PERRY PERSONALS

By Mrs. Mary B. Kail (Observer Correspondent)

PERRY, Ore. (Special) — Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wright during the last week were Mrs. J. R. Fletcher and her niece, Miss Alice Fletcher, of Cove.

Miss Iola Robertson, who married Obyrtt Cadden last Friday at Baker, is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robertson of this community.

Mrs. E. C. Kelly has moved to Perry from Kamela. Mrs. Kelly is attending E. O. Normal school this summer. Her niece, Estella Lyell, and nephew, Jack Horstman, are living with her while her husband is away at work.

Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Carman had as their guests the last weekend their son, who is employed at Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robertson have had as their guests the last week Mrs. Robertson's sister, Mrs. A. E. Bock and Mrs. A. T. Stevens, of Portland. They left for home Wednesday.

Mrs. J. H. Booher, who has been ill for several weeks is not improving so rapidly. She has had to return to the Grande Ronde hospital.

Miss Lorraine Smith recently returned from a trip to Pendleton.

Mrs. Emma Morrison, who recently sold her home here, has gone to North Powder to make her home.

Mrs. Calvin Wright, of Perry, and her mother, Mrs. Carl Haag, of Cove, motored to Freewater and visited over the weekend with their sister and daughter, Mrs. Carl Burdick.

Mr. and Mrs. Shell Perry, of La Grande, were visiting friends in this community one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Peterson and children recently visited relatives at Kamela.

Miss Verda Mae Morris has returned home after having spent the last week with friends in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bond recently visited relatives in the Grande Hall district.

At a special meeting of the Perry school board, P. V. Carman was elected to take the place made vacant by the resignation of W. W. Holden.

Very few congressmen seek smart summer resorts. They take to the woods—or else go home.

Vice President Curtis, however, will fly into the polo and regard the atmosphere of Newport as guest of Mrs. George Mesta.

The vice president has become quite a social lion, hostesses having angled for him all winter so that he could spend an evening for the home comforts he loves.

Senator Borah is anxious to return to his Idaho home, but by doctor's orders is spending a month in Maine first.

Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary have gone to their ranch, "Pirouette," in Oregon, where the smell of the pines will supplant the heat of Washington.

Cool climate has lured Senator and Mrs. Tasker Oddie, too. They are taking a tour of Alaska before going to their home in Reno, Nevada.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Stimson are headed for the Maine woods and Attorney General and Mrs. Mitchell, with their boys, soon will seek the Minnesota woods.

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde is making a speaking tour of the west, but his daughter, Caroline, much detested since coming to Washington, is visiting friends in Trenton, Missouri.

Officials Shun Smart Resorts, Capital Chiefs Take to Woods

By Sue McNamara (Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cabinet officers, members of congress and their families are hurrying homeward now that congress has adjourned. There they can take off their collars, seek relief from the heat on their own front porches.

Very few congressmen seek smart summer resorts. They take to the woods—or else go home.

Highway Oiling Operations Near Kamela, Oregon

By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg (Observer Correspondent)

KAMELA, Ore. (Special) — Oiling operations are under way on the highway close to Kamela now and soon it will be completed as far down the hill as Glover. The highway on Glover flat which was closed while it was being worked over is now open to traffic. Much work is being done now between there and Eye Pointe on the station with the steam shovel at work on the bluffs overlooking the river.

Kamela people are beginning to feel assured that the danger of a water shortage here this summer is over. As yet there has been a good supply and now the worst of the hot weather is apparently over and more rain is held likely. An electric storm Monday afternoon brought several heavy rain showers and some hail. It is much cooler now during the day and the nights are quite cold.

A very enjoyable community party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hawes was given at the F. P. Brookes home Friday evening with almost everyone in Kamela attending. Mr. and Mrs. Hawes have moved to the M. Booth ranch near Meacham after a two-year stay here. They have been active in all community affairs and will be missed by all. They were presented by Mrs. F. P. Brookes, on behalf of the community, with a set of kitchen utensils. To begin the evening, cards were enjoyed, both pinocle and "809" being played. Mrs. G. Eimas held high score for "809" and H. Castiel low. Pinocle winners were Mrs. C. O. Schubert and Mrs. R. Riggs and those receiving consolation prizes were Mrs. M. Brooms and Mrs. J. Clouston. After refreshments were served singing, music and dancing ended the pleasant evening.

On Saturday the R. Hawes children were honor guests at a community picnic at Spring creek about a mile back of Kamela. Even little Frances Hawes, who is an invalid, enjoyed the day. The children played games until they were tired and were then served punch, sandwiches and cake before returning home. Mrs. A. Kennison and Mrs. R. Riggs and Tom, Maude Brooks of Meacham, Helen Carlson, of Yakima, Dortha McCourey and John Larson, of La Grande, were also guests.

