ization would be ready to open a vigorous campaign for the renomination of the party's nominee to senate and house seats.

He outlined an outstanding issue of the general campaign, President Hoover's administration, the tariff and farm relief. He discounted both prohibition and the world court issue as campaign topics, saying both questions cut too deeply into both parties to become a source of conflict between republicans and democrats.

GET DIVIDED CHECKS

Cants, Peaches, Tomatoes Active In Oregon Mart

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 12 (AP)—Cantaloupes, peaches and tomatoes are the center of activity on the wholesale market. Present offerings of Yakima cantaloupes are probably the finest quality of the season, says a bulletin from the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture.

Pine Trees Don't Grow In The Winter

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pine trees go to "sleep" in the winter when the temperature falls below about 45 degrees Fahrenheit. Sleep of trees is the dormant period when they are leafless.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Outlet for 56's fleece wools appears to be expanding and prices are showing a firmer tendency. Fair quantities of Ohio and similar strictly combing wools of this grade are moving at 30c in the grease. Some houses are refusing bids below 30c on their offerings of 66's. A similar trade is being noted on 58-60's fleeces. Strictly combing Ohio 58-60's is sold ahead of grading at 30c in the grease, by some concerns, and small sales have been closed at 31c in the grease.

Talkies Library of Noises Carefully Indexed Bedlam

Thousands of sounds recorded at their sources have been put in a "noise library" for use whenever a talkie needs one.

He and his staff took microphones to railroad stations, beside babbling brooks, to barnyards, to roofs high above the city.

Now these stored sound effects save endless time and money in picture-making. Formerly a scene might have to be re-taken several times because the clicking of a door-latch would not record properly.

The search for new sounds, Brown has found, is as fascinating as the newspaper's search for news, and very similar. The department's watchword, like the journalists' is "What've you heard today?"

CROP REPORT CAUSES WALL STREET SLUMP

FOREST FIRES RAGING

MENOMINEE, Mich., Aug. 12 (AP)—The thirsty timber of the northland cracked today.

Reports of new danger points came in hourly as flames and timbers in the upper Michigan peninsula and Northern Wisconsin.

An observer in a forest patrol tower 60 miles north of Marquette said that the edge of Menominee but the city was safe unless a strong west wind came up.

In Wisconsin, Indians and whites toiled together to save timber in Ashland, Forest, Bayfield and Langlade counties.

LIGHTNING STARTS FIRES

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 12 (AP)—Generated by the heat of the hot-temperatures of the year, a thunderstorm swept over the Umpqua national forest Monday evening leaving at least 32 fires in its wake. The maximum temperature for the day was 99 degrees.

All fires were small except a blaze between Bogus and Williams Creeks covered 100 acres before being brought under control this morning.

Firemen are being sent to the lightning fires as they are reported by lookouts. They expect to have the situation under control by night.

The Douglas fir patrol reported a small fire on Days creek, on the Myrtle creek divide.
