WESTWARD HO PARADE TO BE HELD FRIDAY

PENDLETON, Ore., Aug. 4 (Special)—The Round-up's historic parade, known all over the world as the famous Westward Ho, is to be held on Friday at the round-up this year instead of on Saturday as has been the custom.
The change was made because of the "Over the Hill" feature at the grounds on Saturday. In this pageant feature, Indians and covered wagons come down over the altitude to the round-up grounds. The Westward Ho parade is not held at the grounds but on the streets of Pendleton, which echo to the hoofbeats of horses as the spectacular cavalcade moves on. Westward Ho is a morning parade, at 10 o'clock, and is made up of hundreds of horsemen and Indians. The bucks, squaws, paposes, sumptuously attired in all the glory of buckskin, furs, beads, elk teeth and feathers, are mounted on Indian ponies as gaily caparisoned as their riders.
Cowboys and cowgirls ride in the line of march which is headed by Henry W. Collins, president of the round-up. There are creaking old stage coaches to give an authentic picture of bygone frontier days, and floats showing calf roping, branding and other activities of the western cow-country. Westward Ho is characterized by its wealth of color and is a never-to-be forgotten sight.

23 CHILDREN BURNED
SAO PAULO, Brazil, Aug. 4 (AP)—Twenty-three children were burned, ten of them fatally, after their clothing had caught fire from a motion picture film at a child's show this afternoon.

BUTTERFLIES VISIT LAKE
MEDFORD, Aug. 5 (AP)—Grater lake and the Prospect areas and high hills have been visited by a butterfly horde, blown in by a west wind. The insects of a brown and orange species are swarming the districts, clogging automobile radiators, and slowing up driving. The supply is apparently inexhaustible.

BUYING OREGON PEARS
MEDFORD, Aug. 5 (AP)—Representatives of Willamette valley and Portland canneries were here today to purchase Rogue river Bartlett pears. They had no definite price offers to make, however. A report was that this growers and shippers said was "colossal." Growers contend the lowest acceptable price is $35-$40 a ton.

Picking of the estimated Bartlett year crop of 1500 cars started today in a few orchards. General picking will get under way next week.

HEAT KILLING FISH
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Any envy which may be felt by sweating humans for the fish who spend the long days of heat and drought in coal-looking streams and lakes is misplaced, for the finny ones are dying by the thousands.

Low water levels and high temperatures have decimated game fish in numbers approaching a national disaster and the United States bureau of fisheries fears the brood it is raising at many hatcheries will be doomed to extinction unless relief occurs soon.

EGG MEN PROPOSE CO-OP TO UNITE POULTRY GROUPS
SEATTLE (AP)—Faced with a veritable deluge of powdered eggs in the first six months of 1930, Washington egg producers have proposed a national cooperative.

The cooperative would unite all egg and poultry association to Orient powdered eggs.
Hopes for tariff relief were blasted by the Smoot-Hawley bill, said officials of the Washington cooperative poultry and egg association.

The new act raised duties on shell and frozen products, but did not affect powdered or dried eggs, which they said constitute the greatest menace to the industry.

CALVES NEED WEIGHT? TRY CURIOSITY TEST
AMES, Iowa (AP)—Otto Schouboe of Shelby county, added 50 pounds of weight per head to a carlot of calves by feeding them in a creep before weaning.

The creep pen with the feed trough was placed in the pasture near a watering place where cows came to drink.
The curiosity of the calves did the rest.

Cherry Harvest At Cove, Oregon Now Completed

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)
COVE, Ore. (Special)—The Cove cherries are at last all harvested. The trees are thoroughly stripped of the luscious fruit, the cherries are packed and shipped and the activities that have kept hundreds busy in the orchards and packing houses are at an end. The many outsiders who came in for the harvest have gone to places where other fruits are to be cared for. The co-operative plant shipped 13 1/2 cars or 15,200 boxes of black cherries and 60 tons of Royal Anne's. Karl Stackland, fruit grower and shipper, has sent out 18 cars of black cherries, 12 of them from Cove and six from La Grande and a little more than 20 tons of Royal Anne's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Comstock and small son, of Nampa, Idaho, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Comstock Thursday and Friday. They had been enjoying their vacation, making a tour of the west. They visited at Bend, Seattle, Portland, British Columbia before coming here. They went to La Grande from here, then to Baker and then were on their way to their home at Nampa, Idaho.

The Pioneer picnic will be held in Cove Sunday, August 10 in the Ascension grove. M. L. Carter has charge of the program and as his programs are always interesting, it is hoped there will be a good attendance. Everybody is invited to bring their basket and the Women's club will furnish ice cream and coffee.

Confesses Slaying

Bernard Thompson, 26, of Dorchester, Mass., confessed, police said, to the blackjack slaying of his aunt, Mrs. K. Edith Wight, a private detective, in her Sagaus, Mass., home.

