

PHIL METSCHAN IS NOMINATED

EX GOVERNOR SPEAKER AT TITLE DINNER

Walter M. Pierce Reviews Conditions—Pleads for Good Government.

SALEM SELECTED FOR 1931 MEETING

W. E. Hanson Elected President of Organization—Visitors at Wallowa Lake Today.

Considering the drop in land values and reciting the causes of the change, coupled with a strong plea for an earnest effort to improve conditions, Walter M. Pierce, former governor of Oregon, addressed the annual banquet of the Oregon Title Association at the conclusion of the first day of the convention at the La Grande hotel last night. Mr. Pierce's talk, embracing a number of points, was masterfully delivered and designed—although he admitted it was perhaps of a somewhat pessimistic tone—to create constructive thinking upon certain problems of the day.

During the evening's program, engineered by Ben Weathers, Enterprise postmaster who served as toastmaster, new officers of the association were introduced, although a few were unable to be present. W. E. Hanson, of Salem, was elected president, and the 1931 convention will be held in his home city. Other officers are: R. D. McCall, of Enterprise, first vice president; Arthur R. Wilson, of Klamath Falls, second vice president; Fred E. Raymond, of Portland, third vice president; B. F. Wiley, of La Grande, secretary; T. M. Hicks, of Salem; Harry Fargester, of Roseburg; Mrs. Neal Niven, of Canyon City, and A. A. Bardwell, members of the executive committee.

To seek legislation Business sessions of the convention were brought to an end yesterday with the selection of a convention city. During the day much consideration was given to the question of a city to be presented to the state legislature at its January session. In his talk, Mr. Pierce recalled that land values—at a low ebb in the year 1920—doubled in value on an average of every eight years throughout the nation until the year 1929, when the downward trend began, which has culminated in a 50 per cent drop during the last decade. With this condition in mind, he pointed out that "it behooves us to mix-up a little to learn what the trouble is and to see if it is permanent."

Real Estate Barred The movement toward rural communities to urban centers has been hurried during the last decade, he declared, with less than one-third of the population rural. "The whole nation is no longer doing what they desire a home in the country. . . . That has largely affected your business."

As a result of the change, he stated, that unequal taxation has become a burden of government largely on real estate.

80 Tons Royal Anne Cherries Sent From Cove

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent) COVE, Ore., July 26 (Special)—The cherry picking and packing is progressing splendidly. The cooperative association has shipped out about 80 tons of Royal Anne cherries in 275 boxes. Packing is made very easy with the cherries being poured onto a revolving belt that carries the fruit to the sorters who pick out dirt, dirt, etc. It then reaches the packers who pick out the large cherries in passing to face the boxes and the fruit is then carried to fillers who fill the faced boxes with the cherries at the end of the belt. The filled boxes go to the scales where it is weighed and passed on to the mailers. The boxes are all lined with an apple green paper and the outside bears the stamp of the association. The finished boxes are sent to Union by truck. There is another large packing house owned and operated by Karl J. Stackland that is putting out nearly as much fruit as the association.

Quake Victims Are Comforted By Their King

Victor Emmanuel Visiting Stricken Italian Districts—Relief Work is Continuing.

By Andrea Herding (Associated Press Staff Writer) MELFI, Italy, July 26 (Special)—King Victor Emmanuel arose early today to comfort the earthquake sufferers in his second day of inspection in the regions devastated Wednesday.

The royal train pulled into the nearly-ruined station outside this city at 6 a. m., and the king was vigorously applauded by a large crowd. Forty-five minutes later he left for Melfi proper in an automobile, accompanied by M. Leonil, under-secretary for public works.

He saw scenes of destruction reminding him of war days. Accompanied by Minister of Public Works Crollanzana and Prefect Oriolo of Potenza province, the monarch went through the wrecked town afresh.

Visits Refugees Later he visited the large tent city for refugees on the outskirts, comforting those who had lost relatives in the great disaster.

Relief workers showed the king a fifteen-year-old girl who had just been rescued after having been pinned under a mass of wood and stone of her wrecked home since Wednesday. Her legs were badly crushed but she believed she would live.

