discovery when coffee was first packed in vacuum! Just like coffee flavor, tea flavor also evaporates from an ordinary tin or cardboard box. But now tea is packed in vacuum—and what a difference! When you try it you will know what you have missed all these years.
Try Schilling TEA BAGS packed in vacuum. Each bag contains just enough for two hot cups or two iced glasses—the modern way to serve tea.
