

LOCAL BRIEFS

Returned—Mrs. E. Duffey, Mrs. Ora Lapp and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hough and son, Billy, returned home yesterday afternoon from Portland where they spent the weekend visiting relatives and attending the arrival and reception for Lieut. Dean Smith, member of the Byrd expedition, who is now visiting his mother, Mrs. Rhoda Smith, in Portland. They report his arrival very spectacular and wonderful, far more thrilling and interesting than any expected. On May 15, he accompanied the party to Portland, remained in Portland to visit for a while with relatives.

In the Navy—John Zweifel, local boy, who less than a year ago joined the Navy has just returned to San Pedro, Cal., after an all-winter cruise to South America and New York. He passed his examination for second fireman with high grade and he is well pleased with the navy and navy life. He is on board the U. S. S. West Virginia, an electrical ship, and he expects to be home some time next month to spend a short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zweifel.

Friends of Dr. Ida Belle Lewis, formerly of Pochow, China and well known in La Grande, will be interested in knowing that she has recently been made editor of The Chinese Review, an English publication of the Methodist church in China, and has already gone to Shanghai to take up her duties. Dr. Lewis was formerly president of Hwa Nan college, the only college for girls in Southern China, and resigned just before the edit was issued by the government requiring all institutions to have native Chinese at the head of such institutions of learning.

From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. James Bator and daughter and grandson are visiting in La Grande and Union for several days from Portland. Mr. Bator was a resident of Elgin for 40 years and is well acquainted in the valley. In Union he visited a daughter, Mrs. Ed. Chie, and with another daughter, Mrs. Guy McMillan in La Grande.

At the Lake—Miss Jane Ravenscroft is spending a week at Wallowa lake with Miss Alice Cheney and Helen Cross, of Enterprise.

Visited Here—Dr. and Mrs. H. W. McStoy were here guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McPherson the past ten days.

Left Here—Mr. and Mrs. John McNeas and two daughters, Lily and Melba, have left La Grande after visiting here at the home of their uncle, George McNeas and family. They will visit for a few days at Boise, Idaho, before continuing on their way to their home at Orleans, Neb., where they expect to arrive about Aug. 3.

From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Charbonneau, of Seattle, Wash., arrived in La Grande Sunday to spend two weeks visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Charbonneau.

Spent Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tulley and son, Glen, of Wallowa, visited with relatives in La Grande Sunday.

Returned—Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Goss and son, Billy, returned last evening from Lewiston, Idaho, where they spent a few days visiting. They were accompanied on their trip by Mrs. W. R. Parker, a former resident of this city and their daughter, Mildred Goss, who remained in Lewiston to visit for a while longer.

Patients—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrison, of North Powder and Lee Hamilton, of Enterprise, are here for a few days.

Returns—Mrs. M. M. Paris has returned home after spending the past six weeks on a vacation in California.

New Location—The La Grande Investment company has moved its location from the corner building where it has been for the last seven years to the new room, their recent place being leased for three years to a Portland firm, which expects to open business about August 15. The rooms will be remodeled to suit the new occupant's needs, and the new location is expected to be here within a few days to begin arrangements. An opening will be made on Depot street for the Abstract and Title company.

Sinus Operation—Mrs. Saunders, of Richland, who underwent a sinus operation Sunday is remaining in La Grande for a few days.

On Vacation—Mrs. Freda Klopfenstein is stenographer at the offices of Eakin and Hinko during the two week vacation of Mrs. Frank Burk. Miss Klopfenstein is a student at the Oregon State college.

Visiting Here—Mrs. Charles Cochran, sister of George Cochran, prominent attorney of this city is visiting here for several days from her home in Portland.

In Portland—Mrs. Harley Richardson went to Portland Monday where she is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, for a couple of weeks.

To Pendleton—Attorney George T. Cochran was in Pendleton for a few hours Tuesday on legal business.

Visiting Here—Mrs. J. L. Ruby, of Portland, is visiting friends in La Grande after spending a week at Union with her brother, Ben Grout.

From Nebraska—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Broomfield have had as their house guests, Miss Wilma Broomfield and Miss Mildred Meeks, of McCook, Neb. They have made a tour of California coming up the coast to Seattle, then to La Grande and plan to return home through Yellowstone park.

Holding Hearings—Ray Luper, state engineer of Oregon, was in Wallowa county Monday holding a hearing on the Imnaha river water adjudication. Mr. Luper is accompanied by Mrs. Luper. They will stop at Wallowa today for a few days.

From Payette—Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, from 250 Eagles Join In Picnic Event Near Haines, Ore.

