Rev. P. C. Bent To Take Methodist Pulpit, Wallowa

By Edna Renfrow Hunter (Observer Correspondent)
WALLOWA, Ore. (Special) — The Rev. P. C. Bent is the new Methodist minister appointed to come to Wallowa, Ore. and his wife and 13-year-old daughter will arrive this week to take up the work of the Rev. and Mrs. Calhoun, who are moving to Cove today. The Bent family came from the state of Maine and they are said to be talented young people who will be a welcomed addition to the community. They have been spending their vacation at the cabin of the Rev. H. E. Waller at Higher Lake, before taking up the new charge.

The interior of the Shell Mercantile Co. store is undergoing a complete change under the supervision of Ralph Helberg, of Seattle, who has spent several days remodeling the dry goods department and has done away with the old counters and installed merchandise tables.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg and Wm. Levin, of Salem, Mrs. Julia Holmer and Mrs. A. R. Hunter, of La Grande, motored to Wallowa Thursday and spent the day at the C. A. Hunter home.

The Wallowa library is being moved into the Noregaard building at the west end of the Main street and will open its doors to the public on Wednesday, Sept. 3, in the new location and will resume afternoon hours, according to Mrs. P. L. Balkes, librarian.

Miss Edna Mathews, of Eugene, arrived in Wallowa Thursday and will spend ten days as a guest of Virginia Hunter.

C. E. Hood, who has been in Pendleton for the past two months, returned to Wallowa Thursday and will spend the winter with his son, Ross and family.

Clavin Jones, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Archer Jones, of La Grande, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Berry, Tuesday, Aug. 25. Services were conducted at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. C. E. Calhoun. Interment was in the Wallowa cemetery.

H. P. Hermann is spending a two weeks vacation at the coast and J. C. Hodgen, of La Grande, is in charge of his oil station and the delivery during his absence.

Another fire of mysterious origin broke out in a wood pile at the back of Horner's restaurant about two o'clock Thursday morning. Mrs. Roy Horner was awakened by the noise of the fire and turned in the alarm. Prompt action on the part of the fire department saved the surrounding buildings. Several unexplainable fires have occurred recently in the

Road Crew Busy Near Maxville; Rush Grading

By Bertha Carper (Observer Correspondent)
PROMISE, Ore. (Special) — There is a crew of men working on the grade from the gravel pit at the top of the summit to Maxville and they are getting along as fast as possible. Monday the county steam shovel came in to rush the grading along as fast as they can and will then begin to complete the road to Maxville with gravel. The road at present is in bad condition for travelers as the new grade is mostly over the old road. John Carper, Reuben Barton, C. E. Gorbett, Earl Williams and Charles Moore, of Promise, are working on the road.

Mrs. Bertha Carper and daughter, Luella, returned home Monday evening from La Grande, where they had been for a week with Lillian Carper, who had been quite ill but who is now improving. While in La Grande, Mrs. Carper took a ride in one of the planes belonging to the Flying Fleet. She reports that she enjoyed the ride and hopes sometime to take a journey in one.

John Dond was delivering strawberries in Maxville Tuesday going later on to Wallowa to other business.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hesse and daughter, Bonita, came down from Maxville Sunday evening to the Teel's. Mr. Teel and Mrs. Hesse went on to Eden to look at some farms for sale. They returned in the evening, pleased with the country but did not decide to locate.

C. E. Carper and son, Melvin, went to Powersville Tuesday evening and are working on the threshing machine at Geo. Coleman's.

Johnnie Swearingen had the misfortune to smash his large toe quite badly Tuesday afternoon. He was returning from harvesting summerfall and when opening the gate, let it fall on his toe, mashing it badly and tearing out the nail.

The members of the threshing machine company of Promise held a business meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Arthur Wallace. It was decided to begin threshing for Leo Kenworthy Monday, as his place is the farthest out and making the round of the farmers will finish at C. E. Gorbett's, where he will have engine to cut in, using the same engine. Mr. Gorbett is president of the company.

