Giants Now Three Games Behind Leaders—Athletics are Beaten.

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)
The struggle for first place in the National League between the champion Chicago Cubs and the aspiring New York Giants is back where it started, but the Cubs cannot lose the lead in the current series with a Chicago square the series with a 12 to 4 triumph yesterday. Defeat left the Giants three games behind the leaders with only two more to play in Chicago. The climax came when Gabby Hartnett clouted his 27th home run of the year with the bases full in the eighth. Charley Root fanned six Giants.

So far as second place was concerned, the defeat cost the Giants nothing. For the Brooklyn Robins took their fifth straight defeat from the Cincinnati Reds, 4 to 1, and dropped to 4 1/2 games behind first place and only 3 1/2 ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals.

St. Louis Gains
St. Louis gained a game by coming from behind to beat the Phillies, 10 to 8, after giving away a five run lead.

Timely hitting against Tom Zachary, much of it done by Pie Traynor, gave the Pirates a 10 to 3 victory over the Boston Braves. Traynor's three hits drove in four runs.

The American league games produced no gains or losses among the leaders as the holders of the first three places in the standing were defeated. But it brought the champion Philadelphia Athletics one game nearer the end of the season without reducing their 8 1/2 game lead.

Athletics Beaten
The Athletics took a 7 to 1 trouncing from the Detroit Tigers as Vic Sorrell held them to seven hits and fanned seven. The first three outs pounded George Earnshaw for all the runs in the first five innings. But at the same time, the St. Louis Browns took a ten inning decision over Washington by a 4 to 3 count and the Cleveland Indians ran their string of victories to seven by defeating the New York Yankees, 5 to 4.

The Chicago White Sox defeated the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 4. Ted Lyons turned in his 18th victory of the season.

NORMAN JESSE WILL TRY FOR GRID POSITION

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Aug. 22 (Special)
Back positions on the University of Oregon football team will have plenty of aspirants, beefy ones, this fall when Dr. C. W. Spears sends out his first call for practice on September 13.

Among the nine men who are expected to report at that time is Norman Jesse of La Grande, 200-pound veteran who earned his letter at tackle last fall under Capt. John J. McEwan. Jesse has had two years of varsity experience, but gained his letter only last year.

He will have plenty of competition when practice starts. Austin Colbert, all-coast tackle, has been shifted to guard, leaving a vacancy which will be eagerly fought for. Colbert's running mate, George Christensen, will be back on the job again for his third year, so there will be eight men fighting for a chance at the one position.

Reveille Jesse there will be a two-year letterman, Marion Hall of Helix, Henry Hayden of Pendleton, and Ralph Bates of Portland, the latter two one-year veterans. Three men will be on hand from the freshman team, Bill Morgan, 200-pound Medford star, Carson Matthews, 218, and Hut Johnson, 185. Joe Janna, transfer, 229, is also expected back. Johnson and Hayden are the only tackle aspirants who weigh less than 200 pounds so Oregon will be well equipped with beef this fall. Weight fits in well with Dr. Spears' line plans, since his Minnesota eleven have always featured powerful lines and power attack plays.

McDONALD EASY WINNER

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 23 (AP)—Hector McDonald, 135 1/2 pounds, of Vancouver, B. C., continued to rank as a winner in Southern California rings today following his easy ten round victory over Portuguese Teddy Palacios, Los Angeles, here last night.

McDonald, favored to win easily, went nearly every round. Palacios was down for a six-count in the record. The fight was fast throughout.

YACHT TRIAL POSTPONED

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 23 (AP)—Today's scheduled trial race between the yachts Enterprise, Yankee, Wollamie and Whirlwind to determine which will defend the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger Shamrock V were postponed because of heavy weather. It was the second consecutive day that a postponement was ordered.

Angels Within A Game of The League Leaders

By the Associated Press
Baseball men were today looking for a break in the Pacific coast league to determine whether the Hollywood Stars, leaders, will maintain their top position. With Los Angeles trailing one game behind the Stars, the Angels were within easy shooting distance of tying the leaders, while San Francisco, by winning the remainder of its games, could, if the two top teams lose a couple, land near the top.

Frank Shellenbach, Hollywood veteran spitballer, stepped forth in the pinches last night and held Oakland to three runs, while his team mates overwhelmed the Oaks 13 to 3. Although the Oaks had the bases full in three innings, they were unable to connect for runs.

Seattle and San Francisco made eleven hits yesterday, but the Seals took the ball game, 6 to 4. Jimmy Zinn chalked up his twentieth victory of this game.