A large crowd, members of the Eagles lodge and their families, estimated to number about 250, enjoyed the annual picnic of the organization Sunday at Radium Springs, near Haines. Swimming was the principal diversion, but races, contests and a baseball game were also in evidence. La Grande won the baseball game from Baker 3 to 2. Winners in the other contests were as follows: Boys foot racing; 6 to 8: Lyle Holmes, V. Stace; 2 to 12: Luther Betts, Elmer Seward; girls 6 to 8: Irene Stace and Annette Turn; girls 8 to 12: Irene Stace, Betty Patterson; boys 12 to 16: Elmer Seward, Donald Higgins; girls 12 to 16: Fay Walker, Marie Woolf; free for all boys, Ken Vaught and Ed Patten. The tug of war was won by La Grande; needle threading contest, Mrs. V. C. Harvey, Mrs. Frank Furst; cracker eating contest: Mrs. C. C. Parker, Grace Kellogg; fat man's race: J. W. McCluskey, H. W. Thompson; fat ladies race: Mrs. V. C. Hawley, Mrs. Frank Furst; nail driving contest: Mrs. Frank Furst, Mrs. Frank Anderson; free for all women: Helen Evanson and Grace Kellogg.

La Grande—The theme of the play was carried out effectively by the use of electric lights behind the Wonderland sets and the realistic and unique costumes used. The lighting, stage setting and making of costumes was handled entirely by Normal school students and instructors.

Clarence Hoyer, as the Jackal and prince, created wonders of magic for the unfortunate and foolish Brahmin and succeeded in gaining the youngest daughter, Doris Schultz. The barber, Roger Christison, and his charming wife, Blanche MacPherson, wrought considerable havoc for the Brahmin as did all the animals of the jungle.

Other characters whose acting made the play a success were Winifred Scott, the Brahmin's daughter; Ellen Torrence, the frightful knave; Rosemary Alexander and Vivian Hilyard, daughters of the Brahmin; Beryl Pericho, jeweler; Margaret Young, a naive girl; and the animals of Hindu lore acted by Florence Schultz, Myra and Mary Gunn, Bernice White, Mildred Young and Billy Hesse.

These instructors who co-operated to make this children's play a success were Miss Housh, Miss Williams, Miss Larson, Miss Peterson and Miss Foley.

INCENDIARY FIRES—ROSEBURG, July 23 (AP)—Incendiarism is blamed for eleven fires reported yesterday afternoon to the Douglas county fire patrol. Six fires started on the divide between Myrtle and Days creeks, strung out for a distance of a mile. All were discovered early enough to be controlled without difficulty.

Attorney Accuses Dolores Del Rio

LOS ANGELES, July 23 (AP)—Dolores Del Rio, Mexican film actress, was charged today with wrecking the marital life of Gustav R. Lessing, prominent attorney, by influencing Mrs. Loula C. Lessing to turn against him. The charges were made in an amended answer filed by Lessing in his wife's divorce suit.

Passengers of auto bus lines, the California Automobile association estimates, have increased by 200 per cent in the last seven years.

BOY SCOUTS TO CAMP AT LAKES—(Continued from Page One) has arranged a program for the camp which includes an overnight hike each week, campfires each evening and no morning drills but nature craft will be taught and plenty of opportunities will be given the scouts to pass tests.

First Court of Honor—The first court of honor will be a week from this Saturday night at camp, when a number of local men interested in scouting will be present to officiate. In addition to this program, Mr. Monroe has made provisions for fishing trips and huckleberry parties. Mrs. Riser is the camp cook, who has for the past few months been employed at Hot Lake. More than 500 boys have registered and several more anticipate making applications before Saturday, the last day to register.

A rather extensive nature program has been planned including the study of birds, plants, trees, insects, forest animals, etc. A canteen will be maintained through which purchase of candies and other sweets up to the limit of ten cents a day may be secured.

Visitors day is Sunday, when parents and others interested in the Boy Scouts are invited to drive to the camp, where meals can be furnished for a small charge if notice is given in advance.

Branch Motor Car Damaged By Fire

The La Grande-Joseph branch train has returned to its former method of locomotion, that of a steam train and engine, while repairs are being made in the motor car, which was damaged yesterday morning when a small fire occurred in it. The fire was extinguished almost immediately and it will only be a few days before the motor car is back on its usual run.

Endurance Contest Stopped by Police

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—The endurance contest of Mrs. Emily Young, 40 year old negro and heavy set, has ended.

Mrs. Young took up a position on the sidewalk at East 34th street and South Parkway Saturday with the announced intention of remaining there 90 days, reading and singing.

She carried with her a dozen cans of corned beef and a can opener. She also had a large clothes basket with a fur coat for cover, and there was a trying pan and a small alcohol light. The police stopped the contest. The charge was blocking traffic.
