

LOCAL BRIEFS

Baby Daughter—Word was received here last night that a baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Klinghamer, of Cheyenne, Wyo. on Aug. 4. This is their second daughter. Mrs. Klinghamer was formerly Miss Ruby Day, of this city.

Visiting Here—Miss Ruth Campbell-Walker, of Los Angeles, who has been touring the east for the last six months, arrived here last evening by stage for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Pearl. She will be here a week or 10 days.

Minor Accident—Cars driven by Fred King and Dave Steward figured in a minor accident at 4:30 o'clock yesterday on Elm street. No one was hurt.

Fined $1—Melvin Gullenham was fined $1 in city court last night on a charge of not giving the right of way to the city fire apparatus.

Returned Home—After a year spent in the Eastern states, Oregon was a fine sight to Fred C. Wells, retired foreman of the C.-W., who has been visiting in New England. Mr. Wells has returned to his home in La Grande where he lives with his daughter, Mrs. Walter J. Nowland. While east he visited with a daughter in Buffalo and also stopped at New York City, Amersterdam, Schenectady, Lynnhurst, N. J. and West Point. One thing he likes about Oregon, is that although there are hot days, the nights are cool; while in the east, heat reigns for 24 hours each day.

To Portland—J. H. Penre left for Portland last evening. He will be away a few days.

Baby Boy—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Crandall are the parents of a baby boy born Tuesday at the Grande Ronde hospital.

Minor Operation—Mrs. Clara Richards underwent a minor operation yesterday at the Grande Ronde hospital, where she is recovering.

From Summerville—Mrs. Henry Fress Sr., of Summerville, came to La Grande Wednesday to receive treatment for an injured finger.

Visiting in the Mountains—Miss Margaret Dixon is visiting with Miss Mildred Brock at the Brock logging camp about five miles from Meschum for a week. She is expected to return home Sunday.

Returned Home—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds and family have returned home from Portland where they spent several days the first of the week.

From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Oliver and daughter, Margaret, of Seattle, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Russell.

Called East—Mrs. Walter Reuter and Kenneth

McCormick were called to Kansas City last night by the death of their father, A. B. McCormick, after a short illness. Last summer Mr. and Mrs. McCormick were visitors in this city. Mrs. Reuter and Mr. McCormick expect to return in about two weeks.

Left Yesterday—Tom Russell and Gene Metcalf left last night to return to their work in Los Angeles. They are to be accompanied as far as Portland by Mr. Metcalf's mother.

Here Today—Mrs. W. F. Gekeler was in La Grande today on business.

Passed Through—L. J. Cascadden stopped in La Grande yesterday for a short while on his way from Walla Walla to Baker. Mr. Cascadden will return to La Grande Saturday and remain over the weekend.

To Walla Walla—Mrs. Mae Moran and daughters, Besse and Kathryn, Mae L. Ding and Mabel Morton drove to Walla Walla yesterday and witnessed the production of the Freiburg Passion Play. They enjoyed it very much.

Ill—Mrs. W. S. Harer is quite ill at her home at 1707 Cedar street.

Returned—Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp and children returned home Tuesday after spending the past two weeks at Cannon Beach and Seaside. Mr. Bohnenkamp drove to the beach during the past weekend and his family returned with him.

Left for Home—Mrs. Thomas Salkeld, of Chicago, left last evening for her home after spending the past month visiting at the homes of her brothers, Lyle Condit and William Condit. This was Mrs. Salkeld's first trip west and she enjoyed every minute of it. While here she was the inspiration of many happy gatherings and outings planned for her. Most recent were a lovely dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. George Rymerson at the home of Mrs. Ella Rymerson with covers laid for 14 and also a trip to Walla Walla lake last Sunday with a picnic dinner for seven. Mrs. Salkeld hopes to return to this country again sometime, accompanied by her husband.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brooks, of Portland but more recently of Waitsburg, Wash., are visiting with their three children, Gordon, Betty and George, at the home of Mrs. Brooks, sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook. Mrs. Brooks was a resident of La Grande a number of years ago. They are on their way to San Diego to make their home.

Water Scarce—Of interest is the following from a letter written by Wesley Brownson who is now in Washington, D. C. to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Brownson. "We had a little rain this afternoon but of a very short duration. The people in Virginia are pretty badly off on account of the dry weather. In Winchester water is being sold by the bucket full from house to house. Many of the farmers are trying to give their cattle away because they have no water for them. The countryside all around Washington looks very dry and in some places in Virginia they haven't had any rain for over two months, nearly three."

