Perry Club Meets With Mrs. Hansen

Mrs. Harry Hansen was hostess yesterday at a pleasant meeting of the Perry club with 12 members and one guest were present at her home at 1609 Adams. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. George Robinson of Pondosa and Mrs. Jessie Stiles winning prizes. The hostess served a delicious two course luncheon at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Fallow Is Thursday Hostess

The Home Department of the Presbyterian church was entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. William Fallow with about twenty members and friends present. Miss Ruth Anderson led the devotionals on the subject, "The Value of Prayer."

Miss Lois Davis played two piano numbers, "Sunrise Echoes" and "Sabbath Chimes." A telephone message to Heaven was a reading given by Miss Ruth Fallow.

The rest of the afternoon following the business meeting was spent socially with sewing as a diversion. Nearing the close of the meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments. The afternoon was closed with prayer by the Rev. J. George Walz. The next meeting will be the first Thursday in October.

Thrashing is practically completed in this neighborhood as also is the combine work. Spring grain is reported going over forty bushels to the acre in some fields. John Murclain is owner of the machine, which did most of the thrashing, while one owned by Delt McCoy, also aided in the work.

Mrs. Clara Richards, who has been ill at the Grand Hotel hospital for some time, has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Leak.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Feik and children spent Labor day on the Minam river, fishing.

J. Norman Feik and Frank James accompanied by Mr. Feik's nieces, the Misses Ruby Feik and Mamie Hendricks, spent a three days vacation trip by motoring to Council, Idaho, where they visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Allen and children, accompanied by Mrs. Allen's mother, Philip Burrows, left Tuesday for Bridge Idaho. They expect to be gone about a week.

Miss Gertrude Nebecker is receiving congratulations over the success in winning second place in the ladies' Labor day walking contest.

F. Feik has sold his registered Guernsey bull, which he won many ribbons with at the stock show, to Charles Noyes.

E. W. Langrin attended the Pendleton Round-Up on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Calkins and children, Iris and Fay, motored to Walla Walla Thursday.

A. Mickelson of Island City was a business visitor here on Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Ida Nebecker is suffering from a sprained ankle received some time ago. It was necessary to obtain medical aid for the injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Allen of Nampa, Idaho, are visiting at the home of their son, R. S. Allen.

STARTING TO SCHOOL.

By Alice Johnson Peake

If you have a child who is starting to school for the first time this September, it may be worthwhile to consider what you want his first year in school to mean to him, and just how you can do your share toward making his first school experience as happy and fruitful as possible.

Perhaps the most important part of the child's equipment for his new experience is the feeling that going to school is a privilege, an opportunity to do and learn all sorts of interesting things.

American Legion Auxiliary Gives Surprise Monday

By Leitha Cleaver
(Observed Correspondent)

IMBLER, Ore. (Special) — The American Legion Auxiliary gave the American Legion a surprise Monday evening after their business meeting in the hall. Games were played and refreshments were served by the members of the auxiliary. A meeting will be held Sept. 8 when officers will be elected for the coming year. All members are asked to be present.

Cecil Griggs and W. L. Swerlengen visited Ontario Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of judging the Smith-Hughes vocational agricultural exhibits. Wednesday they drove to the New Plymouth fair, where they saw many good exhibits of club projects and community products. Thursday, they criticized (mostly favorably) the vocational agriculture department of Win Higgins, one of the four master teachers of agriculture in the state of Oregon. In the afternoon, the exhibits of swine, poultry and dairy cattle were placed in order of merit. Some were very good. During the afternoon, a very good program was given. It included selection of a queen of the fair, who was Miss Dearborn, a sister to one of the prominent Smith-Hughes agriculture teachers of the state, O. D. Dearborn. She was given a prize of $250. Other features of the program were dancing, racing, auto polo and music by the band. The crops were reported very good on both the Oregon and Idaho slopes of the Snake river.

A birthday party was given Mrs. Frank Martin, the last of the week by members of the American Legion auxiliary. Those present were Mrs. Stringham of La Grande, Mrs. Lanman, Mrs. Ruth Westenskow of La Grande, Mrs. Milo Pratt, Mrs. Walter Furman, Mrs. Pat Rollins, Mrs. L. J. Martin, Mrs. Anna Westenskow, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Otis Buchanan, Mrs. John Skilling, Mrs. Arthur Furman, Mrs. John Lloyd, Mrs. Clyde Wright, Mrs. Walter Young and Mrs. Edna Conklin. The afternoon was spent in visiting. Dainty refreshments were served late in the afternoon. Mrs. Martin received many lovely presents. The day was celebrated in honor of her sixty-second birthday.

George Hardy intends to move his family back to Imbler before school starts. Mr. Hardy runs the meat market at Imbler.

Dr. Martin and wife of Enterprise spent the day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin, last Sunday.

The Blue Bird sewing circle girls were proud to carry away one of the prizes for their year's work. Ned Wilson, a member of the club won fourth prize on her sewing. All the girls had very nice work to exhibit. Several people of Imbler attended the picnic at Union. In the judging Clifford Royce, of Summerville won the first place, Bobby Huron, second, and Almon Geiss of Cove, third and Clayton Fox, alternate.

Five British grocery chains plan a merger which will include about 6,000 retail stores.

ASLEEP, FALLS ON TRACK TO DEATH

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 5 (AP) — A man who was identified by a card found on the body as R. F. Seitzinger, 523 West Third street, Wichita, Kans., was killed by a Southern Pacific freight train here last night. Seitzinger, a transient, was riding on one of the cars and apparently fell to the track while asleep. The identification card gave the name of Mrs. Nora Seitzinger as his wife. A message was sent her by Coroner Higdon.

Old Bronzes Have "Disease"
CHICAGO (AP) — Many of the ancient bronzes at the Field museum here are infected with "bronze disease," or malignant patina. If not cured it entirely destroys the bronze. Cure is difficult and is accomplished by a special electric treatment used with chemical processes.

NORRIS PROCLAIMS WEEK
SALEM, Ore., Sept. 5 (AP) — Governor Norris issued a proclamation today setting aside the period from September 14 to 20 for the observance of constitution week in Oregon. The people are urged to observe the week with appropriate exercises in schools, churches, civic and fraternal clubs. September 17 will be the 143rd anniversary of the completing and signing of the United States constitution.

South Dakota is making a survey preparatory to revising its course of study in public schools.

A new Boy Scout camp near Ash-tabula, O., is a duplicate of an Indian village.