Virginia Wigglesworth returned to her home here last Saturday after spending most of the summer in Wallowa county with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Carlson and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. J. Carlson and son, John, drove from their homes in Yakima Saturday to visit Mrs. J. Carlson's husband, Engineer Carlson here. They returned Sunday. They say the early peaches have all been picked in Yakima and preparations are being made for picking the late crop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lane and daughter, Helen Mae, arrived home Sunday evening after an enjoyable camping trip near Lehman Springs. Mr. Lane, who has been sick, has improved considerably.

Mrs. R. Riggs acted as an extra helper in Kamela store Friday.

Practically all the Indians have now left the encampment on Johnson creek.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barnes spent a short time shopping in La Grande Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thornburg and son, Ian, and their house guests, Finlay Gordon and Gordon Haskett, were La Grande visitors Saturday.

John Larson, who spent most of the summer at the R. Hawes home here, returned to La Grande Saturday accompanied by his cousin, John and Warren Hawes, who will visit in La Grande for a short time before joining the rest of the family in their new home at Meacham.

Guests Sunday at the P. Biever home here were J. J. Gavin, of Seattle, and his sister, Mrs. Charles Gunn, of La Grande. Mr. Gavin, who is a former railroader and has many friends here, had been visiting relatives and friends in La Grande. With his sister he was on the way to Eugene to visit another sister before returning to Seattle.

Mrs. E. Chelf and granddaughter, Betty Barnes and Arva Dyer, left for Portland Sunday evening. Miss Dyer makes her home in Portland with her aunt, Mrs. D. Blackburn. She has been spending the summer in Kamela with her aunt, Mrs. F. R. Barnes. She will remain in Portland for school but Mrs. Chelf and Miss Barnes will return here after a short visit.

Dortha McCourey, of La Grande, is in Kamela at present visiting friends here. Miss McCourey is a former Kamela resident.

Mrs. A. Lockett and son, Jimmie, are Portland visitors this week from Kamela.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kennison and family, of Meacham, were at Kamela Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Horstman, of Kamela, returned from the Union Pacific meet at Ogden, Utah, Monday morning. They report a very enjoyable trip, spending one day in Salt Lake City before returning.

Mrs. C. O. Schubert and daughter,

Fess, New G. O. P. Captain, Prefers The Homely Hoe To The Golf Club

WASHINGTON (AP) — A mild-mannered man of the old fashioned school of teachers, who likes the feel of a hoe handle better than a miblick, is the new director general of the republican party.

Simon D. Fess, born to extreme poverty and schooled in the privation which is the traditional training camp for American success, has risen to the chairmanship of the republican party by dint of extraordinary labor and loyalty to his party.

He has been a stalwart since the gold standard days of McKinley.

The professor-legislator from Yellow Springs, Ohio, is strikingly different in type from the old-time political leader. He is the antithesis of the "granite-jawed, thick-necked boss with his black cigar in tobacco stained teeth" of popular fancy not so many years ago.

Fess does not smoke, never touches liquor, is an indifferent theatergoer and never has felt the lure of the golf links.

His elder sister, who reared him, said: "Sunny never went to the barn dances but whenever there was a spelling bee he was right there."

His colleagues in the senate say he is a "horse for work." Reading, gardening and walking are his diversions. He is said to be one of the best informed men in the country on the life of Lincoln.

He is the first republican chairman from Ohio since Mark Hanna.

He is a Methodist, a Y. M. C. A. worker and was superintendent of a Sunday school at Ada, Ohio, for many years.

He is a thirty-third degree Mason, a Knight of Pythias and an honorary member of the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs.

LEAVES 11 CATS, 7 DOGS AT JAPANESE PALACE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Charles Burnett, an American woman who organized the Japanese Humane society, left seven dogs and 11 cats at the imperial palace in Tokio when she returned to this country.

Knowing her love for animals, the Japanese were constantly making Mrs. Burnett gifts of prize canines and tabbies.

It was through her friendship with Baroness Takeko Kujio, sister of the present Empress Dowager, that Mrs. Burnett was able to do so much rescue work for Japanese animals. The Baroness gave her support to the project.

ASIAN SOCIAL QUESTIONS WOMEN'S CONGRESS OPICS

GENEVA (AP) — An all-Asia women's conference, for the discussion of social questions, will be held in India next winter, the International Labor Office states.

Lahore has been tentatively chosen as the meeting place, and invitations have been sent to women of 30 Asiatic countries.

The qualities and defects of Oriental civilization, and their relation to motherhood, the child, the joint family, education, labor conditions, arts and crafts, and the spiritual life will be discussed.

PUNCHED OUT OF SADDLE, JOCKEY BECOMES STARTER

CHICAGO (AP) — Harry Morrissey, starter at the Hawthorne race track, was punched out of the saddle into the starter's role. It was in 1899 at Hawthorne.

Harry complained of a judge's decision on a nose finish, and Ed. Corrigan, Harry's boss, hit him in the jaw. Harry said he then decided to seek less violent work.
