IVORY FAILE FROCK COULD STAND ALONE—PARIS (AP)—There are skirts that could stand alone among the picture frocks designed with dancing debutantes in mind. One of the dance dresses of stiff silk which is sure to be ordered by debutantes is an ivory faile model with a wide ruching around the wide hem. The dress has an old-fashioned fitted bodice tied with a wide sash and splashing bow of emerald green velvet.

NECKLINES COMPLICATED BY VESTIGES OF COLLARS—PARIS (AP)—Necklines have forgotten how to be simple at many of the dressmaking houses which will influence winter styles. Cape collars have largely disappeared but a vestige of them remains in the form of narrow collars which outline necklines. More often than not the collar is confined to the front of the dress in modified bib effect.

CHIC DRESSMAKER IS OWN MANNEQUIN—PARIS (AP)—There are a few dressmakers whose own selection of clothes is eagerly watched at openings as indicative of what the well dressed Parisienne will wear. Paul Poiret's half-sister, Mme. Nicole Groult, is one of them. At the winter opening of her house she wore a soft turquoise blue crepe de chine tunic blouse with a

NEW FOREST STATION—CODEN, Utah (AP)—A new forest and range experiment station is to be here soon to serve the inter-mountain region.

CINDERELLA IN THE TOWNS—COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—City women have smaller feet than rural women, a survey of 1,000 patrons of a shoe store here indicates.

HATS TAKE FASHION BY THE FORELOCK—PARIS (AP)—A woman may be shallow where her autumn hat crown is concerned. The accepted autumn headgear—accepted by the foremost Parisiennes—perches atop the head exposing the entire face and part of the cherished marcel. If the brim turns downward, as it is apt to do, the effect is reminiscent of the poke bonnet of 1830.

"A straight line is the shortest distance ..."

YOU need a flashlight or an alarm clock. That's one point in a common geometrical problem. Somewhere a manufacturer is making, a store is offering for sale, exactly the flashlight or alarm clock you should have. That's the second point in your private problem . . . And advertising is the straight line that shows the shortest distance between the two!

Day after day, in the advertising pages, you'll find straight lines drawn direct to the products you need. Look for them. Follow them. They may save you hours of searching.

And more than time, they'll save you money. Advertised products are those whose honest worth has made them popular. Merchants and manufacturers who advertise regularly have passed the public's test of fair dealing and reliability. By studying their announcements in the light of your own needs, you can buy most wisely and well.

Gale DeLay Is Buried Sunday At Union, Ore.

By Mrs. L. Z. Ferrall (Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Gale DeLay, daughter of Guy DeLay, of the Silverton High school teaching staff, passed away in that city Thursday evening, Aug. 21. During the past three years she had made a brave fight against a serious illness and at a time when her health seemed to be improving her heart gave way under the strain. She was born in Union 16 years ago, her mother, Wytheb Townley DeLay, passing on at the time of her birth. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Townley raised her and she spent several years at their ranch home near Hot Lake. During the time she lived in the Willamette valley she spent much of her time with her grandparents. Besides her father, her grandmother, Mrs. Mary J. Townley survives her. The funeral services were conducted from the Cook undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon by the Rev. H. C. Lee.

Mrs. John Ross, formerly a resident of Union, and her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth and husband returned recently from California and expect to locate somewhere in Eastern Oregon. They have been visiting in Baker, and on Saturday they were entertained at a luncheon at the Union hotel, with Mrs. Mildred Stutchell of Baker as hostess. Mrs. Ross was formerly Neil Wright.

A. Wright and Warren Cornell left Sunday noon for Portland on game commission business. They plan to return home the middle of the week.

C. L. and Miss Alice Caldwell returned Sunday noon from Omak where they attended the funeral of their nephew, Harold Caldwell. They visited at Yakima on their return trip.

Mrs. A. M. Rihnehart and son, Arthur, former residents of Union but now of Seattle, visited friends in Union Saturday.

Mrs. John Green entertained with a delightful lawn party for her "Half-a-Dozen Buns" cooking class and her sewing class Saturday evening. Japanese lanterns and electric lights furnished illumination for the out-door games which occupied most of the evening. Refreshments were served at an early hour following which games were resumed. The Virginia Reel proved the most popular dance of the evening. The girls who attended were Alice Gamble, Betty Cadwell, Kathryn Green, Wytheb Akeley, Dorothy and Vera Posey, Doris and Wanita Sturgill, Ruth Conklin, Ernie Brown, Ethel Conklin and Dora Cronter and the boys, Ferrin Woll, Roy Conklin, Victor Gamble, Grace Vaden, Merlin Langford, Wendell Green, Myron Kicker and Ernie Halsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Evans and small son, of La Grande, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Coburn on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Slater and her
