Green And Gold Ball Is Planned

The annual green and gold ball of the M. I. A. has been planned and the decoration will carry out a balloon idea, according to plans made at a meeting of the stake board of the M. I. A. yesterday afternoon at 3:30 at the tabernacle.

The balloon ball will be held in the large ball room in the Recreational hall. Lavish decorations are being planned, Mrs. Clyde Metcalf, chairman of decorations, promises.

A queen will be chosen from the entire stake to preside over the ball. Candidates for the queenship will be chosen before hand and five young women of the stake will compete, Mrs. Jack Hiatt states.

Candy and popcorn will be dispensed from cleverly decorated booths and punch will be served throughout the evening without charge.

Several couples, who are practising for the contest dance which will take place in Salt Lake City in June, will demonstrate the dance. The Star Novelty orchestra has been secured to furnish music.

Committee chairmen appointed yesterday include Mrs. Anna Black, La Grande, and Parley Palmer, Baker, general chairmen; Mrs. Metcalf, decorations; Mrs. Hiatt, candy booth and popcorn; Elmo Clegg, advertising. Mrs. George Lyman is president of the Gleaners, while Grant Bean is president of the men's organization and will assist in planning the green and gold ball.

La Grande Girls In Style Show

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene (Special)—The most fashionable affair of the year at the University of Oregon is the style show, sponsored annually by the Associated Women students for the high school delegates who attend the annual high school conference. The style show was held last Saturday with Miss Jane Stange and Miss Hester Hopkins, both of La Grande, acting as models. They showed dinner dresses, while other girls were chosen to wear other types of clothes.

Miss Hopkins and Miss Stange are both students at the university.

The clothes, which were modeled, were those which fill out a well-rounded day: trim sports outfits, smart campus clothes, chic afternoon frocks; long, clinging dinner gowns; evening dress striking enough to be classed as "creations;" and brilliant, Oriental lounging pyjamas.

Entertain Mohawk Club Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. William McClure entertained the Mohawk Bridge club at their home on Saturday evening.

Guests for the evening besides the club members were Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Riley, Mrs. Chester Koyle, Mrs. J. J. Broomfield.

Prizes at bridge were won by Mr. and Mrs. James Oneal, club prize; and Mrs. Koyle and Dr. Riley, guest awards.

Following the cards a luncheon was served by the hostess and it was decided to have the next meeting with Mrs. Jack Oliver on January 24.

W. B. A. Planning Tuesday Meeting

The Women's Benefit association will entertain at a potluck dinner at the Odd Fellows hall at 6:30 Tuesday evening. Coffee, cream and sugar will be served by the lodge and each member attending is requested to bring a covered dish. The family is invited to the dinner, Mrs. C. L. Mackey, past president of the group, states.

Immediately following the dinner, the members of the W. B. A. will retire to the lodge hall for installation of officers. Those to be installed are Mrs. Nellie Reynolds, president; Mrs. Pearl Enterline, vice president; Mrs. Hazel Jenkins, recorder; Mrs. Vera Murchison, collector; Mrs. Nellie Charlton, treasurer; Mrs. Loelote Pohrman, lady of ceremony; Mrs. Audrey Coleman, captain; Mrs. Anna Greulich, chaplain; Mrs. Allene McDonald, outer hostess; Mrs. Lily Niederer, inner hostess; Mrs. Floy Wetzel, sergeant; Mrs. Nora Mackey, past president; Miss Gladys Owen, Miss America; Miss Ruthie Niederer, Miss W. B. A.; Mrs. Ernestine Stitzinger, musician; Mrs. Eleanor Carr and Mrs. Lillian Ebert, standard bearers.

During the installation card tables will be placed for the men in the reception room where they will play pinochle. After the meeting a short program and a dance have been planned to which the families and friends of the W. B. A. members are invited. The dance begins about 9:30.

Mr. Longfellow Is Speaker at Meet

"Character education is far more important than reading, writing and arithmetic," J. T. Longfellow, superintendent of city schools, declared in a talk to the Willow Parent-Teacher association Friday afternoon. Mrs. S. F. Andrews, president of the city council, the second speaker, also spoke on character building and stated that children's decisions as to right and wrong are much influenced by the environment in which they live.

Other numbers on the program included a playlet, "Good Citizens and Careless Citizens," by pupils of Evelyn Bennett's second grade room. They also sang "Happy New Year," "Christmas Bells," and "Jingle Bells." "The Birth of the Christ Child" was presented by three girls from Miss Sarah Williamson's room. Mrs. Bethel St. Johns sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. H. C. McClay.

"Aurora," a painting by Guido Reni, was presented to the association by Mrs. Bennett, principal of Willow school, and Miss Williamson told the story of the origin. The picture is to be used as the contest prize for parent attendance. The second grade room received the prize at the Friday meeting.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Dee Davis, Mrs. Ralph Nibler, Mrs. L. E. Evans and Mrs. Cookson.

Missionary Group To Meet Jan. 14

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet on Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. A. Leffel, 900 Main avenue.

Menus Of The Day

By Mrs. Alexander George

Egg Sauce

1 cup sugar.
2 tablespoons flour.
¼ teaspoon salt.
1½ cups water.
1 tablespoon butter.
2 eggs, well beaten.
2 teaspoons vanilla.

Blend the sugar, flour, salt and water. Cook until a little thick and creamy. Stir constantly. Add the butter and eggs. Cook slowly, stirring constantly 2 minutes. Beat well. Add vanilla. Cool and chill. Serve on warm puddings.

Fruit cakes improve with age if they are stored in an air tight place. They should not be covered with frosting as the frosting will harden and become stale before the cake has really "ripened."

The individual pumpkin pies can be baked in deep muffin pans. When cool and ready to serve mark features with whipped cream, on top each pie and fasten tiny frill of fringed orange crepe paper around "neck" of pie.

Have You Ever Owned Real Estate?

HAVE you ever experienced the thrill of holding a deed in your hand showing that you were the owner of a piece of real estate? Have you ever known the satisfaction of living in a home that belonged to you, or of cashing rent checks from tenants occupying your property?

Many people, who are comfortably "well off" have accumulated worthwhile estates through gradual purchase of real estate. Many others have built a bulwark against want and poverty in old age by buying a home of their own.

You can find frequent opportunities to buy a lot, a house, or a piece of farm land at a reasonable price. And through a savings account you can accumulate enough money to swing the deal. We will be glad to suggest how the best savings plan can be worked out, and will give you the benefit of our experience and counsel when you are considering a real estate purchase.
