

DETROIT BEATEN BY BABE AND CO.

Spurt Stopped Temporarily—Cubs Win From Brooklyn Team.

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Almost obscured in the struggles of the mighty around the top positions in the major league standings, the Detroit Tigers have been putting on a spurt that has carried them almost into the first division of the American league. The Tigers are only 1 1/2 games behind the fourth place Cleveland Indians today, despite their inability to cope with the heroic gestures of Babe Ruth in their opening clash with the New York Yankees yesterday.

The Yankees stopped Detroit for a while yesterday but only after Ruth had put on a great performance to win a 0 to 1 decision in a close battle. The Babe clouted his third homer in the third inning with his mascot Jimmy Reese on a base to climax a big Yankee rally, then drove in the winning run in the ninth at the highly crucial moment when there were two out and two strikes on him.

At Toronto Cleveland pitcher Grover and Bill Shores pitched a pair of good games, the Athletics twice trounced Cleveland by 9 to 1 and 7 to 0. Washington held second place a game ahead of the Yankees by scoring four runs off Ted Lyons in the third inning to take a speedy game from the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 4.

The opening of the "crucial" National league series between the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn fulfilled all advance notices in thrills. A pitching duel between Fred Blake and Dizzy Vance highly productive of hits but not of runs, lasted eleven innings before Chicago gained a 3-2 victory and increased its lead to a full game. Two first inning errors by Florence gave the Cubs two runs and forced Brooklyn into an unsuccessful uphill battle in its first effort to regain the lead. It was not until the eleventh the Cubs were able to punch enough hits off Vance to score the crucial run.

Pirates Gain
With New York and Cincinnati idle, the Pittsburgh Pirates registered the big gain in the lower part of the National league standing and the St. Louis Cardinals made a lesser one. The Pirates downed the Phillies in a doubleheader. They had to go 15 innings to win the first game 4 to 3. In the second game, in their half of the inning on three hits after the Phillies had forged ahead, but the second game produced an easy 3 to 1 victory as Glenn Spencer allowed Philadelphia only five hits.

GATHERED SKIRTS BID FOR RECOGNITION
PARIS (AP)—Gathers on skirts are climbing steadily upward. A few daring debutantes whose waistlines need no disguising by dressmakers are expressing originality with dance dresses gathered into a natural waistline. The long gathered skirts fall in limp lines which accentuate tall slender figures.

There are indications that experimentation with the gathered skirts in soft wash fabrics may be widespread next spring.

Shirt Sleeve Fails To Bother The Cubs

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—Dizzy Vance's "shirt sleeve diplomacy" no longer bothers the Cubs. In a doubleheader, the "Dazzler" caused considerable consternation among Cub hitters by shearing the right sleeve of his undershirt to reveal the arched sleeve of his shirt. The Cubs got it miked up with the ball so regularly they fanned and fanned.

Last season, the shirt got so ragged and the strikes went among the Cubs totaled such a staggering figure that Manager Joe McCarthy registered a mild but futile protest.

So this year, the Cubs were told to forget the ragged sleeve and watch the ball. Result: The Cubs have defeated the flatbush pitching ace six times in seven starts.

Mile Mark Made By Oregon Man Given Approval

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 13 (AP)—Bill Hayward, University of Oregon track coach, has received notification from Alvin A. Stagg, chairman of the track and field committee of the national Collegiate Athletic association, the mark established by Ralph Hill, University of Oregon, in a mile race last spring with Rufus Kizer, University of Washington, has been accepted as the world's intercollegiate record. Hill's time was 4:12.4.

Hill's record, Hayward said, was one fifth second better than the former record established by Tabor, of Georgetown, at Cambridge, Mass., in 1912.

Stagg suggested all available data on Hill's run be sent to Dan Farris, secretary-treasurer of the amateur athletic union, in an effort to have the mark recognized as the national mile record.

SAUREZ WHIPS PERLICK; TILT SECOND IN U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (AP)—Justo Suarez, a hard hitting light weight from the Argentine, has made his second appearance in the United States and given the fight fans something to talk about.

Stacking up against the more experienced Herman Perlick of the Kalamazoo, Mich., twin brothers, the rugged South American belted out a ten round decision last night at the Queensboro stadium to the satisfaction of the referee, the two judges and a crowd of 6,600 which paid $9,000 to see if Suarez was as good as he looked when he whipped old Joe Glick in his first appearance here.

The 21-year-old Argentine showed plenty of scrap, forcing the fight from start to finish. At times his blows were wild but when he did connect they hurt. Suarez turned back the Michigan youth even more decisively than did Jackie Berg, the English lightweight and outstanding challenger for Al Singer's crown.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

With all the uproar about over-emphasis of the home run and liveliness of the ball, it is noteworthy that no year in the last ten has produced professional pitching performances as outstanding as those of 1930.

Scarcely a day passes but there is a 1-0 or 2-1 battle of pitchers to offset a 17-15 slugfest. Since the same grade baseball is used in both cases, the charge that it is too lively seems offset by the evidence that the culture of pitching has considerable to do with the matter. Even with second-division clubs, twirlers such as Ted Lyons of the White Sox, Phil Collins of the Phillies, Macfayden of the Red Sox, Harry Seibold of the Braves, Earl Whitehill of the Tigers and Lefty Stewart of the Browns have turned in consistently brilliant work.

Grove and Earnshaw have shouldered more than half of Connie Mack's pitching worries as the A's have moved out in front of the American League pack. It is seldom that a first-stringer like Grove is called on for so much relief work, but the southpaw's speed has proved equal to the dual responsibility.

Clark Vance, Luque and Phelps are four of the main reasons why Brooklyn has fought for and held the advantage in the red-hot National league race.

The Cubs have countered with Root, Bush and Malone, the Giants with Walker, Hubbell and Fitzsimmons. The outcome of the race very likely will hinge on which of these combinations is best able to stand the gaff through August and September.

In the days of Tommy Hitchcock's "youth," America had only one international No. 2 player. His name was Hitchcock and no substitute was needed, barring mishap. Now that the Yankee captain is a veteran in his early thirties and has moved back to the more strategic No. 3 post, the chief problem in forming the 1930 "Big Four" is in locating a suitable No. 2. Inevitably, candidates are measured by the Hitchcock standard and found somewhat wanting.

All things considered, Winston Guest probably is the best No. 2 now in American polo but he has been playing, and improving, as a back, with the support of Hitchcock at No. 3. Up front, Eric Pedley, the square-jawed Californian who is built like a 1.

In the race for the job at No. 2, Elmer Boescke, Jr., of California, Cecil Smith of Texas and Detroit, Earle A. S. Hopping of New York stand out as the leading contenders.

Smith, say the closest to the game, possesses natural polo playing ability second only to Hitchcock. A former cowboy, the broad-shouldered Texan rides easily and hits with unusual crispness.

Hopping, if he recovers satisfactorily from a bad fall two weeks ago, will be a difficult man to keep off the team. Like Boescke, Earle can fit in either at No. 2 or back, depending on whether Guest is again shifted.
