WOOL REPORT
BOSTON, Aug. 29.—The Commercial Bulletin of Boston tomorrow will say:
The wool market is quieter but prices are steady and there is an undertone of strength, especially in the finer qualities. Demand still favors the worsted wools of the finer grades but there is more interest in woolen descriptions.
Foreign markets are without material change for the week. Merinoes are firm, while crossbreds are a bit on the easy side. Interest is growing in the primary markets of the southern hemisphere and in the next London series opening September 15th.

The piecegoods markets are in a lull at the moment with business rather slow and of no certain tendency as yet. It is expected manufacturers' ideas will have a chance to crystallize as to the new season's tendencies by the middle of next month.
Woolen is slow and prices still nominal.
The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:
Secured basis: Oregon fine and 1 m. staple 73-75, fine and 1 m. Fr. combing 70-73, fine and 1 m. clothing 68-67, valley No. 1, 67-68.
Molina: Oregon—38-40, domestic grading first combing 50-55, good combing 54-55.
