Fight Against Russian Pulpwood.

Plan Fight McNary told the delegation that if McNary told the delegation that if relief is not assured by the treasury department he would join the Wash-ington congressional delegation in carrying on the flight for the western manufacturers. If relief is not forth-coming at once the lumbermen said a general meeting for the entire northwest probably would be called to start a fight against importation of convict-made materials. McNary Was of the opinion that about $12,600,000 worth of Russian lumber was sent into this country last year, and that there was evidence that it was the product of convict or forced labor. Because of the attitude of the easi-ern manufacturers representative Hawley said he believed that even-tually the issue would have to be CWYHEE PROJECT

NUMBER 300

By the Associated Press The political fate of national fig-ures hung in the balance today as voters of five states went to the polis to choose party nominees for state and federal offices. The veteran Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, faced two oppon-ents for the republican senatorial nomination in a primary intensified in interest by his defection from the republican ranks in 1928, to support Alfred E. Smith, the democratic presi-dential nominee.

republicant rains in 1926, to support Alfred E. Smith, the democratic presi-dential nominee. In Arkansas, Senator Joe T. Robin-son, democratic, linder and 1928 vice presidention candidate, faced primary opposition for the first time in twelve years. If the Appeals to Voters The colorful J. Thomas Heflin, sen-rator from Alabama, was forced to step aside at today's primary by state leaders, leaving the party's senatorial contest in Alabama between John H. Bankhead, of Jasper and Prederick I. Thompson, Mobile publisher. Hef-lin, however, was urging the voters to stay away from the polis today. He will run against the democratic winner as an independent candidate in the November. Is Oklahoma and Ohio, the demo-cratic selected candidates to oppose the republican senatorial incumbents -W. B.
