

Vogel Bringing Fine Bunch Of Lambs to Union

By Mrs. I. Z. Ferrall
(Observer Correspondent)
UNION, Ore. (Special)—Will Vogel and his crew of shepherders have been bringing his band of sheep from the forest range since Sunday and have found it slow moving in the hot weather. Mr. Vogel has one of the finest bands of lambs that he has ever raised, the pasture having been unusually good in the hills. He has about four carloads and unless some unexpected offer comes he will take them east to make a sale. The lambs were all contracted for earlier in the season but because of the low market the contract was broken.

The fire department was called out yesterday to put out a grass fire in the neighborhood of the Union hotel. No damage was done.

The TRADE-MARK

OLD SILVERSMITHS, in order to help people tell pure silver from cheaper imitations, marked the real thing "sterling."

In a like manner, manufacturers, who stand back of their wares, identify them with trade-marks that are your guarantee of quality. By advertising these trade-marks, they focus on their products the searchlight of attention.

Only good goods, fairly priced, can flourish in this light of publicity. For no merchandise and no business can thrive under the weight of public condemnation.

That is why a manufacturer, or a merchant, places the whole reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. His goods must be as advertised.

So, in looking through this paper, remember this: the man who spends his money to invite your consideration of his wares backs up his belief in his goods and leaves the final decision to you.

It pays you to read the advertisements. It pays you to buy advertised products.