Physicians were working frantically to save ten others who had just been extricated from ruins. They were in a grave condition but faint heart a grave condition but faint heart (Continued on Page Five)

Scouts To Open Camp Sunday At Powder Lakes

Thirty-five boys of Union and other camps have enrolled to attend the boys' camp at Lake Annapolis, near north Powder, during the next two weeks, beginning Sunday.

It was announced today by Elmo Staley and Mr. Monroe, camp director, that they may stay only a week, but the majority will remain until camp closes on Aug. 10.

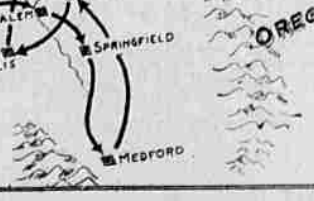

A full program of scouting and camping activities have been arranged, including several hikes—to the Lookout tower, to the beginning of the John Day, etc.—and fishing trips.

W. C. Perkins, of La Grande, is in charge of transportation from here and the boys will leave tomorrow and have their first meal in camp Sunday evening. Mrs. Riser is cook and Mr. Monroe is camp director. They were to go to the camp today.

The boys from Union county to attend are: La Grande—Bob McMillan, Jack Alpaca, Roy Stein, Rex Wall, Frederick Gehring, Ernest Shrimp Reynolds, Davy Lloyd, Elbert Waterburg, Pat Fitzgerald, Jack Eakin, Howard Dixon, Fred Hertzog, Wallace Kaaspeke, Lenn Pierson, Art Ben Beck, Jack McClay and Donald Higgins; North Powder—James Brinton, Jack Metcalf, Wayne Ferguson and Jack Huddleson.

Indians Included In Umatilla Count SALEM, Ore., July 26 (Special)—Judge James Alger Fee, of Pendleton, will not suffer a reduction from $6000 to $5500 in salary due to decreased population of his district. An opinion by Attorney General Van Winkle holds that the 1923 Indians on the Umatilla reservation are legal population under the new census. While this leaves the population of the district comprising Umatilla and Morrow counties, still short of the 1929 census, it is above the 30,000 mark which entitles the circuit judge to a $6000 salary under an act of the 1929 legislature that fixed salaries according to population.

OREGON SHIPPING PORT BENEFITED

Decision Upholds the Columbia Basin Differential Favoring the Rose City.

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—A decision ordering sweeping and general reductions in railroad rates on western grain and grain products was issued last yesterday by the interstate commerce commission. It was worded with particular care to avoid a clash with recent supreme court rulings as to agricultural rate reductions.

The decision among other things, upholds the Columbia Basin differential favoring Portland, Ore., and gives the city rates on 10 per cent below those of Puget Sound ports from points south of the Snake river in Oregon and Washington.

In concluding its case the commission said: "We find the differential in favor of Portland, Ore., and Puget Sound ports but that rates to Longview will be unreasonable and unjustly prejudicial to the extent that they exceed contemporaneous rates (Continued on Page Four)

Wheat Today

CHICAGO, July 26 (Special)—Big buying of corn swung into the corn market today, and whirled quotations upward to decidedly above the topmost point reached heretofore of late.

Weekend profit taking failed to stop the ascent of corn values, the close being at virtually the day's highest level.

A car of No. 1 white corn sold here today at the same price as No. 1 red wheat, the first time in many years that corn and wheat have changed hands in Chicago at identical figures.

Corn closed nervous 1 1/2 to 2 1/2¢ a bushel over yesterday's finish. Wheat closed irregular, varying from 1/2¢ to 1 1/2¢ up. Oats at 1/2¢ decline to 1 1/2¢ gain, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 5¢.

DEMOCRATS PLAN FALL CAMPAIGN

Hope to Obtain Enough Seats in House to Control 72nd Congress.

By Cecil B. Dickson WASHINGTON, July 26 (Special)—Democratic chiefs are planning for an intensive congressional campaign to begin late in August by which they hope to obtain enough seats in the house to give them control in the seventy-second congress.

Formulated at secret conferences between the party leaders here and in New York, the plans entail the raising of funds for drives in 72 districts in border and northern states the democrats hope to win.