Mrs. Pearl Lively underwent an operation at the Wallowa hospital, August 16. The baby, a 4½ pound boy, is making good progress and Mrs. Lively, whose condition was quite critical for several days, is getting along nicely at present.

Mrs. Reuben Carper and son, Norman, are spending the week visiting friends in Wallowa.

Mrs. Almecida Carper visited her

HOME DECORATION TALKS—NO. 2

by Fay Fraser
CHARLEMAGNE'S TABLES

If we all could have three tables like Charlemagne's, we would be happy. This silver one of gold and the other of jewels—no doubt none of us would ever worry about their appearance.

Although, perhaps, if the truth were known, Charlemagne's Queen probably became pretty tired of seeing the same old gold and silver tables year after year around the castle. Today, the modern wife knows that it is easy and economical to change the color scheme of her breakfast set when time dims its appearance.

I recently suggested a very striking dining room design for Mrs. Hauptmann in Bakerfield, which she liked. Her dining room set was dingy and cheerless. We set it in Ojai Gray Flex with trimmings of Forest Green Flex. Because Flex, that marvelous new color-coating, is flexible, we were able to paint the leather pads of her chairs with Gray Flex.

I do want to recommend Flex to your attention. It is neither an enamel nor a lacquer—but Flex. The newest thing out in paints. Any one can paint

Dog Caddies For Blind Gopher In College Student

SEATTLE (A) — For a golf ball falls into the distance from a back yard tee with a coal black shepherd dog caddy in hot pursuit.

Thus Vashon Island's sightless gopher, Don Morgan, an 18-year-old Cornell university sophomore, keeps in trim for college in the fall.

Morgan was blinded by a Fourth of July explosion in 1928. For months he remained in a hospital here.

Powerful in physique and ambitious scholastically, he was graduated from the Vashon Island high school with highest honors and entered Cornell last fall. He finished eleventh scholastically during his freshman year.

His ambition is to stroke a Cornell varsity crew to victory and aid in repeating the college's 1930 triumph at the national intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson. Last year he won the stroke's position in the Arts college boat.

He's taken up golf also. Recently he sank six out of eight 100 foot puts at his father's golf club course, gaining accuracy by the sound of someone's tapping the cup.

daughter, Mrs. Maude Haney, in Wallowa Sunday.

I. S. McDonald is pulling and threshing out his soup beans this week. He has about one half acre of them.

Mrs. Lula Trump and Mrs. Tex Williams were getting green beans for canning purposes at John Carper's Tuesday.

Melvin and Orval Carper were at Henry Snuffer's Monday and with the help of Don Snuffer, they repaired Melvin's car. They returned home that evening.

W. W. Carper took Mr. and Mrs. French Trump to Wallowa Tuesday. Mrs. Trump was quite ill of appendicitis and will have to be operated soon. As Bill was returning he had the misfortune to break his car and had to walk home. Wednesday morning he took his team to Maxville when he went to deliver milk and vegetables. Ivan Carper accompanied him to drive the team back and Bill brought the car back.

Mrs. Allie Smith and Mrs. Lula Trump visited Mrs. John Lyons, of Sunnyside, on Sunday.

Mrs. Lula Trump and son, Erma, and Ray, were scrubbing and cleaning the Poguee school Monday, preparatory for school, which will begin Monday, Sept. 8. Mrs. Alice Chenworth is the teacher.

Mrs. Thelma Denton is visiting on to Wallowa this week.

Logging operations around Maxville have been closed except the cleaning up of the logs already cut and in the woods, many men have been laid off. C. E. Roby and son, Clarence, who

IS ART TO HAVE A TYRANT?

THO' the Robot can make no music of himself, he can and does arrest the efforts of those who can. Manners mean nothing to this monstrous offering of modern industrialism, as it crowds Living Music out of the theatre spotlight.

Though "music" has charms to soothe the savage beast, to soften rocks or bend a knotted oak," it has no power to appease the Robot of Canned Music. Only the theatre-going public can do that.

Hence the swift growth of the Music Defense League, formerly known as the Living Music in the Theatre.

Every lover of music should join in this rescue of Art from debasement. Sign and mail the coupon.
