

Special Offering

New Crisp School Frocks

Long sleeve school dresses, new crisp and smart looking, perfectly tailored in the newest prints and novelties. Smartly trimmed and guaranteed fast colors. Sizes 7 to 14 yrs.

Only $1.00

See Our Window

HILL'S

La Grande's Largest Home-Owned Store

JOSEPH PERSONALS

By Leona Thornburg (Observer-Contributor)
JOSEPH, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. Margaret Sheets celebrated her seventy-sixth birthday anniversary on Wednesday, Aug. 20. Her children gathered at her home in the afternoon, bringing a delightful birthday dinner with them. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Collinsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Houck and family, Mrs. Helen Howells and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sheets and family.

Mrs. Sam White and family accompanied by Mrs. Clyde DeBole and two small children left early Monday morning for Portland. Mrs. White and family will visit there while Mrs. DeBole is taking her little daughter, Phyllis to the Shriner's hospital for treatment. They plan on staying in Portland about two weeks.

Mrs. Ellen Knapper and two granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp departed for Portland Friday where the two girls will attend high school. Mrs. Knapper's house in Joseph will be occupied by the F. H. Gault family this winter as their house was destroyed by fire last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Needham and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cameron, Mrs. Weltha Mitchell and niece, Miss Beverly Scott, motored to Gumbout canyon Sunday looking for buckberries. Although most of the berries were gone, they managed to find two gallons.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dawson and family drove to La Grande one day last week to visit their daughter, Miss Mary, who is attending the Eastern Oregon Normal school. They also did some shopping while there. Jimmie Leslie, of La Grande, came home with them for a few days.

Miss Marjorie Young has returned to her home in Portland, after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Don Beth in Joseph, an aunt in Enterprise, Mrs. Bertin Cronin and a brother, Glen McGary, also of Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rich and family have moved down on Mill street to be nearer the school. He is now occupying a house belonging to Colonel Eberhard of La Grande.

Friends have just recently heard of the death of the Rev. John C. Garrison in Los Angeles on Sunday, Aug. 16. Mr. Carlson was pastor of the Methodist church in Joseph for about three years but left here about four years ago and has made his home in Los Angeles since then. He had been suffering from heart disease for several years. Besides his wife and several children and other relatives, he also leaves a host of friends to mourn his death. Mr. Carlson's children are all grown and nearly all have positions of their own.

Joseph schools opened Monday, Sept. 1. There is one less high school teacher this year. W. E. Wittman, formerly of Kuna, Idaho is superintendent, taking the place of H. M. DeBois, who had been in the Joseph schools for a number of years. Principal Clyde Beam, of Nyssa, is here again this year, but the other two teachers are new. Miss Margaret Fisher, of Albany, is the commercial teacher. The grade teachers are Miss Gertrude Wilson, of Parkersburg, first grade; Miss Winifred Beth, second grade; Mrs. E. E. Metzger, third grade; Miss Beverly Scott, fourth grade; Mrs. C. P. Crawford, fifth grade; Miss Mabel Elliott, sixth grade; Mrs. H. M. Ogan, seventh grade; and Miss Ruth Dubois, eighth grade.

Mrs. Steven Houck gave a birthday party in honor of her small son, Steuben (Buddy) at her home on Barton Heights, Thursday. The afternoon was spent in playing games and refreshments were served by Mrs. Houck. The guests were Shirley Keener, Howard Wilson, Melvin and Verla Scott, Harold and Norma Gray, Jack Christy, Betty and Louise Maye, Jack and Beva Lewis, Frederick Beaudin, Phyllis Debole, Margaret White, Arlene Foster, Coleen Hudson, Yerron McMasters, Mary and Ritz Dainley, Patricia Warnock, Layton Hamilton, Lois and Jackie Childers and Wilbur Isley.

E. J. Haudlik, district forest man from the Portland office, was in Joseph last week on business.

Al Norgaard, of Zuni, was in Joseph visiting friends one day last week.

Mrs. Myrtle Faust, who will take charge of a cream station here, arrived in Joseph Wednesday. Mrs. Ione Dodson, who has had charge of the station for several years, has been transferred to Elenburg, Wash., and will work in a station there. Her son, Chester, accompanied his mother and will enter school in Elenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schroll and daughter terminated a very delightful visit Friday when they departed for their home in Tucson, Ariz. They spent the summer visiting Mr. Schroll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Schroll, of Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Walters, of Pendleton, spent last week at the Wailawa Lake Park hotel. They were also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eben and while here, Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Eben made a trip to Pendleton, visiting Mrs. Ed Baum, a sister of Mrs. Eben.

The Rev. S. E. Smutz has been re-appointed pastor of the Methodist church in Joseph for this coming year.

Mrs. F. D. Culley is having a room built on the back of the Sweet Shop and will have hot and cold water installed.

Joe Le Gore left Wednesday for a six weeks stay on Hurricane Creek where he will work his mines.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Daggett and family have just returned from a six week's trip to Iowa and Illinois, where they were visiting relatives.

Lester Sannar, of Enterprise, and Geo. Peal, of Prairie Creek, were guests of Robert Rice at his home on the Innaha last weekend.

Two cars driven by John Sims and Merril Morgan collided on the highway near the Bert Egleson place last Saturday night. No one received any injuries but the cars were damaged some.

Postmaster P. E. Mays visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Mays, of The Dalles. He has not seen them in several years.

W. W. Zurcher, of Enterprise, was in Joseph on business Monday. Mr. Zurcher is secretary of the fair association.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson had a very pleasant surprise last Wednesday when their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Hamby of Coner d'Alene, Idaho, came in. They had not seen them for ten years. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wingfield and family of Hurricane Creek before returning home but expect to leave about Saturday. Mrs. Hamby and Mrs. Wingfield are sisters.

Maurice Lloyd is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lloyd, in Joseph this week. He will go to Lostine from there, where he will enter school. Maurice spent most of his vacation with his father at the McGraw ranger station.

Warren Borer, of Hurricane Creek, left with a carload of sheep Tuesday, bound for Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keener and daughters are planning a Labor day visit to the Innaha to visit relatives of Mr. Keener's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Indictot and son of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, are in Joseph attending to some business matters. Mr. Indictot has been in very poor health for the past year but is improving now.
Bob Reams, Ralph Felt and "Sherry" Lee made a trip to Minam Lake last weekend.
Jerry Woods, of Pendleton, was in Joseph on business last week. Mr. Woods was a former resident of Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.
Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.

Miss Buhmaline Hall, of Wallawa was visiting her brother, Wade Hall, in Joseph last weekend.

Leo Huffman accompanied by his niece and nephew of Big Bend left for Pendleton Friday to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray have moved into Joseph and Mrs. Gray is running a transfer truck.

Ten men were called from Joseph Thursday afternoon to help fight a forest fire on the Innaha near the forest office. The fire was quickly pushed. This made a total of 15 men there. Although the men had not returned Friday afternoon, it is thought that the fire had been checked.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cole purchased a car last week.

Mrs. Edgar Marvin, of Joseph, was entertaining a sister and niece, Mrs. L. A. Parsons and her daughter, Helen of La Grande, last week.

Mrs. Joe Sheets has just returned from La Grande, where she had been visiting a sister, Mrs. Bill McMasters, and her family.

Mrs. Jennings was complimented with a birthday dinner given by his wife last Tuesday evening. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and their family, Mrs. L. Knapper and granddaughters, Irene and Frances Schupp, Mrs. Edith Holst and grandson, Edward Parrish, enjoyed the dinner.