The money to be raised is to be used exclusively for the congressional campaign. None of it is to be applied to the $500,000 deficit of the democratic national committee.

Not only do the democratic leaders expect to recapture the 30 seats lost in the 1928 elections, which are normally democratic, but they hope to take over nearly all of the 54 seats that have gone democratic in off-year congressional elections during the past decade. With 23 additional seats to the 30 normally democratic seats they would have a bare majority of 218.

Representative Byrns, of Tennessee, chairman of the democratic congressional campaign committee, is to return to Washington late in August and direct the campaign until the November elections. He has been assured by J. J. Shouse, chairman of the democratic executive committee, and John J. Haas, chairman of the democratic national committee, of close cooperation, both in the campaign and in the raising of funds.

Party in Good Shape Byrns spent several days quietly in Washington with the other chiefs arranging the program. Before departing yesterday for his home in Nashville, he said the party was in the "best shape for a congressional fight than we have been in since 1910."

With the present outlook, he said, the democrats would undoubtedly control the house in the new congress.

GRESHAM AND ROSEBURG IN BAND PROTEST

Word has been received here that the Gresham Ore. band, which participated in class B in the Northwest band tournament in Portland recently, is considering legal action against the Sherman Clay Co. and Jantzen beach. The following appeared in the Gresham paper: "Refusal last week of the judges and music committee representing Sherman Clay & Co., and Jantzen Beach, to honor the contract between themselves and the Gresham band relative to its full participation in the contest and its awards may lead to legal action for redress on the part of the local music organization. Every amicable effort will first be made to meet and adjust the difficulty, however."

Mr. Loney also received a letter from City Attorney Ira B. Riddle, of Roseburg. The Roseburg band is also protesting in class A, along with the La Grande band. The letter said: "I have taken up the matter of protesting the decision of the judges rendered in the band contest held at Gresham on behalf of the Roseburg band and enclose herewith a copy of a letter which I am this day mailing to Sherman Clay Co. protesting the decision. The Roseburg boys will back you up in your protest. If you do not meet and adjust the difficulty, I can be of any assistance to you if you fail to call on us."

NAPLES HOLDS LEAD IN ITALIAN CITIES CENSUS

NAPLES, Italy (Special)—While the United States is fascinated by the study of the growth of her cities in the light of the present census returns, a similar kind of interest in Italy is centered on the race of the two large cities, Naples and Milan.

75,000 Sleep On Lawns, Benches To Escape Heat

NEW YORK, July 26 (Special)—Seventy-five thousand fugitives from New York's newest heat wave took refuge in Central Park last night and slept on lawns and benches.

Despite tempering midweek showers the city was confronted by today another blistering weekend. Yesterday's high was 90 degrees and at 8 o'clock (P. M.) this morning the thermometer started upward from 76 with menacing humidity threatening to make the heat more oppressive than yesterday's.

Three deaths and three prostrations were reported in 24 hours.

CHICAGO, July 26 (Special)—The favorite salutation between acquaintances today was "Whee! Ain't it hot!" and they were absolutely correct.

"It looks," said the weather forecaster, "as if this territory is in for another dose of the same kind of weather it had last week. Maybe it will let up tomorrow night—but remember I said maybe."

The red line in the thermometer got up to 96 before yesterday's sun decided to call it a day, and it was even hotter in the prairie lands of Kansas and other middle western states. Pittsburgh, Kan., had a high of 103, which was the top for that section. Haven, S. D., far to the north, had 100 degrees.

Thunderstorms, quickly over, sent the temperature down ten degrees in 20 minutes last night in Chicago, but it was right back up where it started before midnight.

Four deaths attributed to the heat occurred in Chicago, and there were three in Milwaukee.

HOOPER RETREATS TO MOUNTAIN CAMP

ORANGE, Va., July 26 (Special)—President Hoover today relaxed in the comfort of mountain air that had chilled touch reminiscent of early fall in the lowlands.

Heat and humidity were heavy in the capital he had just quitted. In Washington the temperature had risen to 83 degrees at 9 o'clock with indications it would be near the 100 mark before the day ended.

The president escaped a night in Washington which drove many persons to the fresher air of the parks and kept fans droning wearily in houses and apartments.