Quite a number of Cove people attended the air circus in La Grande Friday. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fletcher, Chas. Hefty, Mrs. Stewart French, Mrs. Vivian Richards, Mrs. Minnie Somner, Mrs. Cora Bloom and Agnes Ingram. Several of the Cove people availed themselves of the opportunity to "take the air."

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Barker and Miss Dorothy Barker left Friday for a ten days outing at Minam lakes. The Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Cressy, of Pendleton, spent Friday night in Cove at the home of Mrs. A. G. Conklin. Mrs. Cressy returned a few days from Gearhart, Ore., where she attended a summer school for church workers. She then accompanied Mr. Cressy on a trip over the eastern part of the state, visiting the isolated people who live far from churches and have little opportunity to attend services or come in contact with the outside world.

Marjorie Smith, who underwent a mastoid operation about a week ago, is recovering nicely.
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blank, of La Grande, have moved to Cove and expect to make their home here. They lived in Cove many years ago before going to La Grande. Mr. Blank will be janitor of the Cove school house and the gymnasium.

Many of the Cove women are interested in the baby clinic to be held in La Grande, August 13 and 14. Joe Goyette, who lost his house in the late fire here, has purchased the residence belonging to Mrs. Cora De Long, opposite the post office. He had plans all made to build a six-room bungalow on the site of his old house but has purchased this house instead.

Mrs. Earl Robinson, who was at La Grande for an appendix operation, is now at home and nearly recovered.
Mrs. E. B. Comstock will enter St. Vincent's hospital this fall to take a nurse's training.

Mrs. J. W. Houston is entertaining her father, J. D. Broughton, and brother, George, of Roseburg. They have been in Enterprise for a week visiting friends and came to Cove quite recently. The family enjoyed a reunion in Pine Cove Sunday. Among the guests were: J. D. Broughton, George Broughton of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Houston, and daughter, Evelyn, Sheldon Muir, of Cove, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daily and Joe Daily, Jr. of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. H. Albertson, of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kall and two daughters, Roba and Retha, of La Grande.

The Cove library has received a gift of 125 juvenile books from the state library. These were duplicates and so could be spared to the Cove library. Mrs. E. L. Meyers, of La Grande, gave the books generously given a box of 52 books to the Cove library, also.

Mrs. H. C. Rees, of Union, spent several days last week as the guest of Mrs. A. G. Conklin.
Mr. and Mrs. Bennet, of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bennett and son, Jimmy, also of La Grande but late of Enterprise, were visiting in the Cove Sunday evening.

IMBLER PERSONALS

By Lettie Cleaver (Observer Correspondent)
IMBLER, Ore. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Taylor are visiting at the Page home in Imbler. Mrs. Taylor is the grandmother of A. Page.
Mr. Hardy has moved his family to Elgin from Imbler. Mr. Hardy has taken over the city meat market in Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson and children, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mr. Wilson's mother, Mrs. A. E. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Renshaw from Walla Walla spent Sunday at her mother's, Mrs. A. P. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Westenskow have moved from their home in Imbler to La Grande. Mr. Westenskow is working on the new depot at La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson and daughter, Osa, and son, Ralph, returned home from a two months' vacation. They visited Mrs. Hudson's brother and other relatives in Erie, Kan. All enjoyed the trip but report it to be terribly hot in the east.

Ivan Bingham was slightly injured the other day while he was repairing a combine. The jack holding the combine fell over letting the machine down on him. His leg was hurt at the knee and he also suffered a small cut on the head. He is able to carry on his work this week.
Gerald Masters, who has taken poultry raising for his project in vocational agriculture, has been cutting out his chickens. He has sold over 100 roosters, weighing from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds each.

A miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. Otis Geddes (Miss Eva Lammann) last Friday evening at the Union Sunday school hall by Mrs. Frank Stewart and Mrs. O. E. Conklin. The colors pink and white were carried out in the refreshments and garden flowers were used in the decoration of the hall. Many of Mrs. Geddes' friends were present and she received many useful and lovely presents. Verabell Greybeal and Warren McCoy sang a song entitled, "Many and Andy" and "Love's Old Sweet Song" was sung by the guests and the young married people sang, "That Old Gang of Mine." A reading was given by These Lloyd, "Country in Kentucky." A prize was given Mrs. Ray West for guessing the nearest number of beans in a jar. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.

WOOL FROM ONE COUNTY ENOUGH FOR 4,300 SUITS

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Flock-masters of Indiana county have marketed the largest crop of wool ever handled by the association pool.
Representing 282 clips, it totaled 42,516 pounds, and brought pool members 8 cents a pound more than they would have obtained by usual marketing methods.
The wool came from 7,000 sheep and was sufficient to make 4,300 suits of clothes.

LAMBS SOLD BY CO-OP

SPARTA, N. C. (AP)—Sheep raisers here are pleased with the results of a large cooperative sale of spring lambs made by the marketing committee of the Allegheny Sheep Growers' association. For immediate shipment, the docked lambs brought eight cents a pound and the long tailed lambs six and one-half cents.
