SENATORS SPANK YANKEES 6 TO 4

New York Team Comes Back in Second Game, However, to Win 7 to 1

By Otto Robertson
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The Senators today, in the Washington Senators in the American League, the New York Yankees might be up there fighting the Athletics for leadership. As it is, however, the Senators' comeback is a battle in their position, ten games back of the champions and not much chance of catching them as long as they are scheduled to play Walter Johnson's Senators.
The Senators have beat the Yankees in 13 of their 15 meetings this season. The Yankees succeeded in breaking the line yesterday but not until the Senators had won their seventh straight by taking the first of a doubleheader 7 to 4. Babe Ruth hit his first home run but that didn't help much against Walter Johnson's nation's best hurler. Pennock and Johnson's Charlie Buffing was largely responsible for the Yankees' 7 to 1 triumph in the earlier game. He put his team out in front with a home run in the second inning and then let the opposing batsmen down with nine scattered hits and fanned the nine batters.
A's Linnel and Red Sox
The Athletics failed to take advantage of Washington's seventh break today as 4 to 2 game to the Boston Red Sox.
Detroit put over four runs in the eighth to give Earl Whitehill his eighth consecutive victory. The Tigers defeating the Indians 8 to 4. Three of Cleveland's four runs were unearned.
The Giants and Robins furnished another one of their spectacular contests in the National League. Brooklyn finally winning 9 to 8 in ten innings. The Giants trailed 6 to 1 going into the ninth but a five-run rally sent the veteran Adolfo Luque to the showers and tied the score. Two more were added in the tenth but the league leaders fell on Bill Walker for three runs and the game in their half of the frame. Bill Terry was the big gun of the Giants' attack, getting five hits, including a homer, in the ninth, to go into the National League batting leadership.

Cubs Also Win
The Cubs kept pace with the Robins, snaring three runs in the ninth to defeat the Cardinals 5 to 4. Bill Hallahan held the league champions to two hits, one of which was Hack Wilson's thirty-sixth homer, until the ninth when he weakened and was forced to retire in favor of Rhen, who was charged with the defeat.
Fred Frankhouse held the Phillies to six hits as the Braves gave Philadelphia a 6 to 2 defeat.

Lomski, Lenhart Battle to a Draw

STOKANE, Wash., Aug. 6 (AP)—Leo Lomski, Aberdeen assassin today was still a knockout ahead of Fred Lenhart, Elk Wash, with two draws and a knockout in their three meetings.
They found their second draw in the six round main event of an American Legion card last night. In this battle, as in one at Portland a few weeks ago, neither showed superiority. After six rounds of furious fighting both were given three rounds and referee Don Fraser showed no hesitation in calling it even. Lomski knocked Freddie cold here two years ago.

Portland Wins First Game Of Seattle Series

By the Associated Press
San Francisco's Seals and Missions were tied for runner-up position in the Coast League today, only two games behind Hollywood's leaders, as the result of successful openings in the fourth week of the second half season.
The Missions took a close though loosely played game from Los Angeles, 3 to 2, yesterday, with Heru Pillette pitching.
San Francisco went to Hollywood and trounced the Stars easily, 8 to 2, in the first of their important series, as Elmer Jacobs beat the league's top ranking hurler, Turner, on the mound.
Sacramento opened night baseball in Oakland by downing the Oaks, 5 to 4, scoring four runs in the sixth to overcome an Acorn lead and win. Bryan was the winner and Craghead the loser.
Portland Wins
Portland started the all-northwest series by giving Seattle an 11 to 4 drubbing. Keating, ex-Senator, held the Indians in check.

Dickson Hopes To Sign Maxie, Young Stribling

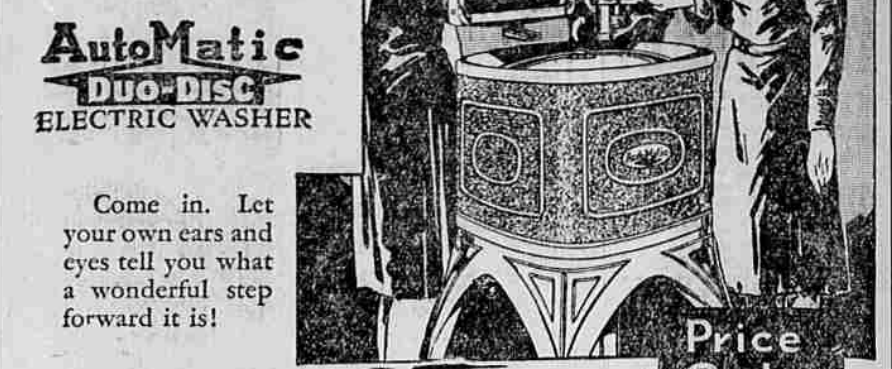

HAVRE, France, Aug. 6 (AP)—A match for the heavyweight championship of the world between Max Schmeling and Young Stribling in Berlin or London is the main purpose of Dickson, Europe's leading boxing promoter, in sailing today for the United States.
Dickson, accompanied by Pa Stribling, the Georgia boxer's father-manager, announced he was going to New York to try to obtain the signature of Joe Jacobs, the German boxer's pilot, to a contract calling for Schmeling to meet Stribling in a 12-round bout in September.
The Striblings are reported to have agreed to a reasonable percentage and the battle now depends upon Jacobs and what demands he may make in behalf of Schmeling.