The Sacramento Senators defeated the San Francisco Missions, 3 to 1 last night, thereby tying the Reds and the Oaks for fourth place in the league. The Solons have won three of the four games played with the Missions.

Los Angeles defeated Portland, 7 to 4, with Byri Horne, midget pitcher for the Angels, striking out eleven Portland players. Schulmerich and Jacobs for the Angels and Williams for the Ducks hit homers.

NEW ORLEANS, LONG BEACH IN WEST FINALS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 23 (AP)—The boys' baseball championship of the western half of the United States will be determined here today.

Teams from New Orleans and Long Beach, Cal., meet in the final game of the American Legion regional junior tournament after having defeated everything in their states districts and the region so far.

The winners of today's game goes to Memphis, Tenn., to play the championship team of the eastern half in the junior world's series.

Long Beach yesterday went to the final game by taking an easy 14 to 1 victory from Enderlin, N. D., aided materially by numerous errors of the mid-westerners. New Orleans fought an uphill battle for 11 innings to beat Salina, Kan., 7 to 6. A rally in the ninth netted three runs, and tied the score after Salina appeared the certain winner.

Reveille Boy Is Derby Favorite

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 23 (AP)—America's premier jockey, Earl Sande, and Reveille Boy, winner of the American derby at Washington park at odds of 50 to 1, was the favorite combination today in the $3000 added governor's derby, the big event of the Illinois state fair racing program.

Sande came to Springfield yesterday by airplane from New York to ride the fractious three year old which last June surprised by winning a $50,000 feature for his owner, Charles Best, the former Memphis, Tenn., grocery proprietor.

Against the Earl and his mount were arrayed Billy Champ, Jean Little, Petiah, Blind Love, Lady Sting, Stop Gap, Candy Rose, Marie Stevens and King Pin.

Campbell has won his last fourteen fights by knockouts and in thirty-six bouts lost only three, with three draws.

Tennis Tourney Finals Will Be Played Sunday

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—The finals of the women's national tennis championships, scheduled this afternoon at Forest Hills, were postponed until tomorrow because of rain.

England has a representative in the final round of the American women's national tennis championship today for the fourth time in six years with no Helen Wills to beat for the title.

Betty Nuthall, blonde and blue-eyed youngster from Great Britain, marched into the final round yesterday with victory over Marjorie Morrill, of Dedham, Mass. Between her and the crown relinquished without a fight by Helen Wills Moody stands Mrs. Anna Harper, of San Francisco, No. 5 in the American ranking. Mrs. Harper who brushed aside Maude Rosenbaum Levi of Italy, was decided by an under-dog in her final round match with Miss Nuthall.

Both single finalists also reached the final round in doubles.

Boy, 14, Victor In Trapshooting Championships

VAANDALIA, O., Aug. 23 (AP)—A 14-year-old boy whose iron nerve held steady while his veteran competitors faltered has upset the trapshooting world.

The boy, Alfred Rufus King Jr., of Wichita Falls, won the grand American handicap, the greatest honor in trapshooting, here yesterday from a field of 996 of the country's best marksmen.

Young King not only finished with one of the four best scores in the large field, but unperturbed by the crowd of 8000 spectators out-hot three 75 more experienced marksmen in the shoot-off of the tie for the championship.

King and three middle-aged Ohioans, J. I. Scott, and Dan Casey, of Toledo, and Lawrence H. Crampton, of Dayton, finished with 97 out of 75 possible 100 targets to top the field. This youngster broke 24 of 25 possible targets in the shoot-off while the three men were unable to keep up the pace.

It was the first time in 31 years of tournaments that a boy won the championship, and young King has been shooting only two years. He shot from scratch in the 10-yard line, Casey from 17, Scott from 18 and Crampton from 21.

Mrs. George Peter of Phoenix, Ariz., won the women's championship by breaking 83 targets from the 17-yard mark.

Men Doubt That Women Should See Games Alone

By Ruth Baldwin Cowan
CHICAGO, Aug. 23 (AP)—There is a new sort of sex war being waged at this end of Lake Michigan. It is over whether women know enough to be allowed alone at baseball games.

It all started because William Wrigley Jr., owner of the Cubs, has seen fit to hand out 17,500 free tickets to women every Friday.

The men aren't going for the idea at all. Judging from the letters they are writing to the Express-Youself columns in the Chicago daily newspapers. But the women are handing it right back—and are continuing to pack the two top tiers especially reserved for them in the grandstand at Wrigley Field.