From Ponderosa—Mr. and Mrs. Nick Fallows, of Ponderosa, were weekend visitors in La Grande. They are both former residents of this city.

To Walla Walla—Mrs. G. C. Headley and daughter, Lenore, spent the weekend at Walla Walla visiting their son and brother, Marion Headley. They also attended the "Passion Play" that is being given there this week.

SOCIETY NEWS

Legion Auxiliary Nominates; Baker Drill Team Guest

The meeting of the American Legion auxiliary last night was an important affair with the drill team and members of the Auxiliary from Baker as guests and with nomination for officers the chief order of business. Election will take place in September.

After a street parade of the drill teams and drum corps from both Baker and La Grande, the auxiliary met in the Sacajawea Inn. Mrs. Lillian Showmaker and Mrs. Hazel Graham were nominated for president; Mrs. Ernest Stevens and Mrs. Gertrude Galbraith, for first vice president; Mrs. Bertha Flannery, second vice president; and Mrs. Minnie Parlett, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Showmaker, chairman of the La Grande delegation to the state convention at Baker next weekend, announced that the reservations and travelling arrangements were completed. The following are delegates in addition to Mrs. Rena Palmer, who is a past state president; Mrs. Gertrude Maxam, Mrs. Christina Nelson, Mrs. Mazy Winters, Mrs. Eleanor Carr, Mrs. Ella Koester, Mrs. Olive Eames and Mrs. Esther Hildebrand.

The Stitch and Chatter sewing club meeting has been postponed for the month of August because of the convention. The meeting Sept. 11 will be at the home of Mrs. O. B. Maxam.

Mrs. Erna Fitzgerald won the basket for the attendance prize. The business meeting was followed by a social hour until the legion adjourned, when dancing and refreshments were enjoyed in the ballroom, and the Baker drill team gave an exhibition drill.

Apple Sauce Party Held Wednesday

The girls of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church held an "apple sauce" party yesterday afternoon at the parsonage with Mrs. Hertog as the hostess. Each girl took with her a half gallon fruit jar and a cup of sugar and with apples furnished by members of the church, a great quantity of apple sauce was canned for the next year Epworth League institute at Walla Walla. The girls report a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. McPherson Resigns Position

Mrs. C. F. McPherson, president of the Women's Missionary society of the Central Church of Christ, resigned her office at the meeting of the society yesterday at the home of Mrs. Arno Voez. Mrs. McPherson is leaving in the fall to make her home in Portland. Mrs. Walter Price, vice president, will become president.

Seventeen members and three visitors were in attendance. Mrs. Williams was the leader of the lesson with "In the Temple With one Accord" the subject and Mrs. L. M. Parker, Mrs. Ed Ebell, Mrs. L. R. Purdy and Mrs. A. P. Nelson all taking part in the program. Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman and Mrs. Ona Lapham served refreshments assisting Mrs. Voez as hostess.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, Sept. 3 at the home of Mrs. W. L. Hoyt.

Camp Fire Girls Planning Party

The Gutuzi Camp Fire girls met Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ray Williams. The girls who attended Camp Manakiki gave an interesting program of what they did while at camp. An interesting program of reading was given with selections read by Mrs. Laura Braden, Mrs. Laura Davis and Mrs. Helvey.

La Granders Attend Baker O. S. C. Dance

Diversions of college students during the summer months cover a large variety of activity. With teas, picnics, dances and any form of entertainment that might encourage a high school graduate to attend the sponsoring institution being held.

The annual O. S. C. picnic has been of interest for several years, but was not held this summer, but a delightful meeting of students and alumni of that institution was held recently. Last night several carloads of the younger set drove to Baker to attend a dance sponsored by O. S. C. students.

For its activities during the summer, the University of Oregon organizes a Greater Oregon committee with sub-committees in each town. Lawrence Bay, president of last year's freshmen class at the university, is chairman of the committee for La Grande.

Nebraska Lodge Member Is Guest

One of the lodges that has been holding regular sessions during the summer is the Crystal Rebecca Lodge No. 50 that meets on Wednesday evening each week. Mrs. Lillian Kimmel, noble grand, presided last night at the meeting in the Odd Fellows hall.
