Modern High-Speed Tennis Forces Ranking Players to Light Racquet

By Ted Veshburgh (Associated Press Sports Writer)
Light rackets are the rule in this modern era of high-speed, hard-hitting tennis. Only four of the first 20 ranking players in the United States use a racket weighing 14 ounces or more.

The heaviest war-clubs are swung by Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., veteran, who ranks No. 2, and Herbert L. Bowman, New York, No. 17. Both use a 14 1/2 ounce "bat."

Richard N. Williams, 2nd, national singles champion 10 years ago and still good enough to rank eleventh in the country, is next in line with a 14 1/2-ounce racket, Fritz Mercur, No. 6, swings a weapon that weighs just 14 ounces.

John Doeg, No. 3, the most powerfully built of all the ranking tennis players, wields the lightest racket. It is a 13 1/2-ounce club that Doeg smashes his terrific services into court. The late Dr. George King, No. 18, favored a 13-ounce bat as he played his shots with a pronounced wrist-snap.

In general it appears that the players who lay most stress on a driving game use the heaviest rackets, while the volleyers, smashers and cannon-ball servers go in for a lighter weapon as best adapted for fast swinging. Williams, a fine volleyer, is an exception to the rule.

Doeg's racket is quite a bit lighter than that of Mrs. Helen Willis Moody who swings a club which is exactly the same weight as that of Bill Tilden—13 1/2 ounces. This seems to be the most popular weight among the men, but six of the first ten ranking women players use rackets of an even 13 ounces. Little Miss Ethel Burghardt of San Francisco, No. 8, a 5-foot, 110-pound slip of a girl, uses a "fly-swatter" of 12 1/2 ounces, the lightest of all.

Helps 3000 Negro Schools

VOICE GOES AROUND IN INSTANT WORLD IN INSTANT
SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—A voice has traveled around the world in an eighth of a second. The transmission was put on a record to mark the unusual broadcast.

The voice was that of C. D. Wagoner of the General Electric staff. It left Schenectady via WAXAD on 19.63 meters, was relayed by P.H. Hulson, Holland, on 18.88 meters, transmitted by PLW, Bandoeng, Java, on 36.5 meters and returned to Schenectady by 2ME, Sydney, Australia, on 28.5 meters.

Wagoner sort of talked to himself, for his voice came back as an echo, an eighth of second after the words left his mouth.

The distance was 22,900 miles.

Compensator Aids Tone
NEW YORK (AP)—The tone compensator system developed by Julius G. Aceva, New York engineer, will be of value in both transmission and reception of radio signals, tests have shown. The compensator, rights for which have been assigned to Louis G. Parent, permits the accurate tone adjustment of radio apparatus.

Ear Fends Noise Interference
NEW YORK (AP)—Radio engineers have found that the ear will stand for a considerable amount of noise interference, both natural and mechanical, with only a moderate loss of musical or tonal values.

WALLOWA AID HAS OUTING AT SLED SPRINGS

By Edna Renfrow Hunter (Observer Correspondent)
WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. Lewis Carpenter entertained the Presbyterian Ladies Aid in an all-day meeting at the Sled Springs ranger station, 40 miles from Willowa, Wednesday. A party of 29 motored out early in the morning and enjoyed the day in the woods. A chicken dinner was served at noon, followed by the business meeting and a song service. This has been a Willowa event for the past six years and the trip to Sled Springs is looked forward to every summer. Mrs. Weston P. Shields joined the party in Enterprise and was a visiting member.

Mrs. Margaret McDonald was in town Wednesday from Willowa Lake transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cox and son, Red, left Wednesday for Portland to be away several days on business and pleasure.

Mrs. Fred Kiddle, of Island City, and Mrs. J. P. Morelock, of La Grande, motored to Willowa Thursday to spend the day with Mrs. Henry Spence.

Mrs. Pat Ballard, of La Grande, was in Willowa Thursday on her way to Powell to visit her mother, Mrs. Ben McGinnis.

Mrs. Weston P. Shields came down from Enterprise Wednesday evening to spend a few days with Mrs. Susie David.