Enthusiastic fans. Wrigley set out to promote interest among women in baseball. Today the women are the most enthusiastic fans in the grandstand. They cheer lustily, clap and stamp their feet. The men say they sneer and applaud whether the home team scores a home run or bats out.

Every age of woman from high school girls to grandmothers can be found in the crowd. Down in front at the Chicago Cubs-New York Giants game yesterday sat a gray-haired old woman peering through her spectacles and holding a false tooth in her hand. She cheered with the others. Nearby was a woman with a tired old young face forgetting for the moment that perhaps all was not well next to her when she was in a flowered chignon, yelling loud or than anyone in her neighborhood.

Some bring lunches. And despite no male escorts for entertainment or interpreters, the women are having a very good time and did not seem confused. They drank pop, munching peanuts and ate sandwiches. Some had brought their lunches.

As for understanding what it is all about—which the men claim they don't—well, every woman questioned said she knew exactly what was happening.

And an usher was overheard to ask a woman who was pitching.

"The Big House" Showing at State Sunday

Strange escapes from prison were gone over in police records and history to determine the correct operation of a prison escape in "The Big House" Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's drama of penitentiary revolt which will open Sunday at the State theater. It was disclosed by Wallace Berry, who has the part of Butch, a hardened criminal.

No less than eighteen escapes were investigated in detail from the records," stated Berry. "George Hill, the director, Frances Marion, author, Chester Morris, Robert Montgomery and I held a two day's conference, each voting on his favorite method to determine how Chester was to break jail."

As in most of Berry's roles, the actor's powerful physique was instrumental in getting him his part in "The Big House," although his talent for looking the "stiff" was also an asset in this instance. So far as Berry is concerned beauty would only be a hindrance to his screen success. He is quite content to look as ferocious and frightful as a part demands.

Others who have prominent roles in the picture are Lella Hyams, Lewis Stone, George F. Marion, Karl Dane and J. C. Nugent.

Because Texans are spending $200,000,000 annually on out-of-state vacations, a "See Texas First" campaign is being started.

There are 102 Italian cinemas equipped for sound films.

The earth-dog, believed extinct in Hungary, has reappeared.

Forty-one Danish theaters have been wired for sound films.

Sweden has 86 theaters equipped for sound films.

One of the latest observations of the late Tex Rickard on the subject of heavyweights was a prediction that young W. L. Stribling some day would become the champion of the world.

Shortly afterward, in the first Battle of the Leaning Palms at Miami Beach, Stribling put on an exhibition against Jack Sharkey that fell considerably short of establishing Rickard as prophetic. It has taken nearly two years more, in fact, for Stribling to quit pushing over tank town Joe Palooka.

Young Mr. Stribling has not inserted himself right out in public as the "man to beat" before any heavyweight championship claims are definitely staked. As a matter of fact, Stribling's latest brace of clean-cut performances against Von Forna and Scott by contrast with the fouls and flops featuring the activities of other heavyweights, gives him a more substantial claim to recognition than either Schmeling or Sharkey.

Negotiations have been afoot for Sharkey or some equally able-bodied pugilist to dispose of the Carnera person, in some such place as Chicago, convenient to a large body of water such as Lake Michigan. Plans also have proceeded on the theory that Stribling will be the star actor in the next and third Battle of the Leaning Palms next February in Miami.

If possible, the master minds of Madison Square Garden first would like to have Stribling "show at his best" in New York. Around the Big Town, the idea has long persisted that Willie the Strip is a "bust." This idea has been based on several very sour exhibitions by the pride of Macon in metropolitan rings.

A convincing display of his recently demonstrated knockout powers, for the benefit of those skeptics, would be expected to stimulate the rush of fistie customers to the vicinity of Miami.

Stribling is entitled to applause from the fistie populace for effectively finishing a job that Sharkey failed to do—the elimination of Phil Scott.

Britons who thought American critics were a trifle harsh on Phil Scott in connection with the Miami fiasco now have become even harsher, to judge from this dispatch in the London Daily Express:

"There is a growing feeling in (British) sporting circles that Phil Scott should retire at once and give up his title of British heavyweight champion."

"In spite of his humiliating defeat at the hands of Stribling, he still remains British champion, and already there is talk of matching him for another fight."

"Boxing enthusiasts say that the only blows which Scott delivered at Wimbledon were knockout blows at British prestige."

"He certainly entered the ring ungit and he gave every appearance of having no heart for a fight."