Advance Sale Of Tickets Lighter Than Expected

By Herbert W. Barker
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Aug. 6 (AP)—The innocent must suffer with the gully as Kid Chocolate and Jack Kid Berg are beginning to discover.
Madison Square Garden officials have been disturbed over the disappointing advance sale of the Chocolate-Berg battle in the Polo grounds tomorrow night. Cash customers have revised their original estimates of the "gate" from $200,000 to $150,000.
Most of the blame for the public's interest in this battle of two of the current boxing era's most popular figures has been placed in some quarters on the epidemic of fouls and generally unsatisfactory endings of most of the big bouts in the last year.
Apparently Chocolate and Berg, neither of whom wins or loses on fouls, will have to share the loss along with the Garden.
The weight question continued to bother the experts, especially since reports have become general Chocolate has been growing fast and has taken on weight so fast he may have trouble keeping down to the featherweight limit should he ever want to go after the title.
The Cuban star's handlers, however, declared Chocolate would tip the beam at little more than 126 pounds at weighing in ceremonies tomorrow afternoon. Berg, who has fought at as high as 141 pounds, will have no trouble making the 134½ pound high contract calls for but probably will be three or four pounds heavier by the time he enters the ring.

SCORE ERROR DISQUALIFIES FORMER CHAMP

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 6 (AP)—An error in the tabulation of his score by his playing partner disqualified Carl Kauffmann, three times champion, from further individual competition today and removed the Pittsburgh squad of which he was a member from team play in the ninth renewal of the annual public links tournament.
Marking a four instead of a five on Kauffmann's card for the ninth hole of the qualifying round by Guy McCall, of Buffalo, was not checked by Kauffmann before the card was turned in and was "wholly unintentional," a committee of the United States Golf Association said. But it disqualified Kauffmann "as no alteration can under rule five be made on the card after it has been returned." Kauffmann had a ragged 83.
Meanwhile, Harry T. Givan, 19-year-old Seattle electrician, appeared as an outstanding contender for the throne vacated by the Pittsburgh steel mill clerk. He had a 73 at the start of the second half of the 36-hole qualifying test today.
In the team play, Brooklyn's four housemen, Fabrizio, Strafaci, Mazza

OLD CRONIES TOGETHER AGAIN

McLarnin, however, appears certain to get the first actual title scrap with Thompson, with New York now bidding against Los Angeles, Detroit and Chicago for the attraction.

Fayetteville (N. C.) blames the home run, instead of praising it, in sizing up the current trials and tribulations of the National game. Says the Fayetteville Observer's baseball writer:
"The short fields, with more grandstand and bleacher space, may be a better proposition for the owners of the clubs, but from the real baseball fan's point of view they would much prefer witnessing some 'old-time' rinning catches and spectacular plays."
"At present the North Carolina Piedmont league is experiencing scant late receipts and night games have been introduced.
"The Raleigh and Henderson clubs are not equipped to play the game at night and they have been threatened with expulsion from the circuit, as the other four clubs are catering to the fans who either work in the afternoon, or have lost interest in what is commonly known as the national game.
"But, if the freak home runs continue to play a major part in the scoring, baseball is apt to lose that favorite sobriquet."
"The National league, with no Babe Ruths, has more home runs to its credit than the junior circuit and the National loop has short playing fields."

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
Since not a great deal can be said for the actual champions of fistiana, some remarks may be set forth in behalf of three "uncrowned kings" of the ring—Kid Chocolate, Jimmy McLarnin, and Young Corbett III.
Chocolate holds a decision over the new ruler of the lightweights, Al Singer, and the general feeling is that he can repeat any time that Al is willing to take him on.
The Cuban flash likewise probably would have little difficulty outpointing the featherweight titholder, Bat Baldino. He can make the feather limit and outclass Baldino as a boxer, but the Keed is not likely to get an early opportunity to demonstrate this. Instead he meets Jackie "Kid" Berg at the Polo grounds August 7.
McLarnin failed in an attempt to win the lightweight crown from Sammy Mandell at a time when Mandell still had something to offer inside the ring.
Since then the Irishman has whipped Young Jack Thompson, the current welterweight champion, and would be a favorite to do so again, any time they can be brought together.
Young Corbett III belongs in a class with McLarnin in this respect. Corbett has beaten Thompson several times and had the negro down for a count of 17½ in their last encounter.
