RUFFLED NECKLINES STILL PARIS FAVORITES

PARIS (AP)—Ruffled necklines remain favorites with Parisian women. Smart necklines are frequently outlined with softly gathered or finely tucked width of the dress material.

Even black dresses are treated in this fashion. When a touch of white is desired the white ruffie is newest when placed beneath the black.

WINTER VELVET HATS COPY SUMMER BRIMS

PARIS (AP)—Winter hats which duplicate the lines of summer shade hats in velvet are conspicuous among advance models here.

Shallow crowns and wide brims characterize much of the velvet millinery.

FOOD HABITS—THEN AND NOW

Food knowledge of twenty years ago is as out of date as an automobile, or woman's hat, of that period. Nobody knew much about Vitamins then. The purpose of eating was to satisfy the appetite, with little regard to nourishment of the body.

The homemaker today, in planning the family meals, makes sure to include foods that will supply the Vitamins—particularly Vitamin A, the body builder.

Butter is one of the most accessible and plentiful sources of Vitamin A.
