Huge Watermelon—
L. L. McKennon has received a letter from his brother, Dr. A. M. McKennon, of Clarksville, Ark., containing a clipping from the Clarksville newspaper telling of a 160 1/2-pound watermelon grown by C. S. Lowthorp at Hope, Ark., this year. The melon is five feet four inches one way and six feet the other, and has an even, smooth surface, the clipping said. It is the largest on record in that locality. Mr. McKennon recalls an 85-pound watermelon sent to his mother years ago at Union from Arkansas. It cost $5 to ship the 85-pounder to Oregon.

At Round-Up—
A group of prominent La Grande matrons were here for the Round-Up. They were Miss Margaret Anson, Mrs. Peter McDonald and Mrs. Turner Oliver. They are active in club work and are especially interested in the Neighborhood Club Garden Show, an annual fall event. It will take place this week, September 5, and will draw its quota of lovely blossoms from La Grande gardens. — Pendleton East-Oregonian.

News of Former Residents—
The Misses Barbara and Beverly Guy, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Guy, formerly of La Grande and now of Lewiston, Ida., spent Friday in Pendleton attending the Round-Up and Happy Canyon. — East-Oregonian.